New Grand President
Alice Weber Mansfield, Missouri B

We Caught Our Star

The Pi Beta Phis in the Fraternity's forty-first Biennial Convention have caught their star. She is Alice Weber Mansfield, our new Grand President.

Charming Alice Mansfield possesses the sparkling qualities of personality and character we associate with a real Pi Phi "star."

These qualities include a sincere devotion to the ideals of Pi Beta Phi, an intelligent grasp of the Fraternity system and its needs, a warm relationship with its actives and alumnæ, and a solid background of preparation for the duties of her new office through seven years service on Grand Council.

Our new Grand President possesses that rare blend of humility and quiet confidence that are so necessary for leadership. She brings with this a loving heart, open mind and firm hand as she is asked to head our Fraternity.

Alice Weber Mansfield is a leader we can follow in confidence, counsel in trust and with whom we can work in harmony as we enter a new biennium in Pi Beta Phi's history.

The star we have caught now becomes a beacon to guide us when duty demands and to light our path with the warm glow of true friendship and love.

Pi Beta Phi stretches forth its hand for the clasp of sisterhood as it welcomes its new leader and pledges her its loyal support in the days and years ahead.

EDITORIALS

Of Convention

In this issue we give you a fine story of "Highlights of Convention" written by the brilliant editor of the Convention Daily—read it, and you will have gained a picture of the moments which made Convention a memorable experience for those fortunate enough to be there. There were sober moments, too, especially in the Moments of Meditation so beautifully expressed by Lucile Douglas Carson, former Grand Secretary. We liked especially the last one of the series which we are privileged to give here to the readers of the ARROW:

Things Lovely and of Good Report

"... whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report."

Thus we move from all things lovely, fair beyond compare, to the serious thought of things of good report—of good account as they are measured by their worth to us and to others; from the contemplations which delight and offer the gift of peace of heart, to those which ever challenge us.

We hear the roll of the perfections and we speak sadly, saying that we can never be so perfect. Then the voice of yesterday replies, "We could not ask perfection. The noblest regret things done and things left undone. We only ask that you be faithful—that you build your life on a conscious effort, "thinking" on these things.

There is a woman who tells the story of her return to her girlhood home and always, no matter how many years have intervened, she relates again that someone there has said that she has not changed at all. That assurance seems to be most important to her. Can anyone live twenty-five years, meeting faithfully the obligations of those years, and pay no toll physically? Battered as we may be, unless they come from some neglect, our scars are the honorable ones of accumulated usefulness and of having lived those years of mounting score. And there is a comforting compensation. Years and struggle need not destroy the beauty of the heart. The spirit can grow more lovely as the years go by, untouched by the hurts that the body must bear. Met bravely and wonderfully, the hurts of life may create a spirit so precious that other hearts are blessed by it.

For ninety-one years an exquisite golden shaft has been pinned upon each new Pi Phi. Here, today are Arrows glowing in the worn polish of fifty years and more, and, here too are those so new that they show no sign of wear. The age of your Arrow matters not but whether you are following it does. For each of us it points upward, as the Arrow was set in its course years ago. That course requires that we be true to each one of the "Whatsoevers" and to the obligation to keep them ever before us. If we should sing again, "We are the People, People" our singing would not be an idle boast, then. I know that the joy of having known you, O Pi Phi, is because you are the traditionally lovely and true person of whom the Arrow is the symbol.

We welcome a new colony

Convention voted to authorize the establishment of a colony at Albion College in Michigan, eventually to become Michigan Delta of Pi Beta Phi. Under the able and experienced guidance of Helen Lewis and Virginia Speaker from Grand Council, with the aid of the province officers, and with girls from near by chapter helping in rushing, the colony rushed in competition with strong chapters already on the campus. Twenty five pledges came to the colony—all duly recommended according to National requirements.

The new group comes with the full approval of the college administration and the local Panhellenic, and is off to a fine start.

To them the ARROW extends a warm welcome. In a later issue will come a story of the college at Albion—always a strong fraternity background.

Of Gatlinburg

We present a new kind of "News From Little Pigeon," and we hope you will like as much as we do, the graphic presentation of the results of our efforts at ARROWCRAFT. For it we salute Lois Snyder Finger, former Grand Secretary, now devoting her time to the Settlement School Committee.

Quotable Quotes

What Are We Guaranteed?

There is not a single word in our revered Constitution, nor a word in our immortal Declaration of Independence that guarantees any man or any group any results. These instruments of government speak entirely in terms of opportunity. The job of organized government is to keep the road open and the ladder up and steady.

It is our job, as individuals and citizens, to take that road and to climb that ladder.

No government, however beneficent its edicts may appear, can provide a substitute for individual effort and application.

We need to be reminded again and again, that we cannot legislate ourselves into the millennium.

We cannot organize into utopia.—GREY LESLIE

Fraternity Growth:

From the Garnet and White of Alpha Chi Rho, here is an interesting and useful statement of fraternity statistical material:

"Planned nationwide opposition would have it zero—the facts prove otherwise. In the year of 1956-1957 there were 3,304 chapters of members of the National Interfraternity Conference, up from 3,252 in the year previous, and 3,198 in 1954. The total number of members has also decidedly increased: 1,578,870 for 1956, a jump of more than 100,000 from the 1954 total. There are 196 more houses owned by chapters than in 1954.

"The 31 member sororities in the National Panhellenic Conference had a total membership at the beginning of the 1955-1956 college year of 815,695, a little more than 9% increase over the previous biennium. In that period 75 new undergraduate chapters had raised the total to 1,767, while 397 new alumnae groups made the total as of June 1, 1955, a record 4,202. There also were substantial increases between that date and the first of January, 1957.

"Thus there have been nearly two hundred chapters added in the past two years and an increase of approximately 175,000 members. Social fraternities and sororities not included in the two Conferences named have had similar increases, while locals are also maintaining their membership gains.

"Here is a statistical answer to the critics who through wishful thinking insist that present day college youth is not interested in fraternities and sororities."

Convention Highlights

by Dorothy Davis Stuck,
Editor, Convention Daily

→ Pi Phi paths followed the ARROW's upswept direction last June to a tiny dot on the map of New England's rocky coast labeled "Swampscott, Mass." Once there, that dot mushroomed into new proportions of grandeur and gladness that only the site of a Pi Beta Phi convention can bring to the hearts of her own.

The mirror of this magical change from speck to sea-swept spaciousness was Swampscott's New Ocean House, where nearly 800 Pi Phis gathered for their Fraternity's 41st Convention. The venerable hotel's length and breadth sparkled for six days with the reflected brilliance of happy reunions, warm new friendships, laughter and song, dinners and programs of beauty and inspiration, meetings filled with challenge and accomplishment, and the myriad other wonders related to this unique gathering.

In retrospect, we cannot help but associate the appeal of Convention with the thrill each of us felt when we first received our Pi Phi pin. The wonder of belonging, the sense of sisterhood and sharing, the loveliness of inspiration that filled our beings with our ARROW's first possession all seem repeated in the experience of a Pi Phi convention.

"The chain binds our hearts" is never more meaningful, perhaps, than in one of the ceremonies or events shared by sisters of every chapter at Convention. In a sense, it is truly a beautiful "badge." Pi Phis of one or ten conventions wear that "badge" on memory's special occasions.

Its strong gold shaft was revealed to all of us in these pages of the comprehensive Fall Information ARROW. The diligent, dedicated work of Grand Council, our national officers, and our active and alumnæ delegates recorded in those reports was tangible evidence that the strength of Pi Beta Phi stems from such wise planning and unselfish service.

Now we turn to that other phase of Convention, equally important . . . the social highlights, the lighter moments, the inspirational touches that provided the sparkling jewels for our Convention "badge."

Swampscott itself had an element of radiance with sun and sea against the backdrop of blue sky outside our windows and doors. Here also was that quality of worth that permeates this place of our country's sturdy beginning.

Craftsmen, too, are associated with New England, and Pi Phis at the 1958 Convention enjoyed the handiwork of artisans of perfection in planning and arrangement.

There were the tireless New Ocean House president, Col. Clement Kennedy, and his charming wife, Katherine Devine Kennedy, Pi Phi's Convention Initiate of 1950, who opened their hearts with their doors to make New Ocean House home to all Pi Phis.

Every talent of three very capable individuals, Ethel Sanford (Sandy) Adams, Convention Guide, Adeline Pate Prentiss, Hospitality Chairman, and Dorothy I. Warner, Registration Chairman, had been given generously to prepare the setting. They were ever present to guide and insure the placement of each pearl of pleasure with a touch that was deft and sure.

Their work was lightened, and every guest's experience brightened with the countless contributions of the alumnæ and active hostesses of Alpha and Beta Provinces toward making each special dinner or event bright with artistry and appeal.

If you were there, choose with us your special gems for memory's happy reliving; if only in spirit you could come this year, choose, too, those you would cherish, and together we will select the components for one grand Pi Beta Phi convention ARROW.

Sunday had that first flashing fire of excitement and expectation in the reunions and first meetings of sisters at the pleasant informal reception presented so graciously by the Westchester (N.Y.) Alumnæ Club, and the Pilgrim's Dinner of the Greater Boston Club. The flame of pride burned brightly later in Convention Hall as Pi Phis in substantial number rose for recognition from cum laude graduates to campus queens and leaders . . . as that brilliant, beloved builder of our group, Amy Burnham Onken, stood to acknowledge an ovation following L. G. Balfour's tribute to her as "The greatest fraternity leader of all time." . . . in hearty applause of approval to the surprise presentation of Pi Phi Brother's Pins to two gentlemen who fill the role so perfectly, Mr. Balfour and Col. Kennedy. The glow of devotion was its most beautiful in the long line of active delegates dressed in pale blue and carrying wine carnations to silver bowls in a Memorial Service that paid tribute with loving dignity to Pi Phis who have passed from our midst.

Translucence radiated in waves Monday in the brilliant and commanding challenge of the Grand President's message given by Marianne Reid Wild at the first regular session . . . the matchless inspiration of the initiation ceremony that brought Doris Littlefield Marden and Marjorie Chalmers into bonds of wine and blue . . . the rare touch of the Northern New Jersey Alumnae Club at the Dinner by Chapters in their spotlighted arrangement of a three dimensional replica of Holt House with twelve ceramic figures on its lawn representing Pi Phi's founders . . . the crowning glory of a happy day with the evening's program of that peer among us, National Historian Marian Simmons, who breathes life into our fascinating history with perfection's mastery in her presentation.

Deep luster glowed Tuesday as Golden Arrow Pi

Phis received a measure of the honor and devotion felt for them by all at their luncheon given by the Philadelphia Alumnae Club. Gold's brilliance gleamed in artistic appointments and its value in the eyes and spirits of the thirty honored guests. The flavor of the hills of Tennessee tickled the palate at the Hartford (Conn.) Eastern Club's Settlement School dinner . . . laughter reigned supreme as the inimitable Virginia Brackett Greene, Settlement School Chairman, presented her program . . . laughter along with appreciation as this quick-witted, able individual wove interesting vital facts and service recognition into her entertaining presentation with the skill of the School's most gifted weaver.

The fun of relaxed play glinted across Wednesday as Recreation Day appeared. Well planned tours revealed the fascinating sites of historical and cultural interest which abound along the North Shore . . . with such erudite exploration interrupted only once by an earthy matter, the halting of a tour bus in mid-Boston as police chased a bank robber. The neglected surf welcomed hardy swimmers to its early cool waves and then formed a background for a colorful host of Pi Phis assembled for the day's perfect climax, a giant Cooky-Shine Supper, on the lawn before New Ocean House. Happy spirits found release in the day's final event, the Song Contest, where melodies of Pi Phi love and laughter all found acceptance as they vied for honor.

The steady gleam of worthy endeavor and progress lighted Thursday's way as delegates of 103 Pi Phi Chapters approved the colonization of the 104th chapter of the Fraternity at Albion College, Albion, Mich. Old Timers honored at a luncheon found themselves outdated by the clever centerpieces, 1805 straw mannikins holding the flower arrangements of their hostesses of the New York City Alumnae Club. Panhellenic spirit was captured with pennants bearing the Greek letters of other sororities marching down the tables of Thursday night's dinner, and Pi Phi campus leadership in that field was spotlighted by the four active delegates seated at the head table who are serving this year as presidents of their respective college panhellenics.

Multi-faceted brilliance showering forth in timeless light marked Friday's climax to this week of priceless pleasure. "Follow, Follow the Arrow True" was the banquet theme that guided many hearts as one to a lofty plain of affection and inspiration in a background of sheer beauty achieved by Barclay Slade and her Greater Boston Alumnae Club committee with a huge golden arrow mobile suspended from the dining room dome, twinkling constellations in the blue background of the speakers' table, and softly rising mist caressing gold arrow centerpieces on each table . . . with the gracious charm of mistress of ceremonies, Alice Weber Mansfield, who planned the banquet program as Grand Vice President and presided as our new Grand President . . . the breathless excitement and spontaneous pleasure as honors and awards were announced . . . the ovation accorded retiring Grand President, Marianne Reid Wild, when convention's gift to her of a specially designed jeweled carnation pin was announced . . . the feeling of devotion that followed each toast's presentation . . . the surge of emotion during the candlelighting ceremony and that last sweet song, "Remember the Pi Phi Arrow."

Take one or all of this treasure trove and for good measure a handful of random brilliants such as:

The presence of Dr. May Keller and Miss Onken, spicing conversation at luncheon and dinner table with keen wit, adding their valuable measure of wisdom and experience to fill this Convention cup to overflowing . . . the rewarding close association with Grand Council members, who moved from individual to chapter and province gatherings with easy charm and sincere interest, with a word and moment for all who sought them.

The festive blossoming of Pi Phi chapeaus of straw with wine and blue daisy-decked bands, designed and hawked by Mass. A hustlers . . . the fitting simulated native stone facade that framed the Arrowcraft Shop and its busy sales personnel headed by Elizabeth Rue and Marion Mueller.

The special aura of the Mother-Daughter Luncheon hosted by Portland, Me. alumnae when Gov. Muskie's special sea chest gifts went to dressed-alike Director of Extension Ruth Hansen and daughter, Sabra, and to the famed Pi Phi Proutys, Lolita Snell Prouty and three daughters all attending another convention.

Canadian Pi Phis gathering for breakfast around a table centered with a Coronation procession of arresting beauty . . . the new Campus Leaders luncheon with each of 125 remembered with lovely ceramic earrings made by Carol Hagamen Miller of the hostess Pittsburgh (Pa.) South Hills Alumnae Club.

The huddle of Albion-bound Grand Council members Virginia Speaker and Helen Lewis with Michigan Pi Phis as plans for rush started moments after colonization was announced . . . Convention Hall heads turning in an arc to follow the "fancy feet" of their beloved Grand Treasurer Olivia Smith Moore. . . . The invaluable, efficient help to all of everyone's good right arm, Peggy Dick, our capable personable Central Office Director.

The daily presence at the information desk of one of our hostesses and one of the truest of Golden Arrow Pi Phis, Sarah Pomeroy Rugg, former ARROW editor, who attended her first convention in 1904. The ever-present, guiding and helpful hand of today's wise and beloved ARROW editor, Adèle Taylor Alford, as we edited our first Convention Daily.

If we might be permitted to display, for all to see, our own special jewel, it would reflect the easy camaraderie and thrill of accomplishments we knew in that gay Daily office because of the "second mile" aid of our friend and generous-hearted Business Manager, Ronda Gamble; the faithful, perceptive help of assistant editor, Nan LaRoche Ladd, and a staff of volunteers from active and alumnae visitors whose loyalty and ability will be legendary in Daily annals.

Style now your own Convention "Arrow" of 1958. The design is unimportant, but its moulding and wearing in memory is . . . that it may guide us to that time and place when we join minds, hearts and hands to fashion another.

DOROTHY DAVIS STRICK, Ark. A

Holt House

IT WAS A LOVELY INDIAN SUMMER DAY—the air softly warm, the trees just beginning to put on the "new look" of Fall. My husband and I had spent the week-end in Brown County, Indiana, made a quick change at home in Champaign, Illinois, and headed for Monmouth and our first visit to Holt House. We didn't know just where it was, but didn't mind driving around a bit. We turned off the town square, went a block, then turned again. Driving past an intersection I said, "There it is!", I had never seen Holt House, but it looked just like its pictures, so I couldn't miss it. I'm sure it's pretty in every season, but on this lovely October Sunday it looked particularly warm and inviting. We parked across the street; I walked up on the porch and rang the bell. There was no harsh ring or buzz, but a long melodious chime. Soon a lovely lady with beautifully groomed white hair came to the door. "Mrs. Johnson?" I asked. She replied in the affirmative, and I said "I'm the new chairman of the Holt House Committee." She invited us in and gave us the "grand tour." I shan't try to describe it—others have done it so well, (and I hope you've all seen the slides. They're available you know.* It's truly charming (I'm a pushover anyway for Early American). Those who worked so hard to restore it have done a wonderful job. There is no ostentation—just warmth, simplicity, cheer, and beauty.

The Founders' Room, I think, is my favorite. The new gaily flowered wall paper, crisp white ruffled curtains, and quaint furnishings fairly sparkled in the late afternoon sunlight (it's a south west exposure). It just exuded cheer. Mrs. Johnson is such an excellent housekeeper that the window panes even stood the test of that bright sunlight. (I can't say the same for mine.) We made a leisurely tour, but didn't tarry long as it was getting near dinner time, and we were hungry.

Monday morning the committee gathered at nine thirty. We are all brand new, even Dorothy Morgan our new Grand Vice President who is an ex-officio member of our committee, and what a joy she is to know and work with. Florence Holmgren of Ft. Wayne, Indiana is a holdover member, but was unable to be there. None of us knew what was expected of us (and still aren't sure), but we set to with a will, and by the time we'd concluded our meeting we felt we were a "going concern." None of us had known each other, but we needed only the common background of being Pi Phis to start working with enthusiasm and cooperation—and with the feeling that we were all old friends.

We've lots to learn, but I'm sure it will be stimulating and rewarding. This we did learn. Holt House needs your contributions. The former committees, with the aid of the hostess, have done wonders with a very lean budget. But all of us homemakers know just maintaining a house these days is very expensive. We need storage space (how wonderful if we could add a utility closet), the powder room needs re-decorating, we could surely use more coat racks (and space to put them) to mention only a few of the more obvious needs. So don't forget to send in your donations. Increase them if you can, but please send them. And do come visit Holt House. You'll love it!

RUTH FRANCHERE, Willa, The Story of Willa Cather's Growing Up, Thomas Y. Crowell Company, 169 pp.

This delightful book, plainly written out of its author's love for the work and personality of one of the most decidedly American writers, has itself captured the essence of our country. By dealing with Willa Cather's formative years it appeals to a new reading audience for such classics as "O Pioneers" and "My Antonia" and should stimulate fresh interest in them.

In fact it's an invitation to learning in general, for no one, child or adult, can resist the appeal of Willa's eager, searching, questioning, and creative mind. To modern girls growing up Willa Cather should be a natural heroine, for the span of her life joins the romantic past to the challenging present, and her own accomplishments set an attractive standard worthy of emulation.

It's a sprightly story too, for Willa Cather's own girlhood was as full of humor, warmly moving episodes, and excitement as one of her own novels. There are other provocative personalities, such as Professor Shindelmeisser, the music teacher, and Uncle William Ducker, who provided Willa with a much needed climate for learning, an atmosphere hard to come by in the Nebraska town of Red Cloud. Not the least of the personalities is Nebraska itself, for Mrs. Franchere writes lovingly, with a heart in tune with Willa's own, of dramatic Nebraska plains, sometimes swept with flowers, then abruptly blackened by deep frost.

We join with our nine-year-old daughter in recommending "Willa" for mother-daughter reading this year.

AUTHOR INTEREST: Ruth Myers (Mrs. Hoyt C.) Franchere, now a resident of Oswego, Oregon, where her husband heads the Department of Humanities at Portland State College, is a native of Waterloo, Iowa, graduate of the University of Iowa, member of Iowa Zeta. It was, she reports, the numerous childhood vacations spent with her grandparents in Nebraska that established her feeling of identity with the Cather country and of kinship with the author herself. Mrs. Franchere has taught English composition at the University of Washington, University of Oregon and Portland State College. The Francheres have one daughter Julie.

JACQUELINE JACKSON, The Paleface Redskins, Little, Brown and Company, 275 pp.

Most persons would be amply content to have one creative talent, but Jacqueline Jackson now demonstrates that she has two, for she has executed the often humorous illustrations, which decorate this book, as well as written the lively narrative.

The same daughter mentioned before assures us that this is just the sort of story that makes the reader want to get right in between the pages with the book's characters. After all, what could be more fun than belonging to one's own Indian tribe for an entire summer, fighting real battles with an interloping Boy Scout Camp, and finally making peace in traditional pipe-smoking fashion?

This book has that rare plus, a sense of humor, too, and that, we know, is a welcome quality to parents who read aloud to their own offspring. It also has joint boy-girl appeal from ages eight to twelve.

AUTHOR INTEREST: Jacqueline Dougan (Mrs. Robert) Jackson, Wisconsin B, is a young woman of obviously remarkable energy. After attending Beloit College and marrying there, she went with her husband to the University of Michigan to study and there wrote her first, exceedingly amusing book, "Julie's Secret Sloth." This was followed by a year at Oxford University where the first of their three daughters was born. Now the family, which includes Damaris, Megan, and Gillian, is in New Haven where Mr. Jackson is an instructor at Yale College and Divinity School.

RANDOM NOTES: While library browsing recently we spotted, and subsequently read, a 1956 novel, "Let My Name Stand Fair," by Missouri B's Shirley Seifert, a historical novelist of note. Unfortunately the book, her tenth novel, did not come to our attention at the time of publication, but it's good reading, and we commend it to your attention now. Briefly it's primarily a Revolutionary War story whose chief character is vivacious Katy Littlefield Greene, wife of Washington's second-in-command General Nathanael Greene, and it presents most interestingly the domestic and social side of the war for freedom. The 414-page book was published by J. B. Lippincott Company.

Clare Williams, New York A

Clare B. Williams (Mrs. Frank E. Williams) (New York Alpha)

Mrs. Clare B. Williams (Mrs. Frank E. Williams), St. Petersburg, Fla., is Assistant Chairman of the Republican National Committee and its Director of Women's Activities. She also is Republican National Committeewoman for Florida and a member of the Executive Committee of the National Committee.

Mrs. Williams, well-known for her consistent efforts to promote the Republican Party, was appointed Assistant Chairman by National Chairman, Meade Alcorn, on July 27, 1958. She won a state-wide election in Florida for Republican National Committeewoman May 29, 1956.

Shortly after her election as National Committeewoman, she was named by Former National Chairman Leonard Hall to its Executive Committee, one of seven women from throughout the United States. She has remained on the Executive Committee under Mr. Alcorn's chairmanship.

Mrs. Williams has come up the political ladder rung by rung in both the Republican Party Organization and in Republican women's club work. Thus she brings to her new post wide and varied types of experience and points of view.

She began her party organization work as a precinct worker and she still serves as Precinct Committeewoman in St. Petersburg. She has been Florida

State Committeewoman, and Vice Chairman for the First Congressional District of the Florida State Committee. She now is National Committeewoman.

She started out with the Women's Republican Club of St. Petersburg as a working committee member. Five years later in 1955, she was the Club's president, serving two years. This is the largest political organization of any kind in the entire south, reaching a peak of about 1,500 members in 1956 under her guidance. She also is a former member of the Executive Committee of the Florida Federation of Republican Women.

In addition, she is the successful veteran of two campaigns in which she herself had opposition when running for party office. She was elected in 1954 as Florida State Committeewoman from Pinellas County, and in 1956 in a State-wide election she won a four year term as National Committeewoman.

Mrs. Williams, the former Clare Brown, is a native of Syracuse, N.Y., and graduated from the University of Syracuse there in 1931. After teaching two years in a high school in Pulaski, N.Y., she studied retailing in New York City. During the next ten years, she held posts as a buyer and merchandising executive for firms in Syracuse and St. Louis.

She went to St. Louis in 1939 and the next year married the late Frank E. Williams, a prominent St. Louis attorney, and shortly afterward retired from business. She then became active in charity drives in St. Louis and served as an officer for several civic, social, and philanthropic organizations there, among them, the Y.W.C.A., the Girl Scouts, the American Association of University Women, Civil Defense, the Wednesday Women's Club. She was elected a Province officer for her college sorority, Pi Beta Phi. She also is a member of Zeta Phi Eta, a national honorary fraternity.

After Mr. Williams retired from active practice, they moved to Florida in 1948, living first at Clearwater and then in St. Petersburg. Since the death of her husband, February, 1957, Mrs. Williams has continued to reside in St. Petersburg where she has held office and has been active in many organizations including the Daughters of the American Revolution, the Pi Beta Phi Alumnae Club, Colonial Dames of the 17th Century, the St. Petersburg Women's Club.

She has served as a member of the South Pinellas United Givers Appeals Board in St. Petersburg, and attends the Presbyterian Church.

Mrs. Williams grew up in a politically conscious home. Her mother was an energetic precinct worker and Clare early learned about handing out campaign literature. When she got her driver's license, teenage Clare began driving voters to the polls. She became a poll worker when old enough to vote.

Then came her career years and the first years of her marriage and it was not until the couple settled in St. Petersburg that she again became active in politics beginning once more on the hard-working lower echelons in the precinct.

Drury College Pi Beta Phi Wins Rotary Fellowship for Graduate Study in Germany

Joan Drumwright, Missouri T (B.A., 1958, Drury College), a member of Pi Beta Phi and a recipient of the Amy Burnham Onken district award, is one of 126 outstanding graduate students from 35 countries to be awarded a Rotary Foundation Fellowship for advanced study abroad during the 1958-59 academic year.

Miss Drumwright, 22, Springfield, Missouri, will study modern German literature at Eberhard Karls University, Tubingen, Germany, in preparation for a career in journalism. The Rotary Club of Springfield sponsored her application for the fellowship.

Rotary International, world-wide service club organization, includes clubs in 110 countries. The 464,000 business and professional executives who are members of nearly 10,000 clubs work together to advance the Rotary program of community improvement, high standards in business and professional life, and the advancement of international understanding.

The Rotary Foundation Fellowships program was initiated in 1947 as one of Rotary's contributions to the field of international friendship. In the past 11 years, Rotary Fellowships have been awarded to 1,075 young men and women from 65 countries for study in 43 countries. The all-expense grants average $2,600 and total more than $2,700,000.

Miss Drumwright received the Distinguished Service Award from Drury for leadership, scholarship and service to the college. She was president of Panhellenic Council, president of her chapter of Pi Beta Phi, and received the Amy Burnham Onken district award for campus activities, sorority leadership and scholarship.

Article from the Edmonton paper:

"Shares Honors of Royal Visit—When Her Royal Highness the Princess Margaret arrives in Banff on Saturday evening, first to be presented will be Alberta's lieutenant governor, Hon. Dr. J. J. Bowlen, and his daughter, Mrs. Mary Mooney, charming chatelaine for her father, who will share the honors of the royal visit. Mrs. Mooney is pictured in the gown she will wear to the state dinner to be attended by the Princess and given on behalf of the provincial government by the premier, Hon. Ernest C. Eugenie de Luise, Colorado A

Miss Genie and the children

(From Phoenix TEEVEE. Eugenie is the daughter of Lucy Steinhauer, Province President.)

Eugenie Steinhauer de Luise, Colorado A, is brunette and pretty, stands a fraction over five feet tall, and has thousands of children. But unlike the Old Woman in the Shoe, this Young Woman in the Studio knows just what to do: she entertains them in the Romper Room.

Every weekday morning from 11 o'clock till noon, Channel 12's premises ring with the world's happiest sounds, the prattle and laughter of little children. And a lot of homes are sounding happy, too, for the surveys indicate some 50,000 Arizona TV sets are regularly tuned to Miss Genie.

The enormous success of Romper Room should not be surprising. Everybody in show business knows that nothing can upstage the attraction of a sweet, innocent child, and Miss Genie skillfully presents six of the finest, every day.

They play games and sing songs, tell stories and engage in "make-it" projects. They meet the "Do Bee" and the "Don't Bee" which make important lessons palatable. They dress Willie the Weatherman to conform with the forecast. They have fun with toys. And they adore Miss Genie.

Sometimes they speak their minds, too, and follow their impulses. But imperturbable Miss Genie—combination of mother, teacher and mistress of ceremonies—has never had a real disaster on the program, never a situation that wasn't smilingly ironed out in a couple of seconds. Cynics to the contrary, children are well-behaved people, especially when they're busy having fun.

In the past ten months, Genie has presented around 150 youngsters, 4 and 5 years old, and they've all been good little boys and girls. She also presents the messages of six sponsors to one of Arizona's largest audiences.

The pre-school program is quite a departure for Genie. Until a year ago, she was a high school teacher in Denver. She attended the University of Colorado in 1948 and 1949, and the University of Arizona in 1950. Her training for a children's show was not all academic, however; Mrs. de Luise and her physician husband have three little rompers of their own, aged 7, 4 and 1.

The Romper Room feature least popular with Genie is the singing; she feels she has a poor singing voice, though nobody agrees with her. She likes best the letters, about a hundred a week, that she gets from mothers all over the state. It's always a thrill to read paragraphs like this one, from a recent letter written by a Flagstaff viewer:

"You have a delightful program which has taught my little girl more than I have room to mention, but the best of which is how to enjoy being a child."

Left to right: Ross Pelton Schlabach, Professor of Journalism at The George Washington University; Mrs. Frank Smoot (Annabelle Essary); Betsy Evans; Mrs. John Gill (Elene Essary); and Mr. Paul Wooton pose at the Annual Awards Tea at The George Washington University. Miss Evans won for the second consecutive year the Jesse Frederick Essary Award which is given to that student who has given promise of sound citizenship and ability in "Forthright reporting." Miss Evans, who has been a member of the staff of The Hatchet, student newspaper, published weekly through the academic year, has been named to the Board of Editors for 1958-59. She was also awarded the DeWitt Clinton Croissant Award for an essay on drama. Miss Evans is Vice-President of the Student Council for the coming school year and has been named president of Mortar Board. She is also serving as president of the D.C. Alpha Chapter of Pi Beta Phi. Mrs. Smoot and Mrs. Gill are the daughters of the late Helen Essary Murphy who established the Essary Prize in journalism in 1948. Mr. Schlabach is head of the Department of Journalism at the University. Mr. Wooton is head of the Washington bureau of the New Orleans Times Picayune and is known as dean of Washington newspaper correspondents.

Joan Drumwright of Springfield, Mo., a past president of the Drury College chapter of Pi Beta Phi received a Distinguished Service Award from Drury College President James F. Findlay during 85th Anniversary Commencement activities on Saturday, May 24. At left is Dr. Frank W. Clippinger, Dean of the College, who read the citation prior to the presentation ceremony.

Kathy J. Parker, 1714 Clifton Ave., Highland Park, has been named coed sponsor of the Army Reserve Officers' Training Corps at the University of Illinois. She is a junior in the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences, preparing to become an English teacher. She is a member of Pi Beta Phi social sorority and a member of its executive council. Her father, Carl E. Parker, is industrial relations manager for the Commonwealth Edison Co., Chicago.

Will Leave Zonta House

A slow trip around the world to visit her 156 daughters and 60 grandchildren now living in 45 different countries is the ambition of Mrs. Mary F. Swaney, Iowa A, director of Zonta International House, 1875 Summit St.

At the end of the summer, "Momma" Swaney will bid adieu to her girls and return to her home in Mt. Pleasant, Iowa, to care for her 91-year-old mother.

As you must have guessed, the daughters and grandchildren are not her own. But Mrs. Swaney has mothered them all during her eight years as director of the residence where the girls lived while attending Ohio State University.

"Our first girl was from Denmark," Mrs. Swaney said. "Since then we've had girls from all over the world and they're all outstanding in their fields."

Sixteen coeds live at Zonta House during each quarter. Four of them are from the United States, selected for their interest in international activities and studies.

A native of Mt. Pleasant, she is a graduate of Iowa Wesleyan College there and received her master's degree from Columbia University's Teacher's College. Her major was student personnel administration.

Prior to coming to Zonta House, Mrs. Swaney was director of Santiago College in Santiago, Chile, for 21 years. She later served 10 years as dean of girls at the Ohio Soldiers and Sailors Orphans Home at Xenia.

Mrs. Swaney works in the international student center on the Ohio State campus besides her job as director of Zonta House. In this way, she has contact with every international student on the campus.

George Banta Jr. Speaks

From an address given at the Δ Γ Convention, on the 50th anniversary of the service of the Banta Publishing Company to Delta Gamma

Now, what does the future hold in store for us, in Panhellenic and in fraternities? What will the college fraternity be fifty years hence? How much can we, or ought we try to preserve of the fraternity as it was originally intended? There may be many ideas, but no one knows. Some of us, products of an earlier era than the present, feel that there are certain fundamentals that must be kept or the organizations will no longer be fraternities but a series of loosely knit social clubs. We also feel that we are trustees for our founders and have no right to materially alter that which they handed down to us.

First of all, a fraternity is not a social service organization. It has an obligation to the college as it exists on the campus only by the sufferance of the college, but that obligation is not an unlimited one. Its first obligation is to its members and to the basic principles for which it stands. It must operate according to the rights given American citizens under the Constitution and the Bill of Rights.

Secondly, fraternities must remain "national" or international in character if they are to hold together. They cannot have fundamental practices which differ from chapter to chapter. Individual chapter customs and methods of operation are all right, but fundamental laws and rituals should be alike.

Next, they must strive to retain their individuality within Panhellenic but resist all efforts to use them to further the cause of professional reformers who want to make them something they were never intended to be.

Most important of all, fraternities must retain the right to select their own members and not be forced to pledge or take members prescribed by college authorities. When the freshman class is arbitrarily divided up and a certain number given to each fraternity, the basic reason for the existence of fraternities is no longer present. We have got to keep the right to choose our own intimates. We must resist regimentation, for regimentation belongs only in Hitler's Germany and Stalin's Russia.

As a fraternity man, if I were to make a suggestion at this time for our future welfare, I would say that we ought to heed the advice of the late Francis W. Shepardson, the distinguished Beta leader, who urged us to "get back to our altars." If, as we are told, a closer application to things religious is necessary in our troubled world, then the most active use of organizations which are supposed to foster religious thought and application is desirable for our people. More fraternity members should think less of their membership as a campus interlude, less as a social distinction, and more as an opportunity for personal and group betterment.

The women of the N.P.C. fraternities have the power to exert a tremendous influence, not only upon the men's organizations, but upon the institutions in which they have chapters. The true fraternities are worth saving.

A Backward Glance

→ SINCE on most campuses rushing and member selection for the fall semester will have ended before this, I am going to suggest that each sorority and each individual in the sorority take time to look back over the summer and fall activities and analyze their results in the terms of numbers and of quality of the pledges taken. Answer these questions and evaluate your contribution to the success or failure of rush week.

1. Was rushing well-planned with the cooperation of your local, state, and national officers and other alumnae?

2. Was every recommendation from alumnae acknowledged and investigated and, after pledging, was a letter of appreciation sent to them with the results of pledging?

3. Was each member, pledge, active, and alumna, given a specific responsibility during rush week and were there frequent checking and evaluation of the rush program?

4. Did each member of every Panhellenic group know and understand and observe the rushing rules?

5. Was there evidence of friendly cooperation among the Panhellenic groups?

6. What was your contribution toward developing this spirit?

7. Were you consistent in reporting violations of the Panhellenic rules?

8. After pledging were you as gracious to those who accepted other bids or none at all as you were to them during rush week?

9. What was your attitude to your own pledge—dictator or adviser?

10. What has rush week meant to you and to your group—a time of growth not just in numbers, but in initiative and in understanding and in grace?

An important element in the success of rushing is the sorority's insistence that it shall not interfere with the scholastic schedule and not exhaust the chapter and the rushees. The work of the first few weeks of the semester may be vital in developing good study habits and in the success of the whole year's work.

Achieving a balance of interests and responsibilities takes wise planning and involves the development of the right relationships with teachers and with academic and guidance counsellors.

Much of the criticism of sororities comes from the over-insistence of sororities on participation in extra curricular activities and in social life. Sororities, to be true to their own ideals and creed, must emphasize scholarship and character and help the pledges as well as the actives to arrange their schedules so that all their interests are developed in the right proportion. Here the pledge mother or big sister has a wonderful opportunity to help her pledge daughter evaluate her abilities and her responsibilities.

Requiring that each member have a certain number of activities is often burdensome and unfair, and sometimes helps to encourage unethical participation. It also encourages some to choose activities of little importance, others either to neglect those that are time-consuming, or fail to meet their scholastic responsibilities because they are devoting too much time to extra-curricular activities. Would it not be smarter to counsel with each girl about her scholastic work, her outside interests, and her talents and help her to work out a balanced schedule? Her sorority adviser should check with her frequently to see that she is doing each job well; if not, why? If she is having difficulties with her studies, advise her to consult with her academic counsellor.

Since we cannot add any hours to the clock or any days to the calendar, there is no more important lesson to be learned and practiced than the wise use of time, and no greater waste than the neglect of one's studies for the ephemeral pleasure of popularity. Great is the sorority's responsibility to develop in each active and pledge a sense of time, a sense of values, and the ability and willingness to put first things first.

Take a backward look and measure your success in using your time well. Remember "now or never is the time." By DEAN MARY B. MERRITT, Phi Mu, retired Dean of Women, University of Miami, Coral Gables, in The Fraternity Month.

Honor Students, 1957-1958

→ The Committee on Scholarship is happy to present this report to the fraternity. No doubt all members of Pi Beta Phi will share our pride in the fact that the collegiate members whose names are listed below have been awarded the highest scholastic honors given by their colleges or universities. This is particularly significant in this era of emphasis on other important phases of a modern college education.

We should like to omit this year comparisons with past years, but since it has been the custom to publish comparisons, we regret to report that the number elected to the highest Honor Societies has decreased for the past two years from the all-time high reached in 1955-1956. This may be partly due to the fact that a smaller number of chapter scholarship chairmen sent the Honor Student reports, and partly due to the fact that a larger proportion of our collegiate members are enrolling in the schools or colleges of their universities which have no Honor Societies with the high scholastic requirements similar to those of Phi Beta Kappa and Phi Kappa Phi.

Only the names of those elected to the highest general Honor Societies are included in this report. Limited space prevents printing here elections to departmental, professional, and class honoraries. They are reported in the winter, spring, and summer issues of THE ARROW. Below are the comparative figures for the past three years:

	1955-56	1956-57	1957-58
Phi Beta Kappa	69	58	45
Phi Kappa Phi	56	48	43
*Similar to the above	39	46	38
Chapters not reporting	9	18	25
Graduation honors	91 (22)	49 (19)	121 (59)

* In this classification are included: (1) local Honor Societies which have the scholastic requirements similar to Phi Beta Kappa with membership limited to the upper ten per cent of the graduating class; (2) national Honor Societies in university schools or colleges, such as Beta Gamma Sigma in Schools of Commerce or Business, which have similar requirements; (3) other organizations of a general nature with similar requirements, such as Alpha Chi with 43 chapters located principally in southern colleges and universities. A few chapters are on campuses which have no comparable organizations.

The figures in the parentheses in the above table indicate the number of chapters which reported graduation honors. The number is larger this year, because a special blank for reporting these names was sent to chapters.

Only two provinces, Gamma and Lambda, were 100% in sending Blank #4 on which Honor Students are reported. In five provinces all chapters except one sent this blank: Delta, Zeta, Eta, Nu, and Xi.

Iowa Zeta, Kansas Alpha, and Oklahoma Alpha are tied for the honor of leading the list of elections to Phi Beta Kappa with four each. Two chapters each had three elections, Maine Alpha and South Dakota Alpha.

Kansas Beta, Montana Alpha, and Oregon Beta lead in the number of elections to Phi Kappa Phi with four each. Four chapters, Maine Alpha, Michigan Gamma, Illinois Zeta, and Wisconsin Alpha, each reported three elections to Phi Kappa Phi.

Ohio Zeta had the largest number of elections to organizations with requirements similar to those of Phi Beta Kappa and Phi Kappa Phi with five. Indiana Beta and Illinois Zeta each had four such elections. Michigan Alpha and Indiana Gamma each had three.

I am pleased to be able to present to the fraternity a more complete number than usual of our members who were graduated with honors. Montana Alpha, classified as a medium sized chapter for convention workshops, heads the list of honor graduates with nine. Vermont Alpha and Oklahoma Alpha, large chapters, each had six. Idaho Alpha, a small chapter, reported that five members were graduated with honors. Others with five are Indiana Epsilon, and Tennessee Beta, large chapters; and Kansas Alpha, medium. South Dakota Alpha, small, had four honor graduates. Others with four are Virginia Alpha, medium; and Michigan Gamma, a large chapter.

Since I have been asked so often, by both alumnae and actives, the difference between Phi Beta Kappa and Phi Kappa Phi, I am giving here a brief explanation. Phi Beta Kappa elects only students in Liberal Arts and Sciences, candidates for the Bachelor of Arts degree, who are in the upper ten per cent of the graduating class, and occasionally, a very few juniors, outstanding scholastically. Any student in any school or college of a university, with similar scholastic achievement, is eligible for election to Phi Kappa Phi, whether enrolled in Liberal Arts, Engineering, Business, Education, or Medical Preparatory, to give a few examples. Phi Beta Kappa, organized in 1776, had 163 chapters and 145,000 members in February, 1958. Phi Kappa Phi, organized in 1897, had 76 chapters and 101,000 members that same month. There were 69 Pi Beta Phi chapters on campuses with Phi Beta Kappa, and 33 on campuses with Phi Kappa Phi in January, 1957. Last year 26 Pi Beta Phi chapters reported members elected to Phi Beta Kappa, and 19 chapters reported elections to Phi Kappa Phi.

The Privilege of Jury Service

When the U. S. Marshal calls at one's door and delivers a summons for jury service, it is a privilege and responsibility of citizenship which one can accept with unique pride.

When the Founding Fathers established this Republic they deliberately placed the power of government in the hands of the people and it was designed in such a way that it could not be usurped by one person or a limited central committee. For this purpose, they divided the authority into three equally important divisions: the legislative—the executive—and the judicial—each two to serve as a check upon the third. The balance between these three arms of government must be maintained. A citizen's responsibility requires that he not only NOT yield his prerogatives, but that he participate to the fullest, according to his wisdom and capacity, in their proper functioning.

In the current panel of jurors in the Civil Court of the District of Columbia, there is a recently naturalized citizen. His original homeland is now an occupied country. His name has been shortened and Americanized to fit his new life here. Though he treasures beyond measure the recollection of the occasion of his admission to the full rights and privilege of citizenship in the United States, his joy is now even greater in being chosen to serve his country in a tangible way—that of participating in a jury panel and cooperating in the administration of a justice which he never knew as a young man.

Each time a jury is called into service, the rights of the average citizen, as guaranteed in the Bill of Rights, are strengthened and re-emphasized; the use of unwarranted power is checked; and the future of our America as a better place in which to live, is assured.

At times there is need for a Graduate Student Counselor to guide a new Pi Beta Phi chapter. If any 1959 graduates are interested in this sort of fraternity work, please fill out this blank and mail it to Mrs. William H. Mansfield, #8 Long Meadows, St. Louis 22, Missouri.

Group Responsibility Is for All

→ LAST winter, in visiting a chapter where discipline had been necessary, the question repeatedly asked in officer conferences and in personal interviews with chapter members was "Why did the whole chapter, why did I have to be restricted in our, my, action because one member broke campus rules?"

This, apparently, was the first experience these young people had had in corporate responsibility. Again and again it was necessary to explain so that it was clearly understood: when a person joins a group, any group, but especially a fraternity chapter, his action must necessarily reflect credit or discredit on that chapter and all members in it; officers elected to serve that chapter have the responsibility of seeing that individual members abide by campus rules and regulations; if they fail in their duties, it becomes the responsibility of chapter members to force conformity by reminding officers of their duty; officers and members failing, then the entire chapter must suffer the consequences. I do not think that rule-breaking, in most cases, is intentional and pre-meditated. It comes about through the impulsive, undisciplined behavior of teenagers, seemingly free of parental restriction and allegedly away from the seeing-eye of campus disciplinarians. Some of the rules which we have examined are not written for today's collegiates. Some of them are scattered through several handbooks. Rewriting them and codifying them should be the duty of the student government and fraternity members on such boards should see that this is done.

The August issue of Seventeen seemed to indicate, in an article on sorority life, that if one would be an individual, one should consider carefully before joining a sorority. Among questions asked were: how comfortable are you conforming to sorority rules?; Would you feel sincere participating in sorority rituals?; Are you willing to give to a sorority as well as take?; will sorority promote or stunt your growth as a person?; how does your heart feel about it? The questions are well stated. We hope that rushees considered them or others like them. From Fraternity Month.

President Strand on Fraternities:

President A. L. Strand of Oregon State College made the following statement at the time of establishment of a chapter of Acacia on his campus:

"Oregon State's attitude toward fraternities can be no less than an intelligent self-interest. They furnish housing for over two thousand of our students. If the College were to provide such housing the present cost would be well over eight million dollars. But if that were our sole interest in them we would be very short-sighted. The fraternity house is just the seat of operations; it is just the beginning of what a fraternity can do and can be for its members. We feel that Acacia has grasped this idea and has been making great headway in assuring that the fraternity fulfill its proper place in the life of the student."

IRAC Bulletin

President Hovde on Social Discrimination:

The following excerpt from a letter written by President Frederick L. Hovde of Purdue University to President Paul R. Hawley of Phi Delta Theta is taken from the May issue of the Scroll:

"It was most pleasing to receive your letter of 11 February mentioning your concurrence with my belief that our social fraternities have the right to select those whom they wish to have as members of the group. I hold that the University has no power, authority, nor legal right to enter this controversial area. While the University is an agency and creation of the State and must therefore conduct its operations with respect to its student body, its faculty, its teaching and research, and the management of these things, in accordance with the provisions of law, no other course is possible nor permissible. Further, the University is not a law-enforcing agency and has no power to control the lives of its members. The only thing the University can do is to deny admission to and the services of the University to individuals who are not willing to subscribe to the rules and regulations of the University for the conduct of its operations.

I agree with you that the solution to the problem of social discrimination is less important than the preservation of the democratic process of government as it applies to both public and private affairs. As a matter of fact, the questions of social discrimination are more likely to be solved by the operation of the democratic process than by the dictatorship of any group.

ALPHA PROVINCE

MAINE ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF MAINE. Chartered, 1920. Pledge Day, October 16, 1958. INITIATED, April 27, 1958: Katherine Allen, Southboro, Mass.; Melissa Boomer, Rochester, N.Y.; Ann Corbett, Nancy Kennedy, Waterville; Roberta Davis, Brewer; Jane Goode, Bangor; Marilyn Leslie, Dixfield; Enid Marshall, Kennebunk; Marcia Meade, Auburn; Cornelia Proctor, Falmouth Foreside; Carolyn Sleeper, Orono; Eleanor Turner, Eastport; Nancy Woods, Kittery Point.

The students of the University of Maine honored their retiring President, Dr. Arthur A. Hauck, at an academic Convocation followed by an evening program on March 27. Dr. Hauck's successor is Dr. Herbert Elliott, formerly assistant to the president of Cornell University.

A Panhellenic Weekend was held in April, with an ancient Greek theme. The annual Panhellenic Ball, at which the theme, "Festival of the Dance" predominated, honored the new sorority presidents and the new Panhellenic President. Workshops and a Panhellenic luncheon followed on the second day.

Founders' Day was observed by Maine A with a church service on Sunday, April 27 in the chapel on campus. Founders' Day banquet was held on Monday at the Penobscot Valley Country Club.

To honor the parents of Pi Beta Phi's, Maine A planned a Parents' Weekend, featuring a coffee hour, luncheon, and an afternoon program.

Two members of the chapter, Judy Adams and Alice Lane were chosen All-Maine Women, a senior honorary society, similar to Mortar Board. Kay Allen, Carolyn Sleeper, Nancy Woods, Marilyn Leslie, Neil Proctor, and Nancy Kennedy were chosen to be Eagles, a sophomore honorary society formed to guide freshman women. Marcia Meade, Nancy Kennedy, and Marilyn Leslie became members of Neai Mathetai, a scholastic honorary society for the ten highest ranking women in the freshman class, scholastically. Judy Adams was elected Chief Justice of a new Judicial Board of A.W.S. on campus. Three other Maine As are also members of the Judicial Board.

The year ended with a Strawberry Breakfast to honor the Seniors and a Senior Farewell outing held in Searsport, at a summer camp.

BARBARA COLEMAN

NOVA SCOTIA ALPHA—DALHOUSIE UNIVERSITY. Chartered, 1934. Pledge Day, November 3, 1958. INITIATED, October 4, 1958: Judy Burns, Janice Merritt, Halifax.

In October, a banquet honoring the initiates was held at the Restaurant Français.

At Mary Sheppard's summer cottage, on the weekend of May 2 to May 4, a fraternity camp, at which plans for the fall semester were discussed, was held. Plans for fall rushing came in for special attention at this camp.

During the week of September 22, the Dalhousie freshmen were introduced to campus life by a full program that included a theatre party, a wiener roast, tours of Halifax, a scavenger hunt, and various dances. The welcoming activities also featured a tea held at Φ Δ Θ house by the alumnae of Pi Beta Phi and Α Γ Δ.

Judy Bell is editor of the Gazette, the Dalhousie newspaper this year. Helen Muir is president of Panhellenic, and Lalia Dauphinee is vice-president of the Dalhousie Medical Society.

Following the spring examination results, Nova Scotia A again placed first on campus in scholarship.

Pi Phi at Dalhousie are now making plans for the rushing season, which will highlight a "Roaring Twenties" party. Also during the month of October, they hope to have parties with Phi Chi Fraternity.

ELIZABETH ARCHIBALD

VERMONT ALPHA—MIDDLEBURY COLLEGE. Chartered, 1893. Pledge Day, February 23, 1958. INITIATED, May 4, 1958: Nancy Barhite, Philadelphia, Pa.; Carolyn Bennett, San Antonio, Tex.; Linda Carson, Skaneateles, N.Y.; Kathleen Cleary, Cincinnati, Ohio; Judith Hole, Dallas, Tex.; Judith McCann, Lexington, Mass.; Carol Nicholson, Newington, Conn.; Nancy Peck, Mt. Kisco, N.Y.; Kalah Powers, Riderwood, Md.; Deborah Terrill, Morrisville; Patricia Tyson, Unadilla, N.Y.; Sondra Wells, Oswego, N.Y.; Jane Wernon, Chatham, N.J.; Initiated, September 26, 1958: Wendy Ellis, La Jolla, Calif.; Hallie Macdonald, Lexington, Mass.; Patricia Watrouse, Stamford, Conn.

Vermont A had the highest all-campus average last year. Four members were graduated cum laude: Dottie Bigelow, Nancy Gurney, Eleanor Josephson, and Jan von Wettburg. Helen Dickey was graduated magna cum laude, appointed to Φ B K, and awarded Valedictory Honors. Recipients of High Honors within their departments were Helen Dickey and Grace Warder. Elected to Mortar Board were Ann Martin and Nancy Smoller. Ruth Brown was awarded the sophomore Mortar Board Cup and also the Panhellenic scholarship. Carol Nicholson received the Marion L. Young Scholarship, and Anne Martin the Optima Award.

Chosen Junior Counselors for the present college year were: Ruth Brown, Libby Kelley, and Sue Work. Lois Boon, Louise Eddy, Evelyn Harry, Kathy Olds, Helen Smith, and Deborah Wetmore were selected to be student advisors. Noel Caseley and Betty Layer were appointed to the Student Educational Policy Committee.

Last year Middlebury inaugurated a new student government combining the formerly separate men's and women's governments. Nancy Smoller served on the constitutional committee which formulated the new organization, and was elected secretary of the Undergraduate Association Council.

Noel Caseley, Gretchen Jordan, Nancy Smoller, and Dorie Landry were all nominated for Junior Weekend Queen last spring. Dorie was elected queen.

Helen Dickey and Martha Larsen were speakers at a college alumni meeting in Cleveland, Ohio, last April.

Four members of Vermont A were in Europe during the summer. Mary Hinsman and Jan Martin participated in the Experiment in International Living in Austria, and Dottie Dever was part of the same program in Italy. Harriet Falls traveled in England and on the continent.

ELIZABETH L. KELLEY

VERMONT BETA—UNIVERSITY OF VERMONT. Chartered, November 24, 1898. Pledge Day, February 14, 1959. INITIATED, April 27, 1958; October 2, 1958: Grayce Darling, Brattleboro; Judith Enright, Fairhaven, N.J.; Patricia Fenn, St. Johnsbury; Judith Hunt, Mary MacKay, Burlington; Sandra Concannon, Marlboro, Mass.; Linda Kittle, Jeffersonville; Martha Lawton, Brookfield Ctr., Conn.; Judith Macomber, Exeter, N.H.; Gayle McQuilkin, Quebec, Canada; Jane Sherman, Stamford; and Gail Wagner, Englewood Cliffs, N.J.

In scholarship the chapter was second on campus. In Mortar Board, the senior women's honorary society are Patricia Fenn, Mary Jo Judd, Priscilla Roberts, with Dianne Morse as president. Patricia Darling, Janet Ledbury, and Cynthia Marvin represent the chapter in Staff and Sandal, an honorary society for junior women. Grayce Darling, Judith Enright, Judith Hunt, Linda Kittle, Martha Lawton and Sally Nadon are members of Sophomore Aides. Patricia Fenn is the president of the Women's Student Government Association.

The plans on the social calendar included making little articles for the Mothers' Club sale and building a float for the Homecoming weekend. A listening party with one of the local fraternities was given October 11 when the football team went to Geneva to play Hobart. Among the campus cheerleading squad are Sheila O'Toole and Janet Ledburg.

JOAN SCHMOUTH

MASSACHUSETTS ALPHA—BOSTON UNIVERSITY. Chartered, March 17, 1896. The chapter was invited by Α K Ψ to a jazz concert on September 29.

Chocolate cakes were baked by the sisters and sent to Σ A E, Σ Φ E, Α X A, and Α K Ψ to welcome them back to school.

The annual Pi Beta Phi Powderbowl Game was held November 8 at Boston University Field. The chapter challenged Σ K and was coached by Σ A E and Σ Φ E.

The chapter held a very successful Homecoming Tea on October 5 to welcome back its alumnae. The sisters were especially honored by the presence of Mrs. Nickerson, former Grand Vice-President, and Mrs. Philip E. Adams, Alpha Province President.

Sue Ann Powell has been selected as one of the candidates for Co-Ed Colonel who will reign at the Military Ball.

The informal rush period began at Boston University on October 6 extended through October 20.

BARBARA PINDER

MASSACHUSETTS BETA—UNIVERSITY OF MASSACHUSETTS. Chartered, 1944. Pledge Day, October 27, 1958. INITIATED, April 20, 1958: Carolyn Hyde, Pittsfield; Patricia Binkley, Springfield; Muriel Brown, Southbridge; Phyllis Fetzer, N. Attleboro; Bette Goodnow, Northboro; Nancy P. Jones, Weston; Mary Leahy, Saugus; Carol McKinstry, Southbridge; Joyce Teir, Gardner.

The Spring Honors' Convocation bestowed many honors upon Pi Beta Phi. Sandra Strong was tapped for Mortar Board. Patricia Binkley, Lee Hadsell, and Muriel Brown were named to Scrolls, the Sophomore Women's Honor Society. Recipients of scholarships were Yolanda Russo and Janet Andrews. Janet Andrews also received another scholarship from the Atomic Energy Commission in order that she might continue her studies. Betty Graves was given the Most Valuable Member award by the Christian Association and Eleanor Harris was voted an outstanding member of at least two organizations on campus.

Barbara Thelin wrote a successful play, The Stains, and also played in the leading role when it was presented on the campus. During Greek Week, Sandra Strong placed first for the chapter in the Inter-sorority Declamation Contest.

Inta Liepins was chosen to be T K E's Sweetheart for the year and went on to further fame by being chosen Miss April for T K E's national calendar.

Assisting in settling judicial affairs are Patricia Binkley, Mary Manning, and Penelope Bullard, who were elected to the Women's Judiciary Board. This year, Mary Manning is serving as Dorm Chairman while Penelope Bullard, Alta-Mae Ide, Janet Carlson, Jacqueline Bailey, and Joyce White are Dorm Counselors.

Religious activities on campus are under the leadership of Sandra Strong, who is secretary to the Christian Association, and Breta Brown, who is chairman of membership of the same group. Carol Crimmins is the secretary of the Newman Club. Marching in the university's Drill Team are Rosalind Tepper, Mary Manning, Sandra Strong, Irene Kowalczyk, and Constance Wells.

Massachusetts B is very proud of two of its traveling members, Betty Graves was sent to Finland by the State Extension Service and Yvette Poirier was chosen to be a guide at the Brussels World Fair.

Janet Manning and Sandra Strong were recently elected to $\Phi K \Phi$. Mary Ellam was named to O N, the Honorary Home Economics Society.

Homecoming Weekend included a float parade and a football game with the University of Connecticut.

NANCY RICHARDSON

CONNECTICUT ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF CONNECTICUT.

Chartered, April 10, 1958. Pledge Day, December 9, 1958. Connecticut A is proud of the many honors which have recently been awarded to the chapter and to individual members. Maureen Massa, Janet Crawford, and Barbara Rhode were elected to $\Phi K \Phi$ and Maureen was also selected for membership in $\Phi B K$. Sheila Korngiebel was tapped for Mortar Board; Nancy Winters and Elizabeth Barnes were elected to $\Phi E O$, Home Economics honorary.

Pi Beta Phi has also been active in social affairs. Janet Marshall was named Sweetheart of ΣX , while Donna Crossett was a member of her court. Carol Laughrey was elected co-captain of the cheering squad. Last spring, the campus-wide Community Chest Carnival and Parade were held and Connecticut A won first prize for their float, which consisted of a fountain surrounded by greens and flowers and two girls in gowns sitting on a laced iron bench. The slogan read, "We're Bubbling over for CCC." The chapter's booth in the carnival was a miniature golf game which received second place for making the most money. A few weeks later the annual ΣX Derby was held; Pi Beta Phi placed second and won the individual prize for cheering.

Gail Cook was selected as a winner of the Charles Pfizer and Co. scholarship. This is a national scholarship given to only twenty students in the country for extension work. Florence Arabian, president of Connecticut A, was the recipient of the Ruth Barrett Smith scholarship.

PATRICIA MCCAMPHILL

BETA PROVINCE

NEW YORK ALPHA—SYRACUSE UNIVERSITY. Chartered, April 28, 1896. Pledge Day, October 30, 1958.

The chapter returned this fall to find that the outside of their house was freshly painted. Sue House, Sally Swalm, Phyllis Adams, and Sue Parry as "Goons" were very busy taking the freshmen from one event to another during orientation week. Women's Student Government Campus Guides for the freshmen were Julie Rounds, Carol North, Marty Sanford, Sue Frey and Cathy McNaughton while the International Guide was Janet Collier and the Transfer Guide was Judy Bageant. Altogether orientation week found the chapter quite busy. Peggy Dilts was elected vice-president of Women's Student Government while Kitty Kittles serves as vice-president of the Joint Student Government Assembly. Cathy McNaughton serves as one of the Reserve Football Seating Commissioners for W.S.G. Julie Rounds was elected to the Chapel Board and Ellen Hoar was elected president of ΣX A the Art Education Honorary. Harriet Beardsley was named co-chairman of Greek Week in the spring while Marty Sanford serves as Social Chairman for Panhellenic.

As far as the social events are concerned, the fall's calendar is filled with the annual flapper party, the Christmas Formal, and coffees with T E II, A X A and $\Phi \Gamma \Delta$. Rushing began October 3 with formal pledging October 30. Fall initiation took place October 13. Initiated into honoraries—Sue Frey, ΣX A.

CATHERINE MCNAUGHTON

NEW YORK GAMMA—ST. LAWRENCE UNIVERSITY.

Chartered, March 20, 1914. Pledge Day, February 15, 1959. Two buildings are in construction on the campus. The new library fund has raised over $67,000 by generous donations from parents, alumnae, and others. This beautiful, modern building will cost over one million. New women's dorms are also in construction.

Many new faces will be seen this year on the St. Lawrence campus. Sixteen members have been added to the faculty for the school year 1958-59.

Moving Up Day last May 10 was the highlight of the spring semester. This weekend saw Ruth Carling, and Ruth Van Wageningen selected for Mortar Board. Carol Kemp received a cup for the freshman woman with the highest scholastic average. At the same ceremony Mary Lou Horn was selected the best supporting actress of the year. Pi Beta Phi also won another honor. Under the leadership of Sylvia Ryan the chapter placed first in the Women's Song Fest.

The chapter enjoyed the two hour program on the National Convention in Massachusetts. Diane Tietjen, Jeanne Giffin, and Carol Kemp prepared a program which made us all wish we could have attended the Convention.

PLEDGED: Helen Ann Fiske, W. Hartford, Conn.; Jean Steadman, St. Paul, Minn.; Sheila Walsh, Rye; Margaret Young, Marion Young, Lincoln Park, N.J.

KATHLEEN MURPHY

Joan Williams, Nancy Tucker, Lois Pape, Nancy Bennett, and Ann Reimer were elected to $\Pi A \Theta$ and Jo Fromm and Marty Shedrick was elected to A E K an economics honorary.

Sue Bates is first vice president of Women's Student Government Association. Mimi Petermann was elected to Student Council. Carolyn Carlson is vice president of the junior class. Nancy Stone is social coordinator of Panhellenic Council.

Jane Lytle is a freshman dorm president. Carolyn Carlson, Marianna Giacalone, Nancy Hislop, Penny Nixon and Anne Warren are freshman dorm vice presidents.

Margaret Stack was awarded the Danforth Girls' Scholarship to an outstanding freshman in the College of Home Economics. She received two weeks of leadership training at the American Youth Foundation Camp on Lake Michigan in July.

May 2, a retreat was held for the pledges by the actives. Profitable discussions were held after a picnic supper at Enfield State Park.

The pledge project on May 25, was a miniature golf game. Refreshments were served and the project was a great success.

A banquet honoring the new initiates was held at Taughannock on October 5.

ANNE WARREN

PENNSYLVANIA BETA—BUCKNELL UNIVERSITY. Chartered,

1895. Pledge Day, February 1959. INITIATED, October 6, 1958; Deborah W. Davis, Bound Brook, N. J.

With many new ideas brought back from Convention, Pennsylvania B enthusiastically opened its school year. On September 26 the chapter held a retreat in order to hear the convention report and discuss plans for the coming year.

The chapter is happy to welcome back Joy Stichweh after her year spent in Edinburgh.

Jean Thomas and Margaret Hollinshead are freshmen counselors. Shirley Culbertson is serving as head resident of one of the upperclass houses, while Judith Moser is serving as president of another upperclass house. Nancy Dean and Jo Nielson hold offices in the Christian Association.

On October 3 the chapter had a pizza party with $\Sigma A E$. Both fraternities then supported the pep rally which was held in honor of the season's first home game.

The chapter gave a tea for the Dean of Women on October 8. This year the chapter worked with $\Sigma A M$ on the float for the Homecoming Parade.

ANNAMARIE NEFF

PENNSYLVANIA GAMMA—DICKINSON COLLEGE. Chartered,

1903. Pledge Day, February 15, 1959. INITIATED, May 11,

1958; Jeanne Bartleson, Fanwood, N.J.; Lynda Bingaman, Wyoming; Carolyn Buckler, Barbara Reamy, Baltimore, Md.; Sally Christman, Doylestown; Jacqueline Hetsko, Ridgewood, N.J.; Carol Hitchens, Wilmington, Del.; Nina Hunsicker, Cragmoor, N.Y.; Jeanne Kaas, Pottstown; Patricia Kelly, Bay Shore, N.Y.; Lynn Keithmiller, Pittsburgh; Ann Richards, Carlisle; Frances Sprague, Scarsdale, N.Y.; Peggy Stephens, Laurel, Md.; Mary Lloyd Thomson, West Chester; Susan White, Washington, D.C.

The new C. Scott Althouse Science Hall has reached completion. Carolyn Albert and Carol Dorsey were tapped by Wheel and Chain, the honorary society for senior women.

Ann Freas is a counselor in the freshman dormitory this year. Ann Hooff was tapped by $\Pi A E$, the honorary journalistic society. She is also treasurer of the society. Sandra Turner was elected to Who's Who. Carol Dorsey is president of President's Council. Nancy Weber is president of Panhellenic Council. Beth Griffith is secretary of the Student Senate. Four members were chosen for the Queen's Court of Miss Microcosm, queen of the yearbook. They were: Carolyn Buckler, Mary Greensides, Constance Greer, and Paula Shedd.

A treasure hunt was held on May 7 for the benefit of the Settlement School. Most of the fraternities participated. Pennsylvania Γ is planning a volley ball game with $\Phi K \Sigma$ Fraternity who are the volley ball champions. The game will be played with a handicap and the Pi Beta Phi's expect to win.

Carol Hitchens, Sylvia Rambo, Jane Reader, and Ann Richards made Dean's List for the spring semester. Jane Reader received the prize given by the American Association of University Women. Carol Dorsey won the Lewis M. Bacon award for campus citizenship. The new initiates won the Φ K Φ scholarship plaque for the highest pledge average of all sororities on campus. Pennsylvania I is now third scholastically of all fraternities and sororities at Dickinson.

BARBARA SUE LOVEJOY

PENNSYLVANIA EPSILON—PENNSYLVANIA STATE UNIVERSITY. Chartered, November 14, 1953. Pledge Day, October 15, 1958. INITIATED, September 20, 1958: Judith Bentz, Kane; Emily Bradley, Harriet Douty, Washington, D.C.; Anne Fenn, Erie; Jane Lambert, Cheltenham; Susan Lewis, Philipsburg; Judith O'Neil, Sidney, N.Y.; Susanne Stover, State College; Judith Seifert, Easton; Harriet Ulrich, Wayne, N.J.; Judith Wadleigh, Winchester, Mass.; Gail Winklevoss, Mercer.

Pennsylvania E spent a busy fall season with rushing, Homecoming, Mardi Gras Carnival, and fraternity socials. The chapter is happy to include Carol Piccoli, South Carolina A, in its membership.

Pi Beta Phi is proud to have Jane Lambert in Cwens, Kay Klepper and Mary Alice Nash in Scrolls, and Linda Waldrath in Mortar Board. Mary Alice is also on the senior boards of the campus newspaper and yearbook. Linda was tapped for Π Γ Σ , while Harriet Douty joined A Δ .

Madge McKee is a member of Φ K Φ , and was awarded the Evan Pugh Scholarship Medal for having one of the top five averages in the junior class.

Kay Klepper was a recipient of a Harriet R. Johnstone scholarship at Convention.

Spring semester came to an active close. The chapter and Σ X won a trophy for their Spring Week carnival show. Pennsylvania E and Δ Σ Φ held a benefit jam session for a Penn State boy who was seriously injured on campus. The chapter's Amy B. Onken award was given to Sue Mortensen, while the service award, the Sally Laughlin Bowl, was presented to Nancy Lambert.

INITIATED, October 10, 1958: Mary Suzanne Cavanagh, Paulding; Carole Goldie, Cleveland; Judith Hendry, Beaver, Pa.; Sheryl Langlet, Clarksburg, W.Va.; Cornelia Leitholt, Pittsburgh, Pa.; Carol Lloyd, Columbus; Mary Ann Kinneer, Nelsonville; Mary McKnight, Mary Lee Morris, Dayton; Audrey Schroeder, Cincinnati; Kay Williams, New Philadelphia.

The spring semester at Ohio University was climaxed for Ohio A with a Spring Formal held in the "Ballroom" of the chapter house. Flowers, subdued lighting, and a white archway adorned the room, and dancing was enjoyed by members and their guests on the starlit patio.

Memories in flashback include the Founders' Day celebration with the Athens Alumnae Club held at the Ohio University Center. Highlighting the program was the presentation of awards to outstanding Pi Beta Phi sisters. A skit "The Pearls in My Arrow" was presented by members of the chapter.

Spring brought many social honors to Ohio A: Sue Bonham was chosen J-Prop Attendant; Sandy Rose, Σ A E Dream Girl; Martha Grissom, Φ K Σ Dream Girl Attendant; and Susette Snoderley, Φ K Dream Girl Attendant.

At the Mothers' Weekend Convocation, Susan Anderson and Nina Davis were tapped for Mortar Board. Susan Anderson was later elected president of Mortar Board. Debbie Stone and Judy Staab were tapped for Chimes, junior women's honorary.

After their initiation into A Δ , freshman women's honorary, Karen Waldron was elected treasurer and Nancy Younker, social chairman. Vicki Rauch and Sandy Rose also became members of A Δ . Women's League claims Susan Anderson as treasurer; Judy Staab, social chairman; and Debbie Stone, standards chairman. Marilyn Davis is secretary of the Ohio University Center Program Board, Nancy Younker is Coffee Forum chairman, and Karen Waldron is recorder. Ohio A are also well represented in departmental honoraries and groups: Marty Weller, president, and Sally Weber, treasurer of Φ T O, Home Economics honorary; Jane Howard, president, and Chris Doggette, vice president of the Childhood Education Club; Sally Weber, presidents, and Lois Roper, publicity chairman of the Home Economics Club; Martha Grissom, secretary of the French Club; Carol Retter, president of the Dolphin Club; Chris Doggette and Paula Saylor, initiated into K Δ II, the education honorary; and Joan Bush, initiated into Θ Σ Φ , the journalism honorary. Ohio A received one of the most coveted honors on the campus when they placed first in campus scholarship for the second consecutive semester.

Susan Anderson received a California A scholarship.

Ohio A returned to the campus in September with new vigor and enthusiasm for rush week. The houses along sorority row had been redecorated. Five traditional rush parties were given by the chapter: an Open House, Coke Party, Ocean to Ocean Party, Heaven and Hades Party, and the Golden Arrow Tea. As the five day rush period came to an end, it found the actives exhausted, but pleased with twenty-two new sisters in the wine and blue.

Senior Training Group Leaders were Bud Evans, Betty Jo Fite, Lucille Goodall, and Kay Smith, with Jane Cornick, Mary Newsom, Carol Penn, Susan Westbrook, and Penny Zimmerman serving as junior assistants. Also sophomore "Ask-Me's" Betty Sue Chalfant, Francie Fite, Mary McGee, and Bee Stewart played their part in orienting the freshmen.

Getting back to school this fall was unusually exciting for all of us because our new lodge was finished and decorated, waiting to be used for the first time. After much planning and hard work, especially on the part of our president, Kay Smith, the house that was a paper sketch this time last year is a beautiful reality. Rush week was its first big event, and now there are twenty-nine wonderful pledges to help us enjoy it.

Delegates and visitors to Convention from Virginia A brought back wonderful reports, many new suggestions, memories of good times and new friends, and two trophies of which we are very proud. Our sincere congratulations go to Texas Γ for the Balfour Cup, and our thanks to many chapters for new ideas. Hearing about Convention has made us all feel closer to Pi Beta Phi everywhere.

The chapter house has taken on a new look this fall now that the job of redecorating and building a new addition has been completed. The new kitchen, the spacious new chapter room overlooking a patio, and the snack bar are only three of the new features. The chapter is planning an alumnae banquet in honor of those who have worked so hard to help make all this possible.

Many activities in the line of social events were held this fall. Michigan B hopes to surprise Mrs. Willis, chaperon, with an unannounced birthday party. A "Coffee Hour" followed each home football game, with a big all-campus open house featuring a band and homecoming display following the University of Michigan Homecoming game. Other scheduled events are: the faculty dinners once a month, the Junior Panhellenic Picnic and the three exchange dinners.

Fun was had at the welcoming serenade for the A E Φs , and a brunch was given for K K Γ , October 13.

To promote greater understanding with the Student Government Council of the University of Michigan, Michigan B invited one of its committee members to lead an informal discussion following dinner, October 16.

The colonization at Albion this fall turned out to be fun and rewarding to the Michigan B members who took part in the rushing activities.

Over the summer Sally Sharp won fame for herself in the golf world. She completed a "grand slam" of women's golf titles, a feat unaccomplished in twenty-three years, as she topped Detroit women golfers in the District Medal and match championships plus the Michigan Closed championship.

On campus Karen Fox will preside as president of Michigan State Panhellenic this year.

PLEGDED: Susan Overmeyer, Chattanooga, Tenn.; Elizabeth Wilson, Wyandotte.

MARY WATSON

ONTARIO ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO. Chartered, 1908. Pledge Day, October 14, 1958.

Dr. Claude T. Bissell, formerly of Carlton College, Ottawa, assumed his responsibilities as president of a vastly expanding University of Toronto this fall. In his opening address to undergraduates, Dr. Bissell advised that students "be angular" in the sense of knowing one field well. This is now the "catch phrase" of the Toronto campus.

Ontario A is now "angularizing" itself in rushing activities. The theme for this year's Rushing Skit is Dogpatch, with Jill Armstrong as Daisy Mae and Mary Timmins as Lil' Abner.

Aside from rushing activities Pi Beta Phi is holding executive positions throughout the campus. Helene Atkinson is vice-president of the Undergraduate Pharmacy Society, and also of her class of 59. Margo Rudolf is Student's Administrative Council representative for the Ontario College of Education. Liz Prower is publicity manager of St. Michael's College Theatre Guild and Head of House for Loretto College.

With Home-coming Weekend starting October 10, Judy Heard worked on the Med's float which was entered in the Home-coming Parade. We enjoyed seeing our Western Pi Beta Phi sisters at Ontario A's open house following the game.

Many Pi Beta Phi are engaged in the initiation activities of the various faculties across the campus. Joan Highmoor, Betty Halliday and Gail Johnson are helping with the School of Nursing initiation; Liz Bell with P. & O. T. initiation and Freshie Nite.

Mary Timmins, besides playing baseball along with Mary Lou O'Hagen and Lorna Milne, is basketball representative on St. Michael's College Athletic Council. Kathy Kennedy is basketball representative for Pharmacy, and has also undertaken coaching and managing duties. Jill Armstrong is prominent on the tennis courts; and Liz Bell is engaged in interfaculty swimming.

We are undertaking our philanthropic work again this year. This consists of visiting new Canadian families, helping them to become familiar with the language, and aiding them in any way possible. We would like to make them feel welcome in this new country and let them know they have friends here.

MARGARET PARKE

INDIANA DELTA—PURDUE UNIVERSITY, Chartered, 1921. Pledge Day, February 9, 1958. A spirit of enthusiasm pervades the Indiana Δ house this new school year as they look back on the past spring with pride for the many new honors bestowed upon their members. The sisters have been sweeping the Purdue campus with outstanding achievements in scholarship, leadership and activities.

The chapter's scholastic record was rewarded when averages showed the Pi Beta Phis to have the highest active chapter scholastic standing on campus. Ten members were honored as distinguished students with Susanne Bartlett and Sandra Forbes both receiving 6.0s, the equivalent of straight "A" grades.

Mortar Board chose Susanne Bartlett and Sandra Forbes for membership; while Gold Peppers, a local activities honorary for upperclass women, tapped Susanne Bartlett, Sandra Forbes, Marybeth Lyles, Joan Nading and Peggy Waters.

Along a more athletic line, the chapter took first place in the women's division of All Campus Field Day and were runner-ups in the final play off.

The spring and fall semester brought many individual honors to the Pi Beta Phis. Sportswomen, the Women's Recreation Association honorary, selected Barbara Buschart for membership. Jan Goldsberry was initiated into K Δ II, education honorary of which Marybeth Lyles is secretary. Θ Σ Φ, national journalism honorary for women, elected Joan Nading president and Δ P K, Science School honorary, chose Marybeth Lyles president. Nancy Brandon was selected for membership in the Society of Women Engineers and Judy Coon was added to the roll of the swimming honorary, Triton. The office of secretary of the national honorary, Σ A H, for speech and hearing therapy majors, is held by Marybeth Lyles.

Other distinguished honors for members of Indiana Δ include: the election of Peggy Waters as head of the judicial board of A.W.S.; Joan Nading as co-chairman of Greek Week and Sandra Forbes as co-chairman of Old Masters, a program designed to bring outstanding professional leaders to the campus for informal meetings with students in their own housing units. Harlan Wilson is serving as co-art editor of the campus humor magazine, the Rivet. Susanne Bartlett was elected student body secretary and a member on the student-faculty committees on which Marybeth Lyles is also active. Susan Guyton now holds the position of assistant secretariat of the Student Court and Ann Brockman has just returned from a summer camp to which she was sent as the outstanding freshman girl in Home Economics.

The chapter was also blessed with campus and fraternity queens this last spring. Judy Ward was chosen by the navy cadets as their Midshipman's Ball Queen and Jane Smoker proudly wore the queen's crown at the Purdue Royale. The Σ Φ E Sweetheart was Paula Alexander and Sandra Irwin served in the Θ X Sweetheart Court.

Student Union has Nancy Beiriger as a new junior officer and the yearbook staff boasts two Pi Beta Phi junior officers, Barbara Clingman and Betty Hess.

The nationally known swimmer, Phyllis Shields, placed fifth and sixth in the NCAA finals for her diving.

MARYBETH LYLES

INDIANA EPSILON—DEPAUW UNIVERSITY, Chartered, 1942. Pledge Day, September 25, 1958. INITIATED, October 26, 1958: Elizabeth King, Memphis, Tenn.; Pam Le Dune, Sullivan; Margo Milling, Indianapolis; Carol Shauman, Kalamazoo, Mich.

Forty-six girls returned to Indiana E this fall bursting with enthusiasm for the coming year. With this enthusiasm they bubbled through rush week, which resulted in the pledging of twenty freshmen and three transfer students. After the traditional cheering in ceremony with the Σ Xs, the pledges were honored at an open house.

Indiana E is privileged to be sharing a year with Babeth Bonomo, a French exchange student from Algeria. Kay Greene is studying in Babeth's place at Montpellier in France and Jane Bowman is studying in Lausanne, Switzerland.

Last spring Kay Halstead and Sue Strickland were capped for Mortar Board. Sue is serving as president of Y.W.C.A. this year; while Kay and Mary Walbaum are vice presidents of A.W.S. W.R.A. senior board has Jan Twigg Kishman and Sandra Dixon participating as vice president and secretary respectively. Dorm staff members include Rosanne Nelson, Carol Mead, Betsy Greenlee, and Kay Halstead.

With such a great beginning the chapter is bound to have a wonderful year scholastically, socially, and fraternally.

KENTUCKY ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF LOUISVILLE, Chartered, October 9, 1958. Pledge Day, September 17, 1958.

Kentucky A's "Pi Phi Misses" won first place in U of L's Barbershop Quartet Contest last spring. The Pi Beta Phis placed second in the annual fraternity-sorority Fryberger Sing. Tapped for membership to Cwens, a sophomore women's honorary, at this time were Linda Kambach and Phyllis Bader. Mary Bev Wade and Carole Caudill were tapped for Mortar Board. An open house was held at the chapter house on this evening.

Kentucky As who traveled to Convention this past summer were Phyllis Bader, Beverly Hester, Barbara Miles and Mary Bev Wade.

Mary Bev Wade received the editorship of the Thoroughbred,

U of L's Annual. Carol Trautwein was elected president of Pi Gamma Omicron, the University Women's Help Organization. Barbara Miles and Betty Lynne Kahl were elected to the Arts and Sciences Student Council.

Last fall's pledge class was awarded the Pledge Scholarship Trophy which is presented annually by Kappa Delta Sorority. Pi Beta Phi is first in scholarship among the sororities on campus this fall.

PLEGDED: PERRY Choate, Betty Christian, Marcia Dering, Katherine Edelen, Joyce Freeman, Eva Griffith, Jane Harmon, Caroline Roulston, Judy Smyser and Eliza Stout.

BARBARA MILES

TENNESSEE ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF CHATTANOOGA. Chartered, 1923. Pledge Day, September 16, 1958. Tennessee A is looking forward to a grand school year with its work and fun. We are reminded of the many honors received by Pi Beta Phi at the close of last year which carried over for this year. Chief of these were the school annual editorship for Emily Callaway, school paper editorship for Helen Barrett, Mortar Board membership for Emily Callaway and Janice Smith, and Junior Cheerleader for Pat Stephenson.

In line with the ambitious building program of the university which includes a new Student-Faculty Activities Building, new classrooms and administrative offices, the chapter has added new furniture to three Pi Beta Phi House.

Coming up at the end of October will be Homecoming in which is used not machines for motion but pledgepower which proved very effective last year, an Aunt Jemima Pancake Breakfast for the football team at the Pi Beta Phi House, and the traditional active party for the new pledges.

PLEGDED: Jane Akin, Ardian Ansell, Elizabeth Bridges, Judith Elsbree, Dot Fogo, Patt Peak, Tommy Ann Rogers, Judy Saylor, Patsy Springer, Anne Terrell, Chattanooga; Doris Willson, Mary Ann Meredith, Athens; Terry Lynn Cheffec, Long Island, N.Y.; Carol Thompson, Oak Ridge.

MARYE BRUCE CHAMLEE

TENNESSEE BETA—VANDERBILT UNIVERSITY. Chartered, November 9, 1940. Pledge Day, January 29, 1959.

Planning for the big events coming up the rest of the year was the big fall project at Tennessee B during September and October. Rush parties and skit plans: meeting freshman girls who will go through rush in January; building and painting figures for homecoming; and having informal parties kept the Pi Beta Phi house full to the brim most of the fall. A new service project was initiated. One week each month the girls do volunteer work at the Vanderbilt hospital, carrying trays of trinkets and gifts around to the different wards for the patients to buy.

A Pi Beta Phi brother, David Glenn, brother of Ann Glenn, carved a replica of an official badge for the entrance hall of the house. The gold arrow is three feet long, and it contains three raised pearls in the shaft.

Marcella McKenzie was tapped for Mortar Board last May. Sue Mierher has taken office as vice-president of Residence Halls Council and secretary of Panhellenic. Barbara Grayson and Annette King starred in a style show which was presented for the incoming freshman girls. Penny Parrot, Trish Champion, and Dot Martin were among the models. Barbara Hancock was elected to be a representative to the Social Standards committee from her dormitory. Linda Williams has been named head of the Miss Commodore contest, and Julie Scheffer has been chosen Society Editor of the school paper.

LEE SMITH

TENNESSEE GAMMA—UNIVERSITY OF TENNESSEE. Chartered, May 15, 1948. Pledge Day, October 9, 1958. INITIATED, September 18, 1958: Ann Rascoe.

Tennessee Gamma members were eager to return to the University of Tennessee this fall and hear about Convention. Barbara Norman, Doris Burley, Elizabeth Mims, Betty Pendergrass, Sarah Anderson, and Eleanor Harb were the lucky ones who attended.

Sarah Anderson and Jo Allen Roberts were recently selected as Air Force sponsors.

Rush week ended October 6 and the alumnae entertained the new pledges and actives with a buffet supper. All twenty-three new pledges held a pledge dance on October 16.

Kay Dillon was elected editor of the Volunteer, the school annual; selected as section editors were Cate Hammond and Gail Cunningham.

The Executive Club, composed of all the presidents of various organizations on campus, has added to its members Barbara Norman, Kay Dillon, and Nancy Thompson.

Sharon Little is president of Music Educators National Conference, and Jo Allen Roberts is president of West Hall, women's freshman dormitory. Millie Stone is president of Jennie Armstrongs, an upper-classman dorm, while Gail Cunningham is treasurer.

In spring elections, Barbara Norman was elected to Publications Council; Kay Dillon represents the college of Education; and Betty Pendergrass represents the college of Home Economics in the All Students Club.

Jo Allen Roberts was chosen as Lambda Chi Alpha Crescent Girl. Deloras Pratt and Betty Wolfe were tapped into Alpha Lambda Delta, scholastic honorary for freshman women.

Kay Dillon was named outstanding sophomore by Mortar Board. The College of Engineering elected Patti Dixon as Queen of Spades and Sarah Anderson, Queen of Diamonds.

PLEGDED: Brenda Clement, Jane Moulton, Phyllis Myers, Lawson White, Knoxville; Judy Barnes, Clara Carr Cox, Joyce Haynes, Charline King, Eleanor Smith, Kingsport; Judie Hill, Gail Buchanan, Maryville; Connie Cox, Melinda Manley, Gatlinburg; Ann Nell Pyle, Mary Kay Whitaker, Bristol, Va.; Mimi Lee Cates, Millington; Sandra Evans, Athens; Jeanette Gordon, Atlanta, Ga.; Helen Iddins, Jefferson City; Karen Jammes, Cleveland; Judy Loy, Clinton; Barbara Jo Smith, Pulaski; Carole Spooner, Arden, N.C.; Jane E. Thompson, Centerville; Judy Westbrook, Chattanooga.

MARTHA SETZER

NORTH CAROLINA ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF NORTH CAROLINA. Chartered, 1923. Pledge Day, October 1, 1958. INITIATED, September 16, 1958: Sue Gregory, Rocky Mount; Mary Will Long, Greenville; Clara Mack, Boston, Mass.; Susan Saunders, Chapel Hill; Susan Warder, Geneva, N.Y.

Nancy Adams was elected chairman of Women's Honor Council for this year and Virginia Pearce will serve on the council with her. Betty Root was elected secretary of the senior class, while Carolyn Vaughn was on the Orientation Committee. Serving as orientation counselors were Boots Baker, Sue Warder, and Joyce King Strickland. Jane Davis, Joy Howell, Clara Mack, and Boots Baker are on the Y.W.C.A. Cabinet. Kit Whitehurst, Cynthia Seagraves, and Barbara Madison were chosen to be initiated into the Order of the Old Well, honorary society for outstanding campus leaders. Kit Whitehurst was awarded the Amy Burnham Onken Award and the Outstanding Senior Woman Award of the University.

Two members of the chapter were elected to the Student Legislature. They are Arnold Garvin and Joyce King Strickland. Martha Wilkinson has been appointed Assistant Attorney General, while Lila Scott and Carolyn Vaughn will serve on the Attorney General's Staff. Mary Will Long and Virginia Pearce were chosen as two of the university's cheerleaders for this year.

Social activities included the annual Founders' Day party with North Carolina B, the ΣX Derby, parties with the K Es and A T Os, and a faculty tea for all faculty members at the fraternity house. The Pi Beta Phis had a cabin party with dates in the spring.

The chapter welcomed Mrs. Charles Seward as their chaperon for the year, while Patsy McAuley, from Illinois E, was affiliated in October.

PLEGDED: October 1, 1958: Mary Bailey, Kenly; Kay Boertz, Council Bluffs, Iowa; Carol Carruthers, Lee DelGreco, Charlottesville, Va.; Nancy Cook, Fayetteville; Dorothy Gelzer, Claire Hanner, Atlanta, Ga.; Cynthia Grant, Orlando, Fla.; Vicki Greulack, Elizabeth Russell, Chapel Hill; Gayle Gwen Grimes, Washington, D.C.; Ann Hassinger, Jody Litton, Nancy Turner, Bristol, Va.; Helene Hero, New Orleans, La.; Lou Anne Howell, Wilmington; Carol Lynn Johnson, Ayden; Mimi Leach, Richmond, Va.; Sally Pullen, Parkton; Paula Quick, Arlington, Va.; Cookie Smith, Southport, Conn.; Frances Snyder, Anne Thompson, Durham; Jane Stikeleather, Asheville; Sue Summerston, Abingdon, Va.; Jean Wallace, Longmeadow, Mass.; Gay Wilson, Charleston, S.C.; Sue Wood, Smithfield.

JOYCE KING STRICKLAND

NORTH CAROLINA BETA—DUKE UNIVERSITY. Chartered, 1933. Pledge Day, October 4, 1958. INITIATED, September 21, 1958: Elizabeth Antrim, Greensboro; Judy Claxon, La Grange Park, Ill.; Lisa Cook, Newport, R.I.; Justa Helm, Houston, Tex.

A new Rule of Law Center, the foundation of a new biology building, and the return to first semester rush began the Duke 1958 fall semester with a multitude of activities for the members of North Carolina B.

Rush began September 26 and lasted only nine days until bids were extended October 3. The addition of eighteen pledges to the chapter brings it to the largest membership in its history, sixty-nine members.

Second semester rush last year was on a trial basis and the women's fraternities led by the Panhellenic Council voted for the return to early rush. This year rush was shorter and earlier than ever before. Parties every night and song and skit practices made September one of the chapter's busiest months.

The university's new long range planning committee has two major projects to look to in the expansion of facilities. The new biology building is under way and a new $2 million law school building is in the talking stage.

Arthur Larson, author of A Republican Looks at His Party, is setting up the new Rule of Law center with the aim of establishing a workable system of international laws.

October saw the entire campus set for Homecoming Weekend with dormitory skits and the influx of alumni. Muriel Hendrix of North Carolina B paraded for the alumni as one of the ten Homecoming Queen candidates. Shoe and Slipper Weekend at the end of October brought Stan Kenton and Ralph Marterie to Duke and set the stage for many fraternity parties.

The WSGA under the guidance of two Pi Beta Phis, President Patsy Lee, and Vice-president Jo Holloway, has been encouraging a new academic honor code and the renovation of university rules.

PLEGDED: Mary Jane Altwater, Denver, Colo.; Kathleen Calkins, Creve Coeur, Mo.; Diane Churchill, Bronxville, N.Y.; Joanne Fowler, Dallas West, Atlanta, Ga.; Ruth Goodrich, Winter Park, Fla.; Karen Hanke, St. Louis, Mo.; Nancy Heilmann, Winnetka, Ill.; Berkeley Jennings, Charlottesville, Va.; Georgia Lue Kitchen, Kansas City, Mo.; Susie Knobloch, Fort Sheridan, Ill.; Irene Lilly, West Falmouth, Mass.; Linda Miller, Jacksonville, Fla.; Susan Moody, Dallas, Tex.; Mary Morgan, Spring Hope; Myrna

MARY RHAMSTINE

SOUTH CAROLINA ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF SOUTH CAROLINA. Chartered, October, 1928. The Pi Beta Phi are very busy this fall decorating the new room they moved into at the close of last semester. They are combining hard work and fun and are hoping that the result will be a most attractive room.

Last spring the Pi Beta Phi, dressed like pirates, placed second in the annual Σ X Derby Day, losing by only one point. One might know that Pi Phi would take first place in the "greased-pig catching" event!

In May Jean Huffman, Patty Wilson, and Juanita Edwards were selected as attendants in the USC May Court. Becky Finley sponsored for SPE Fraternity in the Garnet and Black, the college annual; Janet Caldwell sponsored for A X A; and Juanita Edwards sponsored for A T O.

Pat Moss was elected Miss Universe for South Carolina this summer. She went on to California, where she was among the 15 finalists in the national competition. Last spring Pat was elected "Miss Spring" at USC by campus election, and a dance was held in her honor.

Elected to Σ K Δ E, honorary education fraternity, were Jan Jeffords, Carolyn Yandle, Joan Arant, Carol Piccoll, and Juanita Edwards. Becky Finley was elected as a member of Euphrosynean Literary Society.

Founders' Day, in April, was celebrated with a delicious spaghetti supper at the country home of one of our alumnae. Many alumnae were present, also, and it was a delightful evening.

One of the highlights of the spring semester was a campus-wide drop-in held by the chapter. Although it was a very rainy evening, many people attended.

A press-conference in honor of Marilyn Van Derbur, last year's Miss America, who was visiting this city, was attended by several Pi Beta Phi. The Pi Phi presented her with a lovely bouquet of wine and blue flowers in the shape of an arrow.

For her high scholastic standing Jane Hendrix was awarded a Φ B K Key. Becky Finley was tapped for A K T. Among the outstanding seniors for the past year was Jean Huffman. This year Juanita Edwards will serve as vice-president of A K T. The vice-president of the Baptist Student Union will be Becky Finley. Jo Lynn Huffman is to be the treasurer of Panhellenic Council. Jean Spearman and Becky Finley were elected to Student Council, the governing body of the college, for this year. Mary Savage was named Associate Editor of the Garnet and Black. Juanita Edwards headed the Freshman Y-Camp this fall. Jill Ryan, Gloria Hopper, and Jean Spearman were counselors. Several of the Pi Phi helped with the Student Council orientation program.

PLEGDED: Ann Droom, Columbia; Rosemary Orr, North Augusta.

MARY SAVAGE

THETA PROVINCE

ALABAMA ALPHA—BIRMINGHAM SOUTHERN. Chartered, October 7, 1927. Pledge Day, October 1, 1958. INITIATED, September 21, 1958. Gladys Ann Alley, Birmingham; Judith Douthitt, Belle Mina.

Last year ended on a high note for Alabama A. Betty Scruggs was elected editor of the Hilltop News and Helen Braswell a representative of the Executive Council. Ann Arnold, Gail Beall, Betty Bennett, Carol Clotfelter, and Sara Statom were tapped for Mortar Board. Chosen for Triangle Club were Zan Alley, Helen Braswell, Leiser Chandler, Sandy Faulk and Marilyn Mullins. Besides the individual honors, the chapter was first in scholarship for the quarter.

The summer proved to be profitable for many of the members, especially the five who had weddings. Leiser Chandler was chosen as Maid of Cotton for Dallas County.

The enthusiasm which the chapter delegate and the alternate delegate, Sara Statom and Ann Arnold, received from Convention spread to all the members just in time for fall rush. Alabama A entertained the rushees with a Basin Street and a "Winkin', Blinkin' and Nod" skit party. The highlight was the traditional Angel parties. Summer parties given by individual members contributed a great deal to the success of the rush season.

Two of Alabama A's new alumnae have joined the Conservatory faculty of Birmingham Southern. Three other alumnae are doing graduate work in various colleges this year.

GAIL BEALL

ALABAMA BETA—UNIVERSITY OF ALABAMA. Chartered, September 19, 1949. Pledge Day, September 18, 1957. Alabama B is very proud of the twenty-four girls pledged during fall rush.

The chapter had a very successful semester last spring. In the annual honors convocation, Alabama B was presented the Δ T Δ trophy for the Outstanding Sorority of the Year. This was quickly followed by another trophy when the chapter captured first place in the annual Step-Singing contest. Alabama B also led the sororities in scholarship for the spring semester of 1958 with an overall 1.98 average.

Four girls were tapped for Mortar Board: Dot Powell, Bette Weaver, Rosalind Alexander, and Beverly Ryan. Dot Powell was elected president of Senior Triangle, a women's service honorary. Bette Weaver is president of Chi Delta Phi, a women's literary honorary and Dena Huguley is vice-president of Spirit Club. Ellen Haas and Bette Weaver were chosen to serve on Judiciary Board. Ellen is in charge of the board and also vice-president of Associated Women Students.

In the Honors Convocation, fifteen members were tapped for Triangle, one for Alpha Lambda Delta, a freshman scholastic honorary and five for Chi Delta Phi.

Sharon Russman was picked to serve on the cheerleading squad for the coming year.

PLEGDED: Joy Clark, Rudy Sewell, Claire Roberts, Mary Ann Coats, Jan Ruffin, Laura Weaver, Mary Nina Lee, Nancy Copeland, Lynn Porter, Anne Smith, Erin Briggs, Sara Jane Harmon, Karen Buice, Cynthia Cummings, Betty Robins, Donna Flynn, Nancy Waddle, Harriet Hewitt, Lynda Freeman, Florence Lee Kaiser, Patsy Harned, Sonie Cook, Carolyn Chambers, and Angela Blackwell.

INITIATED, April 14, 1958: Barbara Cleary, Philadelphia, Pa.; Karen Cleveland, Smyrna, Ga.; Pat Henley, Citronelle; Carol Ann Hughes, Bette Torre, Betty Joan Wilkerson, Ann Barber, Sue Chappell, Mary Elizabeth Daniels, Susan Jackson, Caroline Keller, Courtney King, Joan Rice, Anna Lee Waller, Birmingham; Patricia Lovett, Martha Wilkes, Frances Dudley, Opelika; Joyce Melsheimer, Vicksburg, Miss.; Kitty Arant, Margaret Ann Hatcher, Sandy Whittinger, Auburn; Jane Bauer, McLean, Va.; Judy Benton, Gonte; Becky Brown, Bettie Jones, Anniston; Betty Ann Calhoun, Laurel Spurlin, Tifton, Ga.; Vivian Jerrell Carlisle, Tarrant; Karen Crouch, Huntsville; Annette Crumpton, Tuskegee; Lynda Darby, Marjorie Dixon, Andalusia; Priscilla Kershaw, Gadsden; Norma McCulley, East Gadsden; Joey Quinn, West Blocton; Barbara Townsend, Memphis, Tenn.

This fall Alabama Γ got off to a great start with twenty-seven new pledges. This was the first time the chapter had been without help for fall rush.

Out of this fall pledge class, honors have been bestowed on several girls. Sandy Whittinger has been selected to have the lead in the Auburn Players' first play on campus; Bettie Jones has been chosen as a member of the Women's Octet; Joey Quinn is to be the assistant director of the Spring Show of Auburn, and Becky Brown has been selected to be a member of Concert Choir.

Jo Ann Bartlett was tapped spring quarter for Mortar Board. Nancy Carol Gause was tapped spring quarter for Cwens.

In the Alabama Maid of Cotton contest, Alabama Γ was represented by Judy Kirby, who was Macon County Maid of Cotton. Jane Lewis and Sylvia Hester won the badminton trophy spring quarter in the Women's Intramural Sports Contest. Martha Wilkes was selected spring quarter to represent Alabama Γ on the Π K A Calendar. Joan Hocking and Nancy Carol Gause were selected this fall to be members of the Auburn Concert Choir. Pat Henley has been chosen the new devotional chairman of Dormitory IV for this year. Gayle Lee was chosen the most outstanding cadet from the Birmingham area at the Civic Air Patrol State Summer Encampment. Frances Davis was selected to be Auburn's "Loveliest of the Plains" in the Plainsman spring quarter. The Plainsman is the Auburn paper.

Alabama Γ is now busy making plans for their annual tea which is to be held in honor of the new fall pledges. Members will be present from each sorority and fraternity on campus, as well as members from each dormitory and housing unit.

Alabama Γ is looking forward to this year at Auburn with such a wonderful pledge class and such a great start this fall. Since Alabama Γ is the newest sorority on the Auburn campus, the chapter feels very proud of the recent accomplishments made.

FLORIDA GAMMA—ROLLINS COLLEGE. Chartered, September 28, 1929. Pledge Day, January 10 and 11, 1959. With the rather late opening of school on September 25, activities and classes were late.

Florida Gamma welcomes Beth van Mannen of Texas Gamma to Rollins College. Also, the chapter is happy to have Mrs. Edith Stanley, the housemother, back to share the year with us.

The new Dining Hall and the new dormitory for freshman women and independents are two very striking additions to the Rollins campus.

Dorothy Englehardt, Suzanne Lewis and Beverly Millikan returned to school a week early to help with the Freshman Orientation Program. The program is designed specifically for entering freshmen in an attempt to help them become acquainted with all the aspects of Rollins College.

A Panhellenic tea and informal rush parties were held in October. Otherwise, Rollins College is abiding by the new system of delayed rush, the major part of rush beginning in January.

The Rollins State Soccer Champions are preparing for a game against the University of Florida at their homecoming celebration October 18.

WISCONSIN GAMMA—LAWRENCE COLLEGE. Chartered, September 12, 1940. Pledge Day, September 21, 1958. INITIATED, September 14, 1958: Gretchen Hildner, Jacksonville, Ill.; Kathleen Ames, Marinette.

September 21 opened the Wisconsin Gamma social season with open house at the fraternity quadrangle following pledging. The chapter entertained members of Delta Delta at a victory party following a football game with Kappa Theta on October 5. The pledges built a whale for the homecoming float and participated in the October 11 parade as mermaids. October 18 found the Pi Beta Phi at a dinner dance with Delta Delta while October 29 found them at a Halloween party with Sigma Phi Epsilon.

Mrs. Stanley E. Kyle, National Director of Programs, was guest of honor at a tea on October 13 during her visit. The new Panhellenic quota system in effect this fall, the present deferred rush question, and a report of the first annual House Corporation meeting, were discussed during her stay. Mrs. Kyle was shown the newly completed Music and Drama Center and the new Phi Gamma Delta house built during the summer following installation of their chapter last spring.

Hot dog sales, which paid for new china, stainless steel, a television set and a Hi-Fi set last year, have begun again. The chapter has begun Christmas serenade practice with Phi Delta Theta and are rehearsing Pi Beta Phi songs for a record to be cut in January.

Barbara Richards, Mary Wilder, Carol Fallon, Joan Berger and Arlene Verbeski were elected to the Lawrence Concert Choir. Pene Kegel was elected head counselor of the freshman women, Lucy Staack was elected sponsor of Heelers, freshman theatrical group, and Betsy Collin was elected to Sunset, honorary theatrical.

MANITOBA ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF MANITOBA. Chartered, May, 1929. Pledge Day, January 30, 1958. INITIATED, March 22, 1958: Marilyn Agnew, Hartney; Joyce Borgford, Arborg; Gwen Gerber, Diana Laycock, Gwen Lewis, Pat Noonan, Nancy Stewart, Winnipeg.

Manitoba A spent a very enjoyable summer. The girls worked and played at different points in the United States and Canada. The girls who remained in Winnipeg continued the chapter's volunteer work of helping at the local Red Cross blood bank.

After the members returned to the city in September, a rush workshop, to discuss fall rush plans, was arranged. The themes for the rushing parties were discussed. With the aid of many new ideas learned at Convention, a Top Secret party and an Angels and Devils party were decided upon. A feature of the workshop was a discussion led by members of the Winnipeg Alumnae Club on rushing techniques. The techniques were then practiced at a mock rush party. At this party, the alumnae members acted the parts of the rushees.

The fall term began on September 22. During the summer, the campus had been enlarged by the addition of two new arts and science colleges. The new colleges, which had formerly been situated off campus, are St. Paul's College and St. John's College.

During Freshie Week at the University of Manitoba, there was the annual parade. Panhellenic sponsored a float with representatives of each sorority riding on it. The float depicted an ancient Greek temple.

JOANNE PROTHEROE

NORTH DAKOTA ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF NORTH DAKOTA. Chartered, October 7, 1921. Pledge Day, September 17, 1958. INITIATED, March 7, 1958: Helen Atkins, Bismarck; Lois Fortin, Thompson; Diane Grimstad, Charlson; Edwina Johnson, Zahl; Kay Kenville, Janet Richards, Grand Forks; Sharon Kivley, Minot; Marilyn Wood, Angus, Minn.; Janet Hoyman, Grand View, Wash.; Winnifred Sjoberg, Devils Lake.

The chapter congratulates the following members of North Dakota A on their achievements. Anne Shafer was elected to Phi Beta Kappa, and was the valedictorian of the 1958 graduating class. Lois Fortin and Mary Ann Wallbridge were elected members of Mortar Board and both were chosen as Gray Gowns for the University's spring commencement. Lois Fortin was also elected president of Mortar Board. Swanild Hought was initiated into Pi Omega Pi, honorary Business Education fraternity. Kay Kirsch became a member of Sigma Tau Nu, honorary social worker's fraternity.

The chapter's efforts in scholastic achievements were rewarded as the Pi Beta Phi placed third among the eighteen National Greek Fraternities at the university. Lois Fortin received the honor of being chosen the Ideal Pledge for the year of 1958.

On May 10, the chapter held a dinner in honor of Jesse Stuart, who was the University's Honor's Day Convocation speaker. Mr. Stuart is a famous poet, teacher, and novelist. President and Mrs. Starcher, the Deans of Men and Women, and other faculty members were present. This dinner was North Dakota A's Valentine to her Alma Mater.

To carry out the theme and to help celebrate the University's seventy-fifth anniversary during homecoming the chapter has chosen for its homecoming float a three tiered anniversary cake. Each of these represents twenty-five years of progress at the university. On each tier will be two girls dressed in cheerleading costumes representative of that era. A large revolving diamond on the top will complete the anniversary cake.

PLEGGED: Bonnie Anderson, Watford City; Brenda Atchison, Devils Lake; Mary Dahlen, Fargo; Kay Dunn, Helene Glimsdahl, Judy Hobbs, Sharie Miller, Grand Forks; Janet Grove, Hillsboro; Yvonne Joubert, Belfield; Carol Kanwischer, Harvey; Carol Kuchera, Wahpeton; Patricia McGinley, Karen Olson, Minot; Judy Morris, Jamestown; Judy Paus, Scooby, Mont.; Sharon Prete, Hunter; Jean Ann Quenemoen, Peggy Rosenau, Carrington; Sandra Showman, Detroit Lakes, Minn.

MINNESOTA ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF MINNESOTA. Chartered, 1906. Pledge Day, April 14, 1958. INITIATED, May 5, 1958: Marcia Swanson, Hopkins; Karen Berg, Minneapolis; Jackie Hilton, St. Paul; Jean Anderson, Cannon Falls.

Minnesota A participated in Campus Carnival last spring, presenting "Chicago" with the Phi Delta Theta. The hard work and long hours put into the show were well worth the fun had by all.

A Mother's Day tea, the annual Founders' Day luncheon, and the Senior Farewell were some of the spring quarter functions at Minnesota A.

Receiving the University Minnie Service Award was Virginia Chambers; the Sky U Mah award, Nancy Fournier; the Service Award and the Order of the Gopher, Sheila Smith. Betty Ann Rost was elected to Chimes. Barbara Johnson was elected to the Union Board of Governors in the all University Elections. Sheila Smith was appointed to the Senate Committee on Student Affairs and Carol Lynn Johnson to the Senate Committee on Student Behavior.

The annual fall retreat was held September 22 and 23. Minnesota A spent a valuable two days establishing goals for the coming year and finishing rush plans.

The fall rushing parties provided a good time for both rushees and actives, featuring an All American Party, an Ocean to Ocean and a Showboat Party. The new Panhellenic ruling will be used this fall, enabling every chapter to pledge twenty girls regardless of the number of openings each chapter has.

PLEGGED, April 14, 1958: Patricia Foss, Spring Grove; Joan Schultz, Rochester; Karen Huebscher, Edina; Carol Fulbright, St. Paul.

CAROL LYNN JOHNSON

LAMBDA PROVINCE

MISSOURI ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF MISSOURI. Chartered, 1889. Rush week was finished September 12. The results were most exciting with thirty-three pledges filling the quota.

This year there was a new stipulation about grades of rushees. No freshman could be bid unless she was in the upper half of her graduating class; no upper classman if she had not made grades corresponding to the initiation average or above. Lari-Lea Leaver made the highest grades on campus in the freshman class.

Mrs. Handley, the new house mother, is a charming and gracious lady. She takes a sincere interest in each girl's activities.

Missouri University held cheerleading tryouts two weeks ago. Again Pi Beta Phi walked away with all the honors. Four Pi Beta Phi out of eleven were chosen to lead the tigers on to victory. They are: Rosie Stone, Connie McGregor, Gayle Moore, and Martha Freeman. Three of the four are pledges.

Student Government Association (SGA) presented The Pajama Game, November 13-15. Elaine Binniger, Sandy Addison, Penny Pierson, Carolyn Hall, and Sally Brasher will share in the singing honors. Joanne Eggeman and Gayle Moore will prove their dancing abilities.

Dee Danford has the position of administration head of SGA; Judy Layson is the senior representative from Arts and Science to the SGA Council. Romp, Chomp, and Stomp has chosen Lari-Lea Leaver and Phoebe Flynn to its committee. This organization is a Pep Rally and Picnic held before the homecoming game.

Sue Wilson earned the honor of becoming chairman of the house decorating committee for SGA and Homecoming.

Dede Freeman was elected first vice president to AWS. This office entails serving as president in the house of representatives. Susie Mars was elected to represent the sophomore class to the council. Lari-Lea Leaver is the representative for the Savitar Year Book.

Carol Ann Krehbiel is a member of the orientation board and served as chairman of the coke party for the freshman girls.

Student Union is very fortunate to have twenty-five capable Pi Beta Phi on its committee. There are many divisions under this organization. Some of the general divisions in which Pi Beta Phi hold positions are: Office Staff, Coffee Hour, Dance Committee, Film Committee, Forum Committee and Research Committee led by Travis Daniels.

Savitar, Missouri University's Year Book have many Pi Beta Phi on its staff. Dede Freeman was the Managing Editor for last year's addition. Nancy O'Bryant and Caroline Jackson are the Production Editors. Laura Lou Schaper is the Features Editor. Carol Ann Krehbiel is the Index Editor. Also in Missouri Publications, The Moneater, the University of Missouri's weekly paper, one of the reporters was Betsy Transou.

Honorarys are not forgotten by the Pi Phis also. Fan Fare for Fifty boast; Dede Freeman, Susie Mars, Caroline Jackson, and Karen Kirtley.

Kappa Sigma Epsilon (KEA) a freshman girls honorary has; Caroline Jackson, Travis Daniels, Susie Mars and Karen Kirtley. Mortar Board claims Dede Freeman, Sandy Junkin, who graduated with distinction in art was a proud recipient of Φ B K.

There are various types of scholastic honorarys in which many Pi Beta Phi are members. There are five in Spanish, two in journalism, one in mathematics, and six in education.

BARBARA SIMPSON

LOUISIANA ALPHA—NEWCOMB COLLEGE. Chartered, October 29, 1891. Pledge Day, October 6, 1958. INITIATED, October 20, 1958: Nancy Pfeiffer, Shreveport; Sally Schoonover, Houston, Tex.

The new semester began for Louisiana A with a pre-rush house party held on the Gulf Coast. Upon returning to New Orleans, a new rush season was launched under the recently initiated quota system; after a hectic week of work and play, there were twenty-seven happy girls wearing the ribbons of wine and blue.

Tulane University homecoming was scheduled for October 11, and carrying away the honors for Pi Beta Phi were finalists Emily McFarland, Dotty Storey, and Pat Van Scoy. In another realm of campus interest, everyone is talking about the new appearances Newcomb has taken on since last May; the university building program has erected not only a new women's dormitory, infirmary, and cafeteria, but also is in the process of installing air-conditioning to combat this New Orleans heat!

PLEGDED: Brenda Baehrer, Judy Bartlett, Sidonie Evans, Patricia Geobegan, Boo Hillary, Ruthie Jones, Kappy Clann, Anne Porteous, Rose Marie Rapier, Judy Sharp, New Orleans; Burdine Anderson, Keith Mannett, Kathy Sangster, Jo Ann Sharmon, Houston, Tex.; Virginia Bass, Peggy Edge, Nashville, Tenn.; Sanda Grage, Pam Plumley, Shreveport; Carolyn Brown, Long Island, N.Y.; Suzanne Brunazzi, Texarkana, Tex.; Lyn Ginoux, Los Angeles, Calif.; Susan Hodges, Beaumont, Tex.; Lyn Ginoux, Los Angeles, aClif.; Miss.; Anne McDonald, Monroe; Susan Pace, Casper, Wyo.; Duane Perrow, Lynchburg, Va.; Helen Sibensky, Corpus Christi, Tex.

As a pre-initiation project the pledges gave a spring fashion show for Cerebral Palsy. They were able to make a $200.00 contribution from the proceeds.

Before the spring semester ended, several Pi Beta Phis were honored with offices for the 1958-59 school year. Beverly Schwanner became secretary of the Student Government Association; Loretta Ray, secretary-treasurer of Commerce; Loyce Kilpatrick, vice-president of Education; and Charlotte Tannehill, chairman of Judicial Board. The Dean of Women chose Jane Lester, Nita Pettigrew, Ann Golsan, and Lynn Theus to be freshman advisors. Scholastic honors came to the chapter through the initiation of Donna Shively into Mortar Board.

The members climaxed the end of a busy year with a lazy houseparty at a nearby dude ranch immediately after final exams. After three days they stretched the bond of fellowship all over the South as each girl returned home only to find herself back again at Louisiana State University in September getting thirty-eight new pledges at the end of a successful rush. A week after pledging the Panhellenic building rattled with the noise of the announcement of Janice Ryder as Little Colonel of the ROTC, Susan Tucker, Lola White, and Rheta Strohe as ROTC sponsors, and Toni Whittington as freshman cheerleader.

PLEGDED: Patricia Herring, Patricia O'Shea, Diane Pierson, Celeste Tindol, Alexandria; Martha Jane Burns, Louise Gray, Donna McDonald, Monroe; Susan Dupre, Virginia Fontenot, Ville Platte; Julie Courtney, Diane Dickson, Ann Johnson, Jane Rosenblath, Shreveport; Louise Bartlett, Carolyn Kuntz, Susan Legg, New Orleans; Lucy Lutgring, Brent Fenet, Lake Charles; Marilyn Clements, Rebecca Speer, Vivian; Diane Bradley, Hammond; Velda Bridges, Bastrop; Jane Bumgarner, Metairie; Jane Contment, Plaquemine; Ella Doyle, Fulton, Kan.; Elizabeth Edmonson, Houma; Frances Fairbanks, Pineville; Judith Fingerle, Ann Arbor, Mich.; Margaret Masee, Franklinton; Eva Moresi, Jeanerette; Melinda Osburn, St. Joseph; Suelen Scott, Baton Rouge; Brenda Shirley, Morgan City; Rheta Strohe, Welsh; Mary Summersgill, Golden Meadow; Jane Thompson, Boyce; Melinda Waller, Ringgold; Maude Ann Whittington, Natchitoches.

IOWA GAMMA—IOWA STATE COLLEGE. Chartered, 1877. Pledge Day, September 3, 1958. INITIATED, September 20, 1958: Diane Ransom, Waterloo.

There was a week after pledging, and before classes, so both the junior and sophomore classes took advantage of the break to enjoy a short vacation at Lake Okoboji, Iowa. After this pleasant start, Iowa Gamma was ready to settle down to the routine of college life.

Several members have classes in the new home economics addition which was completed this summer.

Homecoming, October 10-11, was celebrated by a Saturday evening buffet dinner for alumnus and members and their dates.

Mary Eklo was pledged to Σ A I, a national music honorary. Sandra Taylor was a finalist for Harvest Ball Queen, and an attendant to the Greek Week Queen, Mary Eklo, Patti Walters, and Jean Hoppe were on the Greek Week central committee. Plans included a picnic with speakers and tapping of Γ I, a new Greek honorary, on Friday; the Olympics for pledge classes and the dance on Saturday; discussions about Greek problems on Sunday. Joanne Will was tapped for Γ I.

Once again, Iowa State welcomes a new football coach, Mr. Clay Stapleton. So far, game results are very encouraging.

Rush week this fall included some improvements. The first three parties may no longer have themes or include skits so as to allow more time for talking to the rushees, and thus getting to know them better. Also, there was no informal rush period immediately after formal rush so that girls would be encouraged to go out for formal rush, and not wait for informal.

BARBARA MESTON

KANSAS ALPHA—KANSAS UNIVERSITY. Chartered, April 1, 1872. Pledge Day, September 6, 1958. INITIATED, September 25, 1958: Kay Dalby Bergland (Mrs. James), Lawrence.

August 26 saw the return of the active chapter for another successful rush week. The theme this year was "Magazines," and the entertainment was under the direction of Nancy Holmes, assistant rush chairman. This was the first year for the preferential system of rushing to be used and it proved very successful. In September, Panhellenic organized a new schedule for rush week which will go into effect in February 1959. Pledging will now be held during the second semester of each school year rather than in September.

The ground was broken this fall for the construction of a new Engineering School building to be completed by September 1959. Also under construction are two married students apartments to be completed in the spring.

The Lawrence Alumnae Club gave a dessert at the Faculty Club September 18 honoring the 1958 pledge class. The alumnae presented a skit representing college life as it was when they were students.

An Open House was held at the chapter house September 28 in honor of Mrs. Mildred A. Dunivent, the new Kansas A house-mother. Also on the fall social calendar was a party to introduce the new pledge class on October 3. The pledge class organized a successful skit for the annual Student Union Carnival which was held October 18.

Individual honors were attained by several members of the active chapter. Elected to Mortar Board were Betsy Shankland, Creta Carter and Sarah Simpson. Ruth Ann Anderson, Megan Lloyd, Shirley Ward and Polly Peppercorn were elected to Phi B K. Marilyn Mull, Alice Gould and Marcia Hall were presented the Watkins Scholarship Award.

OKLAHOMA ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF OKLAHOMA. Chartered, September 1, 1910. Pledge Day, September 3, 1958.

INITIATED, June 10, 1958: Barbara Felmley, Bloomington, Ill.; August 26, 1958, Ann Brandon, Shreveport, La.; Gretchen Bush, Tulsa; Diane Dowling, El Dorado, Ark.

Last spring brought several new awards to the chapter. Nine of the thirty-six new Tassel members were Pi Beta Phis. Betty Blanton, Barbara Bellis, and Janyce Marshall (Mrs. Gerald) were named to B K. Katie Elliott was named the outstanding Home Economics Major, and she also won the award at Convention for having the best scholarship program. Shelly Riley, Pat Walker, and Betty Blanton won the outstanding senior awards in their respective fields of Journalism, Advertising, and Geology, with Betty adding the Nu Province nomination for the Amy B. Onken Award to her list of achievements.

Deanna Shepard ruled as the number one Yearbook Beauty, with eleven Pi Beta Phis as runner-up candidates. Diane Dowling and Eva Brasel were runner-ups for Miss O. U.

"The Pi Beta Phi house has been sold, and on November 1, 1958 construction will start on their new house." This statement was greeted with cheers as Pi Beta Phi dreams had finally come true. Aided by this new incentive, rush week was a tremendous success when thirty three girls donned the wine and blue ribbons.

With a new journalism building and a new library, this fall semester seems to hold a very promising future for the University of Oklahoma as well as for Oklahoma A. Football season is off to a good start, and the chapter is eagerly anticipating Homecoming. The Engineer's Show which is a large variety show on campus will follow immediately. Formal pledging was held September 23 for the new pledge class, and then the members entertained them with a coke party.

PLEGDED: Nancy Baker, Borger, Tex.; Linda Baughman, Linda Landauer, Ponca City; Francie Bonds, Susan Crank, Muskogee; Jean Bonney, Sharon Brown, Sylvia Glasgow, Jeanne Gonders, Susan Groh, Judy Johnston, Martha Matthews, Pat O'Neal, Judy Tarpley, Oklahoma City; Billie Jan Bushman, Dallas, Tex.; Julie Downing, Norman; Darlene Dunn, Ann Gallagher, Elizabeth Langenkamp, Ann McAlister, Claudette Reid, Judy Sierier, Tulsa; Mary Hodges, San Marino, Calif.; Milburn Hudson, Judy Reed, Ardmore; Pat McCafferty, Poteau; Susan Marshall, Mary Small, Shreveport, La.; Mary Ellen Meehan, Wichita, Kan.; Marion Shirley, Bellaire, Tex.; Sherron Shea, Elaine Word, Bartlesville; Martha Lowell Smith, Olustee.

Miriam Oesch won in both campus politics and regional queen contests by claiming the titles of Junior Class Senator and Honorary Cadet Colonel of Pershing Rifles, Southwestern United States. Named 1958-59 Engineering Queen was Gayle Powell succeeding Ann Blackman. Lynn Yeandle was an Acacia Sweetheart finalist. In the activity line Dee Ann Dickens, Mary Helen Bogert, Barbara Stanley, and Rose Marie Kubricht were elected to Education Student Council. Student Union Activities Board selected Ruth Ahrberg as vice-president. Varsity cheerleader for 1958-59 is Ann Adams. Acting as co-chairman from Panhellenic, Ann Blackman was chosen to plan 1958-59 Greek Week Activities.

After a successful rush Oklahoma B headed into a busy fall. The new pledges immediately held a joint dinner sneak with the E N's. Members and pledges both shared the fun at an exchange dinner with the E A E's.

"Greek Week" gave members of the ten woman's and twenty men's fraternities an opportunity to work together on a well-rounded variety of activities from social to scholastic and to welcome the new colony of Delta Upsilon to their campus. High-lighting the week was the coronation of IFC's Princess Athena, Sherry Swearingen.

The chapter was not only proud of its "Pi Phi Pop" booth entry in the Student Union Fair, but also, of the six "Fairest of the Fair" candidates who were entered by four fraternities and two independent men's residence halls.

Malinda Berry and Joyce Dickens were chosen as two of the fifteen Redskin Beauty finalists.

Gracing the Homecoming parade was the chapter's float "A Monarch Born, Oklahoma State—The Big Eight," illustrating the progress of Oklahoma State University in sports from the Missouri Valley Conference to the Big Eight Conference.

ANNA MAE BRENDEN

OMICRON PROVINCE

WASHINGTON ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF WASHINGTON. Chartered, January, 1906. Pledge Day, September 26, 1958. INITIATED, Barbara Beach, Sue Chisholm, Nancy Cragin, Virginia Eshom, Sandra Ferguson, Sally Fleming, Liz Freeman, Penny Graham, Donna Hagen, Jan Jacobson, Janice Kirkland, Judy Kraabel, Julie McClung, JoEll Murray, Virginia Mahnen, Mary Mann, Sarah Marr, Marilyn Mellotte, Denise Millett, Marilyn Mills, Catherine Moe, Christine Ohlson, Geri Pearce, Yvonne Perier, Susan Sayles, Barbara Seeds, Vicki Sinkunas, Ann Sundvor, Nancy Trout.

Washington A pledged 29 of the most outstanding girls on the campus. During rush this season, the chapter attempted a brand new party theme and it seemed to turn the tide in the right direction. The "Angel Party" was a complete success and will probably become a tradition with us. We have had nothing but fun during rush and decided to continue the spirit by having a cruise for the chapter and our new pledges the Sunday after rush was over. We went cruising on beautiful Lake Washington on the Silver Swan, a chartered boat, and had a most enjoyable time singing and enjoying the beautiful sights.

October 18 was Homecoming with U.C.L.A. We stuffed chicken wire with apple wrappers in purple and gold for our huge 20 by 25 foot sign which entirely covered the front of our lovely colonial house from pillar to pillar. Our theme this year was "Huskies Take Cue" which included for the main theme the game of Pool. The stage was a pool table with huge pockets for the dancers to disappear into along with a very tall "Husky" to manipulate the dancers who were dressed as billiard balls with their respective numbers attached.

Pi Beta Phi was third on campus in scholarship for the entire year preceding. The chapter goal, needless to say, is first for this year. Not only are the members looking forward to excellent scholarship, but they also joined in many activities such as the Pledge Dance on November 15, football rallies, queen contests and dances. The candidate for Fresh Day Queen is Marilyn Mellotte, one of the new sophomore pledges.

WASHINGTON BETA—WASHINGTON STATE COLLEGE. Chartered, July, 1912. Pledge Day, October 1, 1958. INITIATED: September 19, 1958: Joan Baken, Lacrosse; Barbara Durham, Spokane; Nancy Harkness, Tacoma.

Washington B was proud to have Carol Bernsten crowned II K A Dream Girl. Leanne Wood and Ellen Houglund were chosen to appear on the Cougar Calendar for '58-'59. Marilyn Melin was presented the chapter's "Outstanding Activities Award" for the fall semester.

Those tapped for honoraries included: Sharon Justice, Karen B. Maughan, Mortar Board; Peggy Simpson, Barbara Allen, Lois Peterson, Spurs; Nancy Harkness, Y.W.C.A. Sophomore Counselor; Gwen Zediker, O N; Joan Coart, Crimson W.

Washington B had a wonderful time putting on a "Me and My Shadow" dance and with the annual "Tea Dance."

Many II Φ s participated in Greek Week activities which ended at an exciting chariot race where all Greeks were garbed in white togas.

This fall the chapter is busy promoting school spirit with Barbara Lindley as chairman of the WSC Rally Squad and Jill Reed and Delight Mundell as members. The II Φ s are also proud to have 3 of the 6 cheerleaders; Janet McBride is the Yell Queen with Alice Camp and Marilyn Wolfe assisting her as members.

PLEGDED: Kathy Aetzel, Sharon Roundtree, Olympia; Holly Barker, Bonnie Hubbard, Susan Ohme, Nancy VanDerHyde, Spokane; Kaye Buchanan, Selah; Diane DeWitt, Betty Walker, Seattle; Pat Johnson, Colfax; Connie Millard, Everett; Jackie Neill, Pullman; Norma Parish, Kirkland; Kathleen Quick, Tacoma; Jill Reed, Santa Rosa, Calif.; Linda Schaub, Yakima; and Marilyn Wolfe, Denver, Colo.

KAREN MOKE

OREGON BETA—OREGON STATE COLLEGE. Chartered, 1917. Pledge Day, September 29, 1958. INITIATED, April 26, 1958; Sally Hall, Janice Romine, and Karen Thompson.

At the beginning of Spring term, the chapter house was active with a kick-off dinner for the Shamrock Party. Jane Saling, who ran for second vice-president on this ticket, was elected and took office for the college. The Sophomore Cottillion was a huge success, and Linda Palmer, finalist for Betty Co-ed, was on the court. Sandra Farrell, was surprised with a banquet given in her honor by the chapter. A beach trip with the $\Sigma A E$ s for a United Fund drive was enjoyed by the whole house. Founders' Day was celebrated at University of Oregon, where Oregon A, Oregon B, and Oregon I took part. After meeting at one of Eugene's parks, the three chapters gathered at Oregon A's chapter house for a picnic and entertainment. Mrs. Stewart Tuft, Omicron Province President, visited Oregon B for a few days in May. Her warmth and vitality were a delight, and the girls enjoyed her thoroughly. Mothers' Weekend found Oregon B singing in the annual Interfraternity Sing. The costumes of pink were sewn by the girls themselves, and fitted in quite nicely with their songs: "The Rain in Spain," and "I Could Have Danced All Night." A banquet for our former cook of many years, Mrs. Thomas, took place, and the chapter presented her with a Mother's pin. The annual "Strawberry Dessert" for the college's faculty was enjoyed by all.

Two dances were held spring term: The "Aloha Dance," presented by the freshmen in honor of the seniors, and a "first" on this campus, the "Arrow-Anchor." This joint $\Pi \Phi$ and $\Delta \Gamma$ dance was held in the $\Delta \Gamma$ house, with a picnic first at Avery Park. It was such a success that it will probably be continued.

Honors were bestowed upon many members this term. Diane Myers, Oregon State's finalist for Moonlight Girl of $\Phi \Sigma K$, was chosen as the National Moonlight Girl. Sharon Rose was chosen as Sweetheart of $\Sigma \Pi$, and Maryle Brumfield was a finalist for Rose of $\Pi K \Phi$. Tapped for Euterpe (music honorary) were Pam Clayton, Debbie Bennett, Mary Griswold, and Nancie Owens, $K \Delta \Pi$ (national education honorary) tapped Laurie Allen and Nancie Owens for membership, and later elected Laurie as president. "Orange O" (women's recreational honorary) tapped Laurie Allen for membership, $\Phi X \Theta$, national business honorary, tapped Debbie Bennett and Marilyn Nancarrow, and Kay Manning was tapped for Talons, service honorary for sophomore women. A scholarship was presented to Nancie Owens by $K \Delta \Pi$, and Nancie also received the Oregon State Mothers' Club honor scholarship. Mary Zerán and Nancie Owens were tapped for $\Phi K \Phi$. Marilyn Ogden, Mary Zerán and Nancie Owens were tapped for Mortar Board.

PLEGDED: Carol Ajax, Judy Blair, Sue Briggs, Marleah Compton, Frances Dwyer, Deanna Epps, Kathie Gibson, Suzanne Goeller, Barbara Huffscheidt, Sandra Jones, Carol Keema, Barbara Keudell, Carol Larson, Liz Latapie, Carol Lindbloom, Pat Nolte, Joan Osko, Sheryl Owen, Christine Pasley, Melinda Rickson, Pat Rogers, Molly Stone, Sandy Strong, Jean Underwood, Julie Williams, and Joanne Wilson.

LAURETTE ALLEN

OREGON GAMMA—WILLAMETTE UNIVERSITY. Chartered, June 3, 1944. Pledge Day, March 26, 1958, September 23, 1958.

Oregon Gamma is happy to welcome the spring pledges into its ranks as members this fall. With them they bring many honors: Ruth Parrott as Rose Festival Queen and Nancy Adams with her Northwest Freight and Elks Scholarship. Already distinguishing themselves on campus are: Becky Brown, Bonnie Hugst, Marian Hauke, Jeanette McRoberts, Vicki Shaughnessy and Gail Walton as new members of Honeybears, Willamette's newest Pep group. Jeanette is assistant to the president. Distinguishing leadership is being shown in the pledge class under the gavel of Marian Hauke, president.

Vicki Shaughnessy is Activities Board representative from Doney Hall and Joanne Lester is co-social chairman struggling with the problems of the coming house dance.

The members busy with activities are an even match for the pledges of this fall. In the spring Linda Hostetler served as vice president of Doney hall while Elaine Buckinger lent her creative talents as historian.

PLEGDED: Marilyn Wright, Portland; Bobbie Giberson, Cornelius; Nancy Adams, Medford; Deni Allen, Beaverton; Phyllis Ball, Becky Brown, Portland; Bonnie Dugdale, Forest Grove; Linda Dumas, Julie Erickson, Portland; Janee Dumond, Hermiston; Judith Conley, San Jose, Calif.; Marian Hauke, Astoria; Bonnie Hugst, Portland; Joanne Lester, Grants Pass; Muriel Manwaring, Jeanette McRoberts, Burlingame, Calif.; Ruth Parrott, Marcia Ruby, Portland; Vicki Shaughnessy, Oswego; Jean Sherwood, Judy Smith, Portland; Suzanne Smullin, Parkdale; Penny Vulgas, Portland; Gail Walton, Parkdale; Linda Webster, Walla Walla, Wash.

CAPPY CASPER

ALBERTA ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF ALBERTA. Chartered, September 22, 1931. To close the spring semester the chapter was honored with a visit from Mrs. A. W. Mansfield, Grand Vice-President.

Joyce Aylen won the Dr. McGugan award for contributing the most to the welfare of her fellow students during her three years training for a nurse.

Frosh Week opened the fall semester on September 22, to welcome over 1000 Freshmen to the campus. Activities for the week included: coffee dates with upperclassmen, dances, teas, Civic Welcome, Activity Night, ice water parties presented by the girls' fraternities, to meet any girls who were interested in rushing. Pi Beta Phi who helped to make Frosh Week such a success were, Joyce Aylen, Anne Brodie and Betty Robertson.

The chapter house is receiving a new face-lifting both inside and out. Everyone is excited and anxious to return to the house on October 14.

Plans are in motion for the fifty year Jubilee Celebration of the founding of the University of Alberta on October 29. The theme for the celebration is "Pioneer Day." Some events scheduled for the day are: log rolling contests, Ox Cart Races and a hen plucking contest.

DIANE LANGDON

IDAHO ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF IDAHO. Chartered, 1923. Pledge Day, September 16, 1958. Idaho A is extremely proud of the Philadelphia Bowl which was awarded to our chapter during Convention this summer.

Both members and pledges are eagerly awaiting the big day when they can move into the new house. It was completed in October. The new three story colonial house is a lovely addition to our campus.

The chapter is building the Homecoming Queen's float with the $\Delta \Phi \Theta$.

The chapter is boasting four Spurs this year. They are Patricia Clark, Julie Matthews, Carolyn Kudlak, and Sharon Price. Our Mortar Board members are Phyllis McAlexander Sheppard, Frances Stockdale, and Joan Ferris. Phyllis Sheppard and Patricia Day Moore were chosen for $K \Delta \Pi$, education honorary. Gerri Williams was elected treasurer of $A E \Delta$, medical honorary. I Club, W.R.A. service honorary, chose Joan Ferris, president; Janemarie Smith, secretary; Shirley Henriksson and Frances Stockdale, W.R.A. elected Diane Smith secretary-treasurer. Pre-Orchestra chose Barbara Brooks, Beverly Bucklin, Karen Kelly, Sharon Nieland, and Sharley Scott. Noretta Smith was elected president of Orchestis, and Sandra Byrne, Sharon Price, and Elaine Wacker were selected for membership. $\Phi T O$, Home Economics honorary chose Janemarie Smith vice-president and Doris Gissel chaplain.

Linda Smith was selected for Vandaleers, the college choir. Shirley Henriksson is again head majorette for the college marching band. Patricia Ord was chosen a member of the flag twirlers. Lynn Shelman is one of the University Pom-Pom girls. Mary Jones is Homecoming dance co-chairman. Frances Stockdale is secretary to the University Executive Board.

NANCY BEARDMORE

PI PROVINCE

CALIFORNIA BETA—UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA. Chartered, 1900. Pledge Day, September 20, 1958. INITIATED, March 15, 1958; Hilary Bevis, Lucy Eberts, Carolyn Griffith, Carolyn Hand, Anita Scott, San Francisco; Binnie Busby, Wendy Harris, Arcadia; Mary Davis, Sacramento; Judith Dieter, Bonnie O'Brien, Linda Palmquist, Suzanne Shorer, Berkeley; Mary Hinman, Ross; Mary Irish, Sue Owen, Sue Paulson, San Marino; Alice Kent, Kentfield; Joan Moffitt, Alameda; Patricia Molony, Laurie Noll, Los Angeles; Jennifer Paul, Pasadena; Susan Verble, Fresno; Suzanne Warner, Oakland; and Martha Wright, Atherton.

California B has settled down for what they hope will be a successful year. Last year the chapter's scholastic record soared to unheard-of heights as Pi Beta Phi stood first among the twenty-two women's fraternal organizations on the campus, and we are hoping to maintain this same high record in the coming year.

Honorary awards were also bestowed upon several of the girls in the house. Martha McEnerney and Betsy Davis were both elected to Mortar Board; Martha McEnerney and Jane Lange were elected to California Club; Martha was also elected to the office of Women's Rally Committee president and Carole Williams received a junior appointment to Rally Committee; five Pi Beta Phi received positions on Women's Executive Board, these were Carolyn Hand, Joyce Robbins, Martha McEnerney, Betsy Davis and Susan Warner; Betsy Davis was elected to Phi Chi Theta, a Business Administration fraternity and she also holds the office of Panhellenic president for the year 1958; Susan Warner was elected secretary of the university's sophomore class; Bonnie O'Brien and Joyce Robbins were appointed to Orientations Council; Janet Dumm has taken over Sue Biggart's job as copy editor of the university yearbook, the Blue and Gold; and Judi Philippi and Sue Straubel were elected to the Ace of Clubs in which Sue Biggart now holds the office of president.

SUSAN W. STRAUBEL

CALIFORNIA GAMMA—UNIVERSITY OF SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA—Chartered, July 27, 1917. Pledge Day, September 21, 1958. INITIATED, October 11, 1958: Liz Burr, Cathy Glenn, Lynn Hunsucker, Nancy Sager, Anne Shirley, Los Angeles; Phillipa Lay, Connie Chamberlain, Brentwood; Nancy Smith, Whittier; Sharon Williamson, Pasadena.

The chapter had a wonderful pledge-active party in September and a beautiful initiation party in October. The retreat and scholarship dinner were also held in October.

Last May at the Recognition Assembly, California F won many honors. Lizz Burr, Carol White and Susie Techtent were selected for Spurs. Not only was Estelle Davies selected for Chimes, but she was also elected their president. Amazons include Estelle Davies, Bev Sweney and Trish Dwyer. Trish was also elected Senator on campus. Carol White and Nancy Wimbush were appointed to the A.W.S. cabinet. Diane Hunt and Kathy Niemeyer were tapped for Mortar Board. Diane was also elected secretary of the Student Body while Kathy was elected A.W.S. President and named as a Phi Beta Kappa. Kathy received the Harriet Rutherford Johnstone Scholarship Award at Convention this year.

The pledges were honored at a cooky-shine and at a slumber party and swimming party.

PLEGGED: Dale Anderson, Inglewood; Sue Anderson, Riverside; Georgianna Brock, Barbara DeMuth, Susie Hutchinson, Kathy Maxted, Linda Petrie, Los Angeles; Beverly Brown, Pacific Palisades; Sally Chaffee, Rolling Hills; Darlene Colman, Marlene Colman, Lynn Thompson, Pasadena; Linda Mills, San Marino; Joan Neely, Palos Verdes; Kathy Smith, Vallejo; Judy Walker, Pomona. Mary Linda Woods, Sierra Madre.

BARBARA O'CONNOR

CALIFORNIA DELTA—UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA AT LOS ANGELES. Chartered, September, 1927. Pledge Day, September 20, 1958. INITIATED, March 30, 1958: Denise Alexander, Beverly Hills; Carol Bacon, Sherman Oaks; Linda Fehring, Altadena; Penny Hartley, Riverside; Linda Hoover, Los Angeles; Sue Montgomery, Studio City; Mary Suman, Sierra Madre; Barbara Turner, South Pasadena. Initiated, June 13, 1958: Barbara Wells.

California D returned from a busy summer vacation filled with memories of past activities, and anticipation for those to come. The girls had received a pleasant surprise last June as they picked up their copies of the annual, the Southern Campus, for it was revealed that Peggy Weyman had been chosen as the Southern Campus Spring Queen.

Roberta Condit and Jo Ellen Gifford spent their vacation in India, as members of the UCLA Project India Team; this group of fourteen students are chosen to help further good relations between the United States and the Eastern Countries. Susan Burdick and Sue Montgomery spent a week as counselors at Uni-Camp, another of UCLA's philanthropic projects, a camp for underprivileged children. Tahira Sparling again captured a second place trophy for platform diving in the Women's National Amateur Athletic Union Competition held in Topeka, Kan. She also took first place in the Far Western towel event, in San Francisco.

The excitement of rushing over, the girls are already finding themselves involved in the many campus activities. An important event on the Los Angeles campus was the inauguration of Dr. Clark Kerr, the new president of the University of California, held in late September. Football games, always a large part of UCLA life, have been exciting. The season's first home game, was thrilling for everyone, for the new pledges of both the men's and women's fraternities attended the event with the active members of the various groups. The Pi Beta Phi were well represented on the field, for Barbara Dapper was recently chosen Head Song Leader.

Many of the girls have been tapped for campus honoraries, both this semester and last. Mary Suman was tapped for Spurs; Jean Van Buren, Joy Johnson, and Roberta Condit were chosen as members of Prytanean; Roberta was also selected to be a member of Mortar Board. Susan Plumb, a member of the Little Sisters of Minerva, the little sister group of $\Sigma \Delta E$, was recently elected president. Susan Gosman, a new pledge, was tapped for Wings, the women's auxiliary of the Air Force ROTC.

Chapter activities were set off to a good start with the annual $\Pi B \Phi$ all-day retreat. Many new ideas were formulated for the coming semester. The girls particularly enjoyed hearing the songs, customs, and traditions brought back to them from Convention.

CHARLOTTE RUTH NEEL

CALIFORNIA EPSILON—SAN DIEGO STATE COLLEGE. Chartered, September 1, 1949. Pledge Day, September 22, 1957. INITIATED, September 21, 1958: Sharon Pflister, National City.

Returning students to San Diego State College found a new bookstore and cafeteria which will accommodate the enrollment now numbering over 10,000.

This fall the chapter returned to find their newly painted house and the addition of a beautiful new chapter room.

California E won first place in scholarship for the fourth consecutive semester.

The La Jolla Country Club was the scene of the spring formal, at which time the outgoing president was honored.

Jean Zinck was crowned queen at the annual AFOTC Ball and in May she was elected Lt. Colonel of Angels' Flight, an AFOTC auxiliary. Z B T voted Charlotte Balsiger as their Sweetheart and at the annual spring Blue Book Ball the Pi Beta Phi had five of the eleven candidates. They were: Peggy Cassell, K Σ ; Joyce Chadwick, II K A; Mary Lee Foley, Z B T; Judy McCurdy, Σ II; and Linda Pelton, A T O.

Among many outstanding students on campus are: Brenda Heiman, president of California Student Teachers Association; Susan Johnson, lower division representative on AS Council; Jean Collier, majorette; and Lynne Luckey, songleader.

LINDA FALK

CALIFORNIA ZETA—SANTA BARBARA COLLEGE. Chartered, February 2, 1950. Pledge Day, September 21, 1958. INITIATED, September 7, 1958: Barbara Summerhill, Chula Vista; Victoria Post, Santa Cruz; Barbara Lambert, Los Angeles; Judy Jeffries, Santa Ana; Janet Stubblefield, Fallbrook; Sue Saylor, North Hollywood.

California Z started the new school year with new ideas and enthusiasm brought from Convention by Fay Tysell and Mary Shropshire. Joann Hinkley reported on her studies at the Settlement School Workshop.

At the present Val Hallor and Penny Cutting are enjoying themselves in Europe. Val is in Sorbonne on the Junior Year Abroad Scholarship. Penny is acting as a guide at the World's Fair in Brussels.

Sue Swift was elected first vice-president of the Associated Women Students, and also was selected song leader.

Last year the chapter was well represented in queen contests. Val Hallor was elected Military Ball Queen, and Nancy Allin was chosen as one of her princesses. Val was also an Easter Relay's princess. Mary Wheeler was elected $\Sigma O E$ Sweetheart at their annual spring formal.

The chapter is also represented in various honoraries on campus. Mary Shropshire and Victoria Post are in Spurs, sophomore women's honorary. In Chimes, the junior women's honorary, are Marilyn Parry and Sue Swift. Janet Allen is in Crown and Scepter, the senior women's honorary. In K Δ II, the national education honorary, Janet Allen is president and Fay Tysell is corresponding secretary.

The chapter was pleased with their results of the annual spring sing event on campus. They placed first with their "American Lullaby," an original arrangement of "Summer Time" and "Swing Low Sweet Chariot."

The fall holds a busy schedule. Homecoming and the Gaucho Review were on campus. This meant float work and a short musical skit. Later in the semester the chapter will be planning their annual Christmas dance at the Biltmore.

On October 3, Santa Barbara campus welcomed the inauguration of President Clark Kerr in a short afternoon ceremony.

PLEGDED: Nancy Askins, North Hollywood; Kay Armour, Ann Polley, Fullerton; Joan Chaplin, Alhambra; Barbara Downey, Sue Fremdling, Michelle Gerien, Kay Good, Judith Perrill, Sally Spear, Los Angeles; Sandra Jones, Santa Monica; Sally Beth Jones, South Laguna; Mary Krug, South Pasadena; Carolyn Lane, Pasadena; Phyllis Oswald, Westend; Janet Purvis, Santa Barbara; Doris Worrel, El Monte; Karen Owsley, San Marino.

This year's Mackay Day weekend proved to be very successful. For the twelfth consecutive year Nevada A won the Mackay Day dance attendance trophy.

Following this, at an A.W.S. assembly, Nevada A received the honor of holding the highest active scholarship of the women's fraternities on campus.

The new Jot Travis Student Union Building was completed in February. Letitia Sawle and Sharon Stiff were elected to the Student Union Board.

Outstanding in activities were Penny Pemberton, Women's Upper Class Committee, and president of A.E.D.; Sharon Teglia, Junior Class Committee, president of P.E.M.S., and a member of Sagens; Carolyn McGowan, Executive Council of Senate, member of Sagens; Lillian Mason, Sophomore Class Committee; Letitia Sawle, Sagens.

Among the fall semester events are Homecoming, our annual Christmas party for underprivileged children, and our Christmas Formal.

Pledged: Ann Scott, Grass Valley, Calif.; Deanne Luelling, Reno. SALLY RILEY

East 49th St., at 1st Ave., New York 17, N.Y.

I believe

In my country and her destiny,
In the great dream of her founders,
In her place among the nations,
In her ideals;

I believe

That her democracy must be protected,
Her privileges cherished,
Her freedom defended.

I believe

That, humbly before the Almighty,
But proudly before all mankind,
We must safeguard her standard,
The vision of her Washington,
The martyrdom of her Lincoln,
With the patriotic ardor
Of the boys in blue
Of her glorious past.

I believe

In loyalty to my country,
Utter, irrevocable, inviolate.

GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS

- CHAPTER TREASURERS: Should see that letter from Grand Treasurer to the Parents of Actives and Pledges is sent to the parents as early in the fall as it is possible to get the local letter on chapter finances approved by the Province President to send with it. It is necessary that parents understand the financial obligations at the beginning of the year. Should see that Financial Statements to Parents of Pledges are sent approximately two weeks before the proposed initiation. They should be sent ONLY to the parents of the girls who have met the initiation requirements and whom the chapter definitely plans to initiate. This means too that the blanks should be sent only for the girls who have received the required vote of the Executive Council and the Alumnae Advisory Committee for approval of initiation. Should see that badges are ordered through the Central Office. It takes six weeks or more, to complete badge orders. Badges for prospective members should not be ordered until all initiation requirements have been met.
- Should send the National pledge fee for each pledge with Form GT1 to Central Office. Canadian chapters send fee to Mrs. Henry Moore, Jr., 420 Pine Street, Texarkana, Texas, with GT1 form. Send within two weeks of any pledging or repledging.
