THE ARROW W

of Pi Beta Phi

A Message of Centennial Importance

Spring, 1963

Dear Pi Phi:

The proposal of four possible projects for the Centennial Fund was made at convention last year. This heralds the long-awaited moment when we will celebrate our centennial birthday and we feel the urgency to bring the amount of the fund to the expected million-dollar goal. We are sure that the project committee report will inspire each member of Pi Beta Phi to appraise the progress of her donations.

Have you contributed your 1/70,000 of our million dollar goal? Have you taken your place in the long line of those who would honor our Founders with a project worthy of the standards they established? The time is short. The opportunity is now.

Alumnae and Clubs, please send your donations to your Province Vice-President (refer to your ARROW directory for name and address). Chapters should send donations to Centennial Fund Treasurer, Mrs. Theodore N. Shreve, 417 Leyden Street, Denver 20, Colorado.

Sincerely in Pi Phi,
Betty Bailey Hall
Chairman, Centennial Fund Committee

Betty Bailey Hall, Oklahoma Alumnae Club member of the Houston, Texas Alumnae Club is the new chair of the Centennial Fund Committee.

The Cover—Ann Smith, president of Arkansas Beta Colony and Dianne McDaniel, rush chairman, find it pleasant to visit about two recent arrivals to Little Rock University Campus, Pi Beta Phi and spring. The building in the background is the Student Union.

LOYALTY

(Excerpts from 1963 Loyalty Day address of former Grand Vice President
Ruth Barrett Smith at Southern California Pi Beta Phi Area Council.
Pi Beta Phi observes Loyalty Day on January 9, each year.)

LOYALTY! A word which for all of us should stir Pi Phi memories of the aftermaths of pledging, the learning about Pi Beta Phi, our contributions toward the growth of our own chapters, and the progress toward a greater fraternity year by year, as time passes. Let's break down this word into a few possible synonyms after enlarging it to the plural form—LOYALTIES!

L is for LOYAL, which means faithful to an organization or a person—or persons—to whom one owes fidelity; the pledges we exchanged at the time we first affiliated with the chapter and then again when we took our initiation vows. These vows were of a permanent character and meant, "being loyal"—and not to be taken lightly.

O represents our ORIGINATORS or Founders, twelve young girls securing their educations in a small denominational college in the Civil War era when, more normally, girls remained to help at home or to be married rather than seek a higher education. To them we are eternally grateful for many things through ninety-five years of Pi Beta Phi.

Y for YOUTH! In Youth, these same girls also qualified by their advanced maturity of thought and action, looking ahead already to the formation of a fraternity of their own, patterned on the order of the men's groups already flourishing on the Monmouth and other campuses, and with the national aspect firmly established even in that period of difficult existence and patterns.

A could stand for ACHIEVEMENTS. There have been many of these, starting with expansion westward, then both north, eastward, and to the south, in time. Our girls set methods which were embodied elsewhere, on other campuses, helping to knit into still a different achievement, perhaps now better known as the National Panhellenic Congress. To name a few achievements to our own credit in the fraternity: the Loan Fund, our Scholarships, the Settlement School, Arrowcraft, our Arts and Crafts Summer Workshop; just read the list of National Committees, stepping stones or landing platforms along the way.

L is for LEADERS. In all of the achievements, we first needed leaders and as the needs mounted, they came forward. Then others took their places, both on a national level or within a chapter or an alumnae club, a civic enterprise, a philanthropy, or in political circles. There are spiritual LEGACIES, too, to be handed on year by year!—hands of friendship extended to some individual, club, chapter, or even to a community. All these are forms of being LOYAL. Carrie Chapman Catt, whom Loyalty Day honors, exemplifies that form of Leadership and Legacy. The word LOYAL tells the story.

But we continue: TRUST in our God, in our form of worship, in the freedoms of our country, in our fellowman and in ourselves, all lead to TRIUMPHS for the fraternity member. We are not a "do-less" group of individuals, girls, or women, but we must be sure of our goals and aims and the foundations must be firm and secure and right.

IDEALS! Those who have watched the faces during an initiation ceremony or heard the words of that service know that Initiation and Ideals go together. It was upon the IDEALS of our Founders that Pi Beta Phi was created. Does each of us measure up? Are we maintaining these Ideals? If so, we have nothing to fear for our organization. Do we realize their enormous importance to us individually and to the whole Christian world in these days of stress and differences in viewpoint?

EDUCATION! We continue to prove and emphasize that we are a college organization where, of course, EDUCATION is foremost. All should awake to the need for alumnae aid when active chapters are striving for completed educations. It is the individual's problem but group assistance within and the demonstration by alumnae of the worth of mature advice sometimes slant the way toward higher educational values.

Last of our synonyms but far from minor is the S, which is three-fold: Within the chapter of SELECTION of one's associates both on campus and within the group. SERVICE to each other, whether during collegiate days or in your home community, neighborhood, or church is likewise important.

And still another S . . . STANDARDS, a measure of quality, a criterion. Dr. William Menniger, noted psychologist wrote: "We need to ask ourselves once a year if we are going in the right direction. We need to ask ourselves once a year what we have done in the past year to increase our own dignity, our own integrity, our own stature. Are we more willing to give of ourselves to society than we were a year ago? Have we learned that before we look ahead or judge others, we must learn to examine and judge ourselves?" Yes, how do we measure up? What do we think of our own standards—or others'? Are we smugly content to sit back, critical of others but satisfied with ourselves?

LOYALTIES! . . . LOYAL TIES!! These all spell PI BETA PHI at its founding, augmented a thousand-fold as the years roll on. The right kind of Leadership continued, Achievements ever mounting, the maintenance of Standards above criticism, shall secure the Achievements for which we are known and from these shall emerge the Trusts, the Triumphs, and the needed Leadership until still finer records are on every campus, be it California, Wisconsin, or New York, west to east and back again.

off the Arrow hook

If this ARROW arrives in the vicinity of the first day of spring and receives as warm a welcome as that season should after our "ice-age" winter—its type should fairly glow.

Put the process through which words must flow to reach type together with human frailty and like as not an editor's face will glow red with the errors that inevitably occur. The ARROW very nearly earned a fearful new title "The Error" with such in its last two sorties into print.

In our Convention issue that appeared in the fall, we did accidental disservice to the fine speech of Julia Fuqua Ober, Kappa Delta Extension chairman. Some of the errors doubtless occurred in the stenotypist's transcription which reached Mrs. Ober too late for checking before we went to press. For this reason the name of Dean U. G. Dubach of Sigma Phi Epsilon was badly garbled and Seth Brooks was erroneously listed as the first president of Beta Theta Pi. Nor did Mrs. Ober refer to "anonymous" college enrollments, but to enormous enrollments; and she did not refer to our nation as a "minority country."

Juggled cutlines identifying our province officers also added confusion to that Convention issue for those hardworking girls who saw themselves under the name of a friend and co-worker.

In the winter magazine we literally crumbled a member who described herself as a "Florida cracker" by referring to hibiscus as orange blossoms. Also Indiana Zeta Leila Kirkley was introduced under the strange misnomer of "Lulu Kirklee," much to her father's dismay. Elizabeth Dalton, Tennessee Alpha, received the Chattanooga Alumnae Club's award as the "outstanding member of Tennessee Alpha" as a student and it was her friend Marian Jones Tyte, now of St. Louis, who received the "outstanding senior award."

The responsibility for all these miscues lies in various places and all of us who had a hand in making them voice a joint apology to those affected by them.

Her friends in Indiana chapters and alumnae clubs and many others made while she was serving as a province officer were deeply grieved by the untimely death of Barbara Douglas McQuiston, Zeta Province Vice President in December. Barbara's warm personality, enthusiasm, and ability endeared her to all with whom she had worked in Pi Phi and her service to the fraternity had been loyal and devoted in chapter and alumnae club and as a national officer. For those who may not have received the word from another source, a memorial scholarship will be given in her name to an undergraduate Pi Phi in 1963-64. Gifts for this scholarship may be sent to Mrs. D. O. Detmer, 4519 E. Thornleigh Drive, Indianapolis, Indiana.

In the recent Kappa Alpha Theta magazine, the daughter of one of the Theta founders wrote, "Think it is commendable that there are no obituaries in the magazine, no matter how prominent the Theta. Life is for the living."

This succinct remark pointed up the approach that must be taken by national magazines of sororities whose membership numbers in the tens of thousands. We have departed from the policy twice in the past three years in the instance of two members who made vital contributions to the Pi Beta Phi Settlement School. In the aftermath of those two tributes, we received a number of lengthy articles or tributes to outstanding members of the Fraternity in local situations which we had to regretfully decline.

The regret came from two sources—the one that space limitations preclude our initiating such a policy and the other that these fine members, who had contributed so much to Pi Phi and their communities had not received recognition during their lifetimes in the ARROW.

We cannot alter the space limitation, but those who recognize outstanding members and wish to bring their leadership and civic contribution to the attention of the fraternity at large can do so by submitting articles for the magazines Pi Phi Personalities department or the Golden Arrow Pi Phi section during that person's lifetime.

Arkansas Beta Is Colonized

Pi Beta Phi's 109th chapter-to-be was born in a blizzard on Friday night, January 25, in Little Rock, Arkansas. The ice storm that brought that city to a virtual standstill for two days failed to daunt the members of the Fraternity who set out to pledge the members of the Little Rock University local, Beta Chi, and thus set in motion the chain of events that will result in the installation of a new Pi Phi chapter at the University in May.

Pi Beta Phi had accepted an invitation from the Little Rock University administration to colonize through a local group in the fall of 1962. It was only last year that the University issued invitations to a number of National Panhellenic groups to its campus. On the same weekend that the Arkansas Beta colony was established, Delta Delta Delta and Kappa Kappa Gamma also pledged local groups and set up colonies.

The Little Rock Alumnae Club under the leadership of its president, Margaret Spencer Trimble, assisted national officers in making arrangements for the colonization weekend. Each pledge of the 21-member colony is sponsored by a Little Rock club member.

The new pledges are Maureen Brooks, Dana Hampel, Kaye Haynes, Carman Holder, Martha Holder, Dianna McDaniel, Deanna Plunkett, Carolyn Pugh, Sharron Ramick, Laverne Rorie, Sandra Rounsavall, Linda Sheffield, Ann Smith, Melanie Smith, Phyllis Booth, Pat Shuffield, Laura Hixson, Mary McLaughlin, Mary Ann Woods and Patricia Blakey.

Betty Copeland, Arkansas Alpha, a mid-semester graduate of the University of Arkansas, will serve as graduate counselor for the colony. She will be assisted by Sue Phelps, Arkansas Alpha.

The pledging ceremony was held at Little Rock's Junior League House, the Charles Taylor Memorial, at 8:00 p.m. Mrs. William H. Mansfield, Grand President, officiated at the pledging ceremony and was assisted by Sue Phelps. Mrs. Henry Moore, Jr., the Fraternity's Grand Treasurer, was a special guest. Others participating in the ceremony were Sharon Raney and Judy Cox. Andrea Anthony and Jo Ann Tuohey had charge of arrangements for pledging.

(Standing, 2nd row) Dana Hampel, Diana McDaniel, Maureen Brooks, Mary Ann Woods.

A number of Arkansas Alpha chapter members were present for the colonization program. The chapter president, Susan Linebarger, and its former rush captain, Cathie Rimmel, led a candlelight ceremony. Wearing wine and blue dresses, they read the inspirational poem, "We Light Four Candles."

The new pledges were honored with a reception following the formal pledging ceremony. Wine and blue table appointments were carried out in a floral arrangement of blue carnations and wine ribbon streamers and candles.

Other social events during the weekend included a luncheon honoring Mrs. Mansfield and Mrs. Moore and attended by Little Rock University president, Dr. Carey V. Stabler and Mrs. Stabler and representatives of the colony advisory committee and a dinner party given by two Little Rock alumnae, Mrs. Jack East and Mrs. Carl Hall.

With the assistance of an alumnae advisory committee from the Little Rock club, the new colony members are well into a program of activities. The members of that committee are: Miss Pauline Hoeltzel, chairman; Mrs. C. B. Young, scholarship; Mrs. A. F. Madison, Jr., rushing; Mrs. Ed McFadden, finance; Mrs. James Price, Jr., activities and Mrs. Bob Pine, Jr., standards.

Installation dates have been set for the weekend of May 3-5. Mrs. Robert Strauss of the Little Rock Alumnae Club is chairman of the installation committee.

Little Rock University Welcomes Pi Beta Phi

Pi Beta Phi received a cordial welcome to the campus of Little Rock University, which is showing remarkable growth in its first decade as a four-year school.

Dr. Carey V. Stabler, president of the University since 1956, issued a statement on behalf of the administration as follows:

"The Pi Beta Phi National Fraternity is warmly welcomed by Little Rock University. We cordially greet this fine national group and anticipate the development of an excellent chapter of Pi Beta Phi at our University as an important part of our total program for academic excellence and educational services to our community and to our nation. Little Rock University is very glad to have Pi Beta Phi as a member of a new and strong fraternity system which will contribute significantly to the growth of our new and dynamic private liberal arts University at Little Rock."

Little Rock University as a private and independent accredited institution traces its history to 1927 when Little Rock Junior College was established. Within two years this school was granted accreditation by North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools. In 1929 the school became the sole beneficiary of a trust established by the late Arkansas governor, George W. Donaghey. This trust involved perpetual increments from real property valued at that time in excess of $2,000,000 and now at more than $4,000,000.

In 1947 the school moved to its present campus when a Little Rock businessman, Raymond Rebsamen, donated a beautiful wooded tract of more than 80 acres as a campus for the college.

In 1957 a full four-year program was inaugurated and the institution's name was changed to Little Rock University. The University completed its transition to senior college status in 1960 when full accreditation from the North Central Association was achieved in the minimum allowable time of two years after beginning a schedule of upper-level courses.

Recently added facilities include a $445,000 Science Building and a $375,000 Student Union which were dedicated in 1959. All campus buildings are modern and functional.

The University has 33 departments offering 30 majors and approximately 300 courses and sections each semester. Its current faculty includes 44 full time professors and 42 part-time professors.

The enrollment in the 1962-63 school year is 1,780.

Pride, nostalgia and a touch of sadness were the fare as 150 Pi Beta Phis and guests celebrated seventy-five years representation of the Fraternity on the Franklin College campus by Indiana Alpha chapter. The observance was held on January 7, 1963 and was highlighted with a Diamond Jubilee smorgasbord dinner in Cline Hall at the College. National Historian Marian Keck Simmons was the guest speaker.

In remembrance of the cold, snowy evening of January 16, 1888 when the chapter was founded, the Franklin alumnae had decorated the large room with tables bearing the names of the fourteen chapter founders written in silver glitter and lighted by blue tapers. At the speakers' table, a large bouquet of fourteen wine carnations was centered by a silver numeral 75.

Members of the active chapter, pledges, mothers, patronesses and alumnae from throughout the state gathered to pay tribute to those fascinating fourteen whose story Mrs. Simmons repeated in her delightful description of fraternity life in the early days.

The speaker first reminded the group that as pioneers of Pi Beta Phi in Indiana, this original chapter created an enthusiasm and interest which through the years has developed loyalty and unity among the chapters in the state to an unusual degree. She spoke of the heritage which the small liberal arts college, such as Franklin College, has given to the community and to the Fraternity with its emphasis on excellence in the pursuit of culture.

Among the original members of Indiana Alpha was Jeannette Zeppenfeld who became the first National Historian and who wrote the first little history of the Fraternity, "Salient Points."

Emma Harper Turner was Indiana Alpha's contribution to the organization and coordination of the Fraternity in its early days. Elected Grand Vice President after having been a member less than one year, Miss Turner served one term and then became Grand President at the age of twenty-six. She resigned at her own request to head the Alumnae Department which she had conceived and planned. It was the first of its kind among fraternity women designed to further active participation by alumnae in the organization. Her initiative in the establishment of the Settlement School with its vast altruistic opportunity was perhaps her greatest contribution to Pi Beta Phi. She is remembered as one who was energetic, demanding with "a keen sense of leverage" and who helped guide the Fraternity through its crucial early years.

Mrs. Simmons also commented on other Indiana Alphas who have made contributions to the fraternity at large. Gertrude Deer Owens of Franklin was a province president and compiled a prize-winning history of the Indiana Alpha Chapter. Grace Magaw Phelan of Mrs. Simmons own alumnae club in Kansas City has been very active in the local and national organization. Other province officers from this chapter include Ethelwyn Miller, Helen Glessner Scott, Miriam Deming Kice, Marcy Catherine Brewer Arthur, Carol Meiks Cook, Levona Payne Newsome, and Pat Whitesides Akers. Former alumnae province presidents include Katherine Jane Wyrick Hettich, Elsa Barker Eskew, and the late Barbara Douglas McQuiston.

Seated at the speakers' table with Mrs. Simmons were Helen Forsyth Raup, Zeta Province President and an Indiana Alpha; Martha Ann Drybread Deppe, present Alumnae Club president and toast-mistress for the program; Mrs. Harold Richardson, wife of the president of Franklin College and mother of two Indiana Alpha Pi Phis; Alice Gill, chapter president; Mrs. George Simpson, president of the Patroness Club, Mrs. Hettich, president of the Mother's Club; Bethel Webb, Alumnae Club treasurer in charge of the birthday offering; Frances Klyver Blake, who read the letters and telegrams of greeting received from points throughout the nation and the dinner co-chairmen, Barbara Ware Browning and Gertrude Owens.

It was a sad moment when Helen Raup explained to the gathered Pi Phis the plans for a fitting tribute to the memory of Barbara Douglas McQuiston. A scholarship fund will be the memorial that Indiana Alpha will share with many other Pi Phis in remembrance of her loyal service to the fraternity.

SCENE OF INSTALLATION—The home of Emma Ellis Monroe in the background was the site of the installation of Indiana Alpha on January 16, 1888. It is now owned by Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Fetterly. Pictured before it are Gertrude Deer Owens, Co-Chairman of the 75th anniversary celebration; Martha Ann Drybread Deppe, Franklin Alumnae Club president; Grace Drybread Lace and Minnie Engle Barrow, Golden Arrow Pi Phis.

The traditional candle lighting ceremony, written by Gertrude Owens, was a fitting close to a memorable reunion of Pi Phis.

The Chapter Reports a Sparkling Year

by Susan Selsor, Indiana A

There will never be another year that sparkles quite like 1962-63 has for Indiana Alpha for this is the seventy-fifth diamond jubilee year of the chapter. The Alphas planned and carried out a diversified schedule from the anniversary banquet—candle-lit, impressive with an inspirational address by the Fraternity's National Historian—to float work sessions, replete with hammers, nails, mounds of crepe paper rosettes and glue and a scholarship program which has kept Pi Beta Phi tops on campus scholastically for six straight semesters.

Rush Week ended with fourteen new pledges donning the shiny golden arrowhead that binds them to Pi Phi.

Following rush, the chapter plunged into a round of campus activities. Cheer-leader elections found four Pi Phis chosen to boost the Franklin College Grizzlies.

Homecoming was next on the agenda. Led by Janet Coers and Sylvia Bohall, float chairmen, the chapter took first place in float competition for the second consecutive year. Lovely sophomore Mary Jane Phillips, representing Indiana Alpha, was chosen Homecoming Queen. It was a thrilling day for the chapter.

Mary Jane Phillips

Greek Week, celebrated in the fall to honor members of the eight campus social organizations, was filled with work and fun. Alice Gill, chapter president, was chosen by faculty vote as the most outstanding Greek woman on campus. The chapter worked with Phi Delta Theta to present an amusing skit.

Pi Beta Phis lead and work in many campus groups and activities. Its members serve as class officers, on the college publications and radio station staff, Pep Council, Student Council Hostess and Host Committee and they hold membership in Gold Quill and Laurel, campus scholarship and service honor societies.

Indiana Alpha is proud of its record, yet as they view the many accomplishments of those fourteen young women who founded the chapter they realize that much is still to be done.

For the oldest Indiana Chapter of Pi Beta Phi has a rich heritage and a fine tradition. It is the earnest desire of her members to uphold the highest and finest ideals of the Fraternity and to keep alive that glowing, living quality that is the spirit of Pi Beta Phi, the oldest and finest American college fraternity for women.

Four Pi Phis Form Royal Relay Team

Athletes who compete in actual relay events of the famed Drake Relays have nothing on a team of Pi Phi beauties who have held the royal baton of the Drake Relays Queen for four consecutive years, 1959-62.

The Pi Phi team began forming in 1959 when Jan Stewart, Kansas Beta, the nominee of Kansas State University for the honor, reigned as queen. The following year her successor was the University of South Dakota's candidate, Meredith Auld, a South Dakota Alpha Pi Phi. In 1961 the University of Nebraska nominated Mary Ann (Skip) Harris, Nebraska Beta Pi Phi and the judges selected her to reign that year.

The Pi Phi team of Relays Queens was rounded out in 1962 when Catherine Rimmel, Virginia Alpha and Arkansas Alpha Pi Phi, was nominated by the University of Arkansas as a Relays queen candidate and won the title.

Cathie's scrapbook tells the story that must be a familiar one for her sister predecessors—a full and exciting three-day schedule filled with meeting outstanding athletes, being honored by other Greek groups (there is no Pi Phi chapter at Drake University), riding in parades, speaking and presenting awards to Relays events' winners.

The 1962 Queen had left the University of Arkansas for a spring vacation visit to her former campus, Randolph-Macon College in Lynchburg, Virginia, when word reached her that she was the new Queen and would be due in Des Moines within the week. She went directly from Virginia to Des Moines.

Cathie captivated Des Moines with her personality and beauty. A Des Moines Tribune feature writer put it this way. . . .

"... one of the most stunning title-holders to come this way in many a day . . . Queen Cathie's regal height (5 feet, 11 inches before heels) is topped by great brown eyes, a warm electric smile and luxuriant chestnut brown hair."

The scrapbook that Cathie treasures was begun for her by Pi Beta Phi alumnae in Des Moines. It chronicles her exciting weekend there with pictures, clippings, and other mementoes and was presented at a breakfast the alumnae gave for her. Cathie describes the breakfast as "perfectly lovely" and waxes equally warm on "those wonderful Des Moines Pi Phis."

During the weekend Cathie was a guest of honor at a tea given by the Panhellenic Council and Woman's Inter-Hall Council. She was similarly honored at the Tau Kappa Epsilon formal. She was a dinner guest at the Alpha Epsilon Pi house and had lunch with the Alpha Phis. She was a special guest at a Delta Gamma open house. Sigma Phi Epsilon also entertained her at luncheon and the Pi Kappa Alphas invited her to their open house.

Other highlights included news interviews and a TV appearance, appearing on a program with famed distance runner, Wes Santee, and being crowned by Drake University President Harmon.

Cathie is the daughter of former Little Rock Mayor Pratt Rimmel and is a second generation Pi Phi. Her mother, Catherine Couch Rimmel is a Virginia Alpha and Texas Beta Pi Phi.

The 1962 Queen maintains a 3.7 grade point on a 4 point system. She is a member of Mortar Board, serves as an associate editor and managing editor of the U of A yearbook, The Razorback and was Panhellenic president this year. She is a student senator, an AWS executive board member and was named a Razorback beauty last year. She has been rush chairman at Arkansas Alpha and was president of her Virginia Alpha pledge class. At Randolph-Macon she was a May Court member two years, was featured in the Helianthus beauty section and served as a Sophomore Counselor.

Queen Cathie at Des Moines.

"A Dream Come True"

Kansas Alphas Move Into New Home

by Sue Hardisty, Kansas Alpha

On October 21st the air was filled with tinges of mixed emotions as some fifty Kansas Alpha Pi Phis moved the last of their belongings out of their old home at 1246 Mississippi into their brand new one at 1612 West 15th in Lawrence, Kansas.

The occasion was primarily a happy one; however some of the girls felt a bit nostalgic when they realized that they were leaving the old house forever. After many years of careful planning, the dream of a new home had become a reality. The doors of the French Provincial house were officially opened and the eager new occupants turned from nostalgia to the promise of many years of gracious living.

The move brought an end to over a month of confusion for the Kansas Alpha members. Approximately fifty girls had lived in the old house even though it had been partially converted into offices during the summer by its new owner, the University of Kansas Extension Bureau. Most of the furniture had been sold which meant the girls must live out of suitcases, with luckier ones having access to one dresser drawer. The kitchen had been dismantled which meant that for over a month the Pi Phis ate three meals daily at the Student Union. Ten actives lived in two temporary locations, first at Hodder Hall and later at Hashinger Hall. The University administration was extremely cooperative about providing living quarters for the displaced Pi Phis.

When the big day finally arrived the many delays seemed more than worthwhile; for the new house was even more wonderful than everyone had anticipated.

Aside from the sheer beauty of its structure and the more than ample living space, the new home provides bonus features such as an inter-com system with direct communication to every room, additional telephone booths and outside lines, and drinking fountains on each floor.

The interior decor of the house is in shades of blue and white with accents of red. The new residents are extremely pleased with the plush red carpeting in the halls. Each bedroom is supplied with draperies and bedspreads in harmonious colors.

On the other side of the campus stands the house that countless Kansas Alpha Pi Phis had called home since 1914. Although the last Pi Phis have lived in its rooms, surely those walls must still hold many happy memories. For this reason a casual observer might have noticed tears in the eyes of some of its last residents as the door closed for the last time and they left for their new home—their "dream come true."

May We Introduce . . .

Introductions are in order from our Settlement School; for since fall three popular new staff members have been serving at the Arrowcraft Shop, the Health Center and the School. It gives us pleasure to present them to you now.

Nurse Brenda Ann Allison—

Miss Brenda Ann Allison, the attractive new nurse at the Health Center, started her work in November and now feels very much a part of the Settlement School.

Miss Allison, a native of Alabama, came to Sevierville in 1954 when her father was transferred to the Douglas Dam. She graduated from Sevier County High School and then entered the University of Tennessee Memorial Research Center and Hospital in 1958. During her nurse's training she earned enough hours to qualify as a Red Cross Nurse.

Since her graduation in 1961 she has worked at the University Hospital and recently served as head nurse in its Nursery. Because of her great interest in working with children, she was particularly attracted to this position at the Settlement School. The Health Center obviously is in very good hands.

Arrowcraft Manager Maria Lou Tate—

Mrs. Hutchins Tate, the new Arrowcraft Shop manager, is a Florida Beta Pi Phi. Mrs. Tate lived in McMinnville, Tennessee, until she went to Tallahassee, Florida to attend Florida State College. Later she studied at Peabody College in Nashville.

She was a charter member of the Nashville Alumnae Club and has already become a member of the Little Pigeon Alumnae Club in Gatlinburg. Her one son is a Navy flyer stationed at Corpus Christi, Texas.

Mrs. Tate has had fine experience in business management and has a deep appreciation of handcrafts. Pi Beta Phi is very fortunate to have such a charming capable person in charge of the Arrowcraft Shop.

Nurse Brenda Allison

Arrowcraft Manager Maria Tate

Music Instructor Glenn Terry—

Glenn Terry of Knoxville, Tennessee came to the Pi Beta Phi School last fall as Instructor of Music. Although he had received his Bachelor of Music degree from the University of Tennessee in June, 1962, he already has had a great deal of experience in band work and has served as choir director, as organist and as accompanist at the University's Opera Workshop.

While at the University he was a member of Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia, professional honorary music fraternity. He also had the honor of performing as soloist when the Knoxville Symphony Orchestra presented a piano concerto he had composed. The Symphony Orchestra has featured a number of his compositions on its programs, including a dance suite on the Honors Program at the University last June.

More recently Mr. Terry has had his own music studio and he promises to be a great asset to the school.

Fort Lauderdale Club

Arranges Library Display

The Broward County Alumnae Club of Fort Lauderdale, Fla., presented a most attractive display of Arrowcraft handwoven articles in the Fort Lauderdale Public Library for the entire month of January.

Photographs of the Arrowcraft Shop, some pictures of weavers at work and the displays at the special exhibit at the Smithsonian Institution in Washington, D.C., last June all helped to tell the story of Arrowcraft and the Pi Beta Phi Settlement School.

Virginia Alpha Scholarship

Applications Due April 1

When fraternities were removed from the Randolph-Macon campus, the members of Virginia Alpha felt the best way they could honor their chapter was to use the interest from their assets for a scholarship to the Summer Craft Workshop.

This is a wonderful opportunity for any undergraduate Pi Phi who is interested in art and crafts.

Application letters should be sent by April 1, to Miss Mary Williams, 2600 Monument Avenue, Richmond, Virginia.

Attention Pi Phi Seniors

The 1963 Craft Workshop has openings for two Graduate Assistants available to graduating seniors who are art majors or minors.

This affords an opportunity to live at the Settlement School for six weeks early this summer. Assistants receive financial reimbursement, free room and board and one free credit course.

Persons interested should write at once to Mrs. Robert R. Russell, Chairman, Settlement School Committee, 6823 Crest Avenue, University City 30, Missouri.

1962 CRAFT WORKSHOP SCENE—Betty Casteel, Albuquerque, N.M. Alumnae Club Craft Scholarship Winner, left, works on pottery bowl under the watchful eye of Barbara McDonald, pottery instructor who will return in 1963, and Emily Burchfield, who is the Pi Beta Phi School Arts and Crafts Instructor.

Anne Guthrie—Compatriot of the Great

by Joan Herrold Wood, Ohio Alpha

Since her Pi Beta Phi days at the University of Denver and Stanford, Anne Guthrie has traveled to more than sixty countries, lived on three continents, been a participant in history-making events and, more recently, become an author.

During her travels Miss Guthrie has made many friends of international importance. One, Madame Vijaya Lakshmi Pandit, is the subject of Miss Guthrie's first book, "Madame Ambassador,"* the biography of the elder daughter of the distinguished Nehru family who became a respected state minister in India, ambassador to other countries and ultimately, president of the Eighth General Assembly of the United Nations.

Miss Guthrie and Madame Pandit have been friends for years. They met when Madame Pandit, the sister of Jawaharlal Nehru, was president of the All-India Women's Conference in 1941.

Miss Guthrie was national executive of the Y.W.C.A.s of India, Burma, and Ceylon. Their paths crossed a number of times during Miss Guthrie's five years in India. They met again in Paris and in New York at sessions of the United Nations General Assembly and in 1956 Mrs. Pandit, then High Commissioner for India in London, invited Miss Guthrie to visit her there.

It was then the idea for the book germinated.

Later, she made two other trips to London to gather material, write and consult. Her final trip was Nov. 23, 1961 when she arrived in time for a reception fourteen British women's organizations gave at the House of Commons to honor Mrs. Pandit. She says:

"It was a most delightful outpouring of friendship, affection and appreciation for they knew she would soon be leaving London. A fortnight I spent at her residence, 9 Kensington Palace Gardens, back in the same room I had occupied before with a warm welcome from the house staff. It almost felt like a homecoming. There were a number of social functions, always with an international group of interesting guests. I remember especially the one to honor Dr. Bhabha, the famous Indian scientist who presided over the first 'Atoms for Peace' gathering in Vienna."

Miss Guthrie was born in San Diego, but grew up in Denver. After graduating from Stanford where the former Pi Beta Phi house was named for her after the university abolished sororities, she taught high school English and mathematics in Escondido and Fullerton, Calif.

During her overseas career, she often was on the spot when exciting things happened. When Continental Secretary of the Y.W.C.A.s in South America, she arrived in Chile on the eve of a revolution. For five years she was Advisor to the Y.W.C.A. of the Philippines.

After World War II she was the first civilian woman to return to the Islands to help rebuild after the invasion and to participate in the Philippines' first Independence Day July 4, 1946. During her years in India, she watched that country struggle for and win independence.

Hazel R. McCuaig, Alberta Alpha's True Friend

by Peggy Molloy, Alberta Alpha

Hazel R. McCuaig

Alberta Alpha is proud to pay tribute to Hazel Rutherford McCuaig, active for thirty-two years in Pi Beta Phi affairs at the University of Alberta, Edmonton, Canada.

Born in Ontario, Hazel moved west with her family, settling in Edmonton in 1895. When Alpha Upsilon sorority, the forerunner of Alberta Alpha, was established at the University of Alberta, she became a patroness and was subsequently pledged and initiated by Amy Burnham Onken at the installation of the chapter in September, 1931. Although this remains the highlight of her fraternity life, other treasured memories include a visit from Margaretta Fenn Putman of Illinois Epsilon in 1930, and the establishment of both the first alumnae club and mothers' club in Edmonton.

Mother of four children, grandmother of ten, Hazel remembers Amy Burnham Onken's second visit to Edmonton in 1942 when daughter Ruth was president of the chapter. Twenty years later, she was delighted to see a granddaughter pledged to Alberta Alpha, and with seven more to go, hopes that the McCuaig family will make further inroads into the fraternity.

One of Hazel's most important contributions to the chapter is her vast compilation of data concerning the five hundred or so initiates of the chapter. Each year, the Edmonton Alumnae Club publishes a newsletter which is sent to chapter members residing all over the world. Such a publication would be impossible without the timely information recorded so systematically in her large scrapbooks.

With her lawyer husband, Hazel has traveled extensively and is today a charming and gracious lady, active in church affairs, in the Women's Canadian Club, of which she is a past president, and in fraternity life.

For her kindness, hospitality and friendship, for her unflinching help and advice in times of crisis, but above all for her constant strength and inspiration, we are humbly grateful. It is our sincere hope that Hazel McCuaig will continue for many more years to be a symbol of all that is "pure, lovely, and of good report" to members of Alberta Alpha.

Anne Guthrie

She has attended the United Nations General Assembly sessions both in New York and in Paris as an accredited representative for the International Alliance of Women and is vice chairman of the Speakers Research Committee for the U.N. She says:

"Sept. 18, 1961 is a day I shall never forget. Quite by chance I heard a disturbing broadcast about—a missing plane, so went over to the U.N.—a few minutes' walk from my apartment, to see what I could find out.

"It was a beautiful day. The ninety-nine flags were flying gaily in the breeze. Since I have a press pass, I went direct to the Press Section.

"There was a strange atmosphere. Everyone was talking in subdued tones. Suddenly over the loud-speaker came the announcement of a press conference at 12:45. Everyone filed down the escalator to Committee Room Four on the lower level where the Secretary General usually met the press.

"It was 12:45. The Under-Secretaries entered and took their usual places at the desk in front, for they always accompanied the S.G. to press conferences. But there was no Secretary General, and the men looked stunned.

"Through my mind went the phrase—'Sheep without a shepherd.' We sat silent while the picture-taking went on as usual. I had wondered if anyone would sit in the center front seat. Mr. Narahimhan of India did. The cameramen gone, he spoke:

"It is my sad duty to announce that as of noon today . . . sometime last night . . . plane has been found . . . the body has been identified. This is a tragic loss for the U.N. and for humanity."

"As I walked home, not a flag was flying. The flag of the U.N. was at half mast. I felt I had lived through an hour of stark tragedy."

Miss Guthrie has lectured on international affairs and the United Nations since 1949 and in all states except Florida and North Dakota, and in Canada.

Thyra Thomson Wins Top State Office

Secretary of State Thomson

Wyoming, known as the first state to give voting privileges to women, elected its first woman secretary of state in November and she is Thyra Godfrey Thomson, Wyoming Alpha Pi Phi. As Secretary of State, Mrs. Thomson is the second ranking administrative officer in Wyoming, since in that state this office is comparable to that of lieutenant governor elsewhere.

The hard-working Mrs. Thomson won her bid for the office in November after an arduous stint of campaigning that began with the quest for the Republican nomination in the summer primary. She estimated she covered 50,000 miles in the effort that began the first of July.

With her during the primary portion of the race were her three sons, Bill, 19, Bruce, 14, and Casey, 10. After the August 21 primary election, the two younger boys returned to Cheyenne to enter school. Bill passed up the fall semester at the University of Wyoming to continue serving as his mother's campaign aide in the general election campaign. Their efforts bore rich fruit, for Mrs. Thomson not only made history in her election, but was second only to Wyoming U. S. Rep. William Henry Harrison in the total number of votes polled by any candidate in the general election.

Thyra Godfrey Thomson, daughter of a mining engineer, was the only girl in a family of seven children. She graduated with honor from the University of Wisconsin and did graduate work at the American University in Washington, D.C. Later she worked at the University of Wyoming in the Department of Economics and Sociology and in the Department of Agricultural Economics.

She married Keith Thomson while he was a law student at the University of Wyoming. While he was serving overseas in World War II she received a citation from the President for her defense work.

Mrs. Thomson played a major role in her husband's political campaigns which led to his election twice as a state representative, three times as a United States Representative and once as a U. S. Senator from Wyoming. The senatorial race was made in 1960 and Mr. Thomson died suddenly of a heart attack before taking office.

After her husband's death, she became National Program Planning Chairman for the National Federation of Republican Women. In this capacity she wrote a monthly program for four thousand clubs and one-half million members and spoke at conventions in such places as Atlantic City, New Jersey, Washington, D.C., Detroit, Michigan, Wausau, Wisconsin, Columbus, Ohio, Chicago and Sun Valley, Idaho. Early in 1962 she resigned as National Program Planning Chairman saying that she would rather contribute whatever she could to government in Wyoming.

It took less than a year for her to find that opportunity and on January 8, 1963 she began her contributory efforts when she formally opened the session of the House of Representatives of the 37th Wyoming state legislature.

A BUSY COMMUNITY CENTER

Holt House, the restored home of Pi Beta Phi's founding, is a busy community center in Monmouth and serves organizations from the surrounding area. In 1962, the house was used 110 times and in 1961, its services were sought 125 times. Organizations such as PEO, DAR, and the New Century Club held meetings there and it is frequently sought for wedding receptions and private parties.

Pi Phis who plan to vacation in the Monmouth area, or those who might have business in that vicinity are urged to visit Holt House and see for themselves its service as a civic center.

Legion Auxiliary Picks Pi Phi for High Office

Laverne Blatchford Davis (Mrs. Richard Earle), who was initiated into West Virginia Alpha chapter of Pi Beta Phi on April 17, 1920, was elected National Vice President of Central Division of the American Legion Auxiliary at its National Convention held in Las Vegas, Nevada, on October 5-11, 1962. This is a culmination of many years of service and work with her local unit. Besides serving in various local committee assignments and as president for two years, Mrs. Davis was named Americanism Chairman for the American Legion Auxiliary, Department of West Virginia. In 1958—she was elected Department Vice President and also served during that time as Rehabilitation Chairman. During her term she made many visits to the Veterans Administration Hospitals in her state and in adjoining states to learn first hand the needs of the hospitalized veteran.

In 1959 she was elected Department President and spent much time assisting with the Gift shops in the V.A. hospitals. At the end of her term Laverne was elected National Executive Committeewoman for the Department and in addition to her duties as committeewoman, she was appointed chairman of Area B. Child Welfare, which, under her leadership, made many new records of achievement.

In 1961 she was named Legislative Chairman for Central Division, and because of her acquaintance with several members of Congress, she did effective work for The American Legion Legislative program. In recognition for her patriotic work in many programs of the state, West Virginia's Governor W. W. Barron named Mrs. Davis as one of the members of the Americanism Committee for West Virginia.

She has been active in the programs of Rhododendron Girls' State and has served as Counselor for several years. She is still a member of its Board of Directors having served as president in 1959-60.

In addition to her work with the American Legion Auxiliary, Laverne has remained active in Pi Phi work as well as civic work.

For Pi Phi she was a member of the group who helped to purchase and finance the chapter house for West Virginia Alpha. She was elected president of the Pi Beta Phi Home Association of West Virginia University, a corporation which she and others formed when the chapter house was purchased. She continued in that office until the loan on the home was paid off and discharged. She still takes an active interest in the affairs of Pi Beta Phi and is an active member of the West Virginia Alpha Alumnae Club in Morgantown.

In the community Mrs. Davis is an active member of the Wesley Methodist Church, a sustaining member of the Morgantown Service League, serving for many years as its treasurer, past president and past life membership chairman of the Women's Auxiliary of the Monogalia General Hospital, and a member of the Eastern Star, Ladies of the 32nd Degree Scottish Rite Masons, and the Ladies of Knights Templar.

She has been active in youth movements and has been militant in the fight against pornographic literature. As a member of the State Committee on Mental Health she has participated in mental health programs of her community and state.

Holding a B.S. Degree in Home Economics from the University of West Virginia, Mrs. Davis is the annual donor of a scholarship award to the student attaining the highest scholastic average during her four years of study in home economics at West Virginia University.

An attorney and former Judge of the Domestic Relations Court, her husband, Mr. Davis, is a member of Beta Theta Pi and is one of the founders of the American Legion in which he has held many offices from Post Commander to three terms as Department Judge Advocate. He and Mrs. Davis have worked as a team for many years in advancing the cause of The American Legion and the American Legion Auxiliary.

Devoted Pittsburgh Club Leader Retires

Marie Bunnell Davidson, Montana Alpha, is retiring this year as Chairman of the Pittsburgh Alumnae Club Settlement School Committee. She has been associated with this committee in various capacities for the last eighteen years, serving as chairman for ten years. The club under her direction won the "Little Pigeon Award" in 1959 and has been consistently high in gross sales of Arrowcraft over this entire period.

Her devotion to Pi Beta Phi and her genuine appreciation of the beautiful articles from Gatlinburg have won her many devoted friends and Arrowcraft Shop hundreds of loyal customers. Through her interest and personal contacts, she has built up a solid backlog and made Arrowcraft a common word among her many customers.

Her family Pi Phi registry is a record in itself. Marie, a charter member of Montana Alpha, is the mother of two Pi Phi daughters, Jane Davidson Schultz (Mrs. R. O.), Ohio Zeta, and Ester Lee Davidson Engstrom (Mrs. G. A.), Montana Alpha. She also claims in her Pi Phi family two nieces, Barbara Ann Bunnell Gustofson (Mrs. Blaine) and Carol Ann Peterson, both Montana Alphas, and one relative by marriage, Helen Talcott Currier (Mrs. Arthur), Montana Alpha.

Dr. Paul Davidson is a Sigma Chi (Montana State College) and a recently retired Research Fellow for Strathmore Paper Co. at Mellon Institute. For many years, Dr. Davidson has been actively engaged in fraternity work as advisor to the Sigma Chi chapter at the University of Pittsburgh. Because of Dr. Davidson's loyal co-operation and interest in Pi Beta Phi, Marie has had a wonderful helping hand through the years. Dr. Davidson's family should be noted for their contributions to our Pi Phi family tree. His mother, Mrs. W. S. Davidson, was for many years a patroness for a local sorority at Montana State College before it became a chapter of Alpha Omicron Pi and was initiated into the sorority several years before her death. Mrs. J. M. Hamilton, a sister of Mrs. W. S. Davidson's, was one of the original patronesses for the Phi Gamma local, which later was installed as a chapter of Pi Beta Phi. She was initiated into Pi Beta Phi by the Montana Alpha chapter. At eighty-nine, she is still actively interested in Pi Phi Chi.

A home economics major who taught for a while, Marie worked for Southern Cotton Oil Company and often had to "pack a gun" while traveling in the Southeast doing demonstration work for the company. For two years before her marriage, she and Mildred O'Haner Bell, a Theta, owned and operated the As You Like It tea room in Lexington, Kentucky.

Since her marriage Marie has remained active in the fields of her special interests. Her particular pride is the beautiful 12' x 15' oval braided rug which she has made over a period of years and in which she can identify each individual rag. In addition to braiding, working in Pi Phi and her own personal "Cracker Club," and gardening, Marie is active in the Women's Association of the University of Pittsburgh and Mellon Institute social activities. She is a member of P.E.O. Sisterhood and is presently serving as President of Pennsylvania Chapter F.

It is an impossibility for the Pittsburgh Club to honor Marie in like measure to the love and esteem in which all its members hold her, but they wanted all Pi Phis to know about her!

NEW LOOK FOR HOLT HOUSE

Holt House is beginning to have a "new look" designed to make it look as it might have when Pi Beta Phi's founders met in its rooms and still make it practical and attractive for its present day uses. The kitchen was remodeled in the 1963 style rather than that popular in 1867.

Under the guidance of a decorator the committee made a recent decision to give first attention to the entrance hall, the pine room (informal living room) and the dining room. These rooms will be repapered and new curtains will be hung. It is hoped the project can be completed in 1963. Paper and materials reminiscent of the era of the 1860's have been chosen for the redecoration.

University's Outstanding Junior Woman

by Barbara Andrews, Iowa Zeta

Nineteen-year old Nancy Files stepped to the platform, shook the hand of the speaker, and said, "I feel so silly!" She had just been announced the Outstanding Junior Girl at the University of Iowa. The occasion was the Mother's Day Banquet of 1962.

Nancy, a senior in education at Iowa, has spent four years learning to accept honors and responsibilities. As a freshman, she was the pledge class president of Pi Beta Phi. She served on the Junior Panhellenic Council, and she was a member of the Seals swim club. Finding early in her college career the rewards that come from putting the most into everything that she does, Nancy was selected as the outstanding pledge among twenty-four girls. Based on grades, activities, and general popularity among her sorority sisters, the award was only the first of many Nancy would receive.

Nancy

As a sophomore Nancy returned to Iowa with the same pep and enthusiasm. Again she was selected for the Seals swim club. She also worked on the school's Union Board and was a member of the Associated Women Students' General Council. The Panhellenic Council elected Nancy to a seat on the Student Senate. She served also as historian and assistant treasurer of Pi Beta Phi.

In her junior year Nancy no longer needed to apply or volunteer for positions. So widely were her abilities known that she was selected as Chairman of the Central Judiciary Committee for the University. It is in this capacity that she perhaps best exhibited her full talents. The position is one that required both determination to carry out the many rules governing women students and the ability to keep friends while doing it. As those who know Nancy will testify, she is quite agile in both areas.

In the Panhellenic Council which she served her first two years, Nancy was elected president by a unanimous vote. This position is elected by members of all sororities at the University, and it is one commanding the greatest respect by her fellow students.

The list goes on as every day passes in Nancy's story. Along with the heading of the Judiciary Council and Panhellenic, Nancy was Associated Women Students' State Day Chairman, Pi Beta Phi's treasurer, and secretary-elect of the senior class. Nancy was also elected vice president of Seals.

Nancy is a uniquely talented girl and one whose talents have been generously recognized. In April of 1962 she was tapped for membership in Mortar Board, a group which selects its members on the basis of academic achievement and activities. She was the only junior girl to receive the Penningroth Award, a memorial award given by the President of the University to girls and boys contributing the most to the university in the way of scholarship and activities.

As the honors Nancy has received so well indicate, she is not too absorbed in outside activities to remember why she is in school. A secondary education major in French, Nancy is in the French Honors Program and has a grade point average of 3.44. One semester she was convinced that there was an error—so modest she is—that the 4.0 appearing on her record seemed impossible!

To some the selection as Outstanding Junior Girl would be the culmination of a rewarding three years at college. Two things make this much more than a culmination for Nancy.

First, Nancy is preceded by two sisters who set an example for her. Sally, an Iowa graduate in 1958, was a member of Pi Beta Phi and the president of Seals swim club. She also was elected to Phi Beta Kappa. Winnie was the president of Mortar Board and also president of Pi Beta Phi.

More important is the part her college days play in her plans for the future. "My greatest reward will be the application of my education," she says. Nancy is undecided at the present as to whether she will use her study of languages in the Diplomatic Service before she teaches or whether she will go on to graduate school.

If Nancy Files is a legend among her friends and classmates, she is one that others make. Perhaps the most amazing part of her personality is a modesty that few can claim. Her remark on receiving the award as Outstanding Junior is so very typically Nancy that few noticed it. To list the qualities that make her loved as well as respected would be only to make her story seem trite and perhaps even more incredible. Nancy is the girl who is never too busy, always willing to hear the latest news, and forever lending a hand. She is so sincerely truthful that her classmates can easily turn to her with their problems. On her achievements she says most earnestly:

"Sure, I've had a lot of honors. But when I look at the others who can speak so well in public, who are so much more qualified than I, it seriously makes me wonder what people are thinking of!"

Manitoba Alpha Majors in Accomplishment

by Gail Moffatt, Manitoba A

People often speak of "the girl who has everything." This is truly apt in the case of Manitoba Alpha's Heather Henderson who excels in scholarship, leadership and activities and who has won her share of beauty honors.

This outstanding young woman who majors in outstanding accomplishment excels in scholarship. A second year Law student and fourth year Arts student, she stands at the top of her class. She is one of the few persons at the University of Manitoba working toward two degrees at the same time. One of two women in her Law class, she entirely crushed the male ego last year by standing first. For her efforts she received the Gamma Phi Beta-Dr. Leola Niel Scholarship presented to the sorority girl who obtains the highest scholarship in a Western Canadian university.

Heather's busy schedule of activities at the University for the past four years has included serving as choreographer and director of the ice show for the Winter Carnival, as University Social Chairman and as Drives Chairman.

Her talents are varied and her proficiency as a figure skater has brought her both Canadian and American gold medals. She has been recognized as an outstanding public speaker and was a finalist in city-wide competition in this field. Her talent also includes writing ability with poetry as her major interest. In her spare time Heather enjoys playing the piano.

In her freshman year Heather was selected as freshman queen for the faculty of Commerce. She was later chosen Sweetheart of Tau Kappa Epsilon. In the international competition she was given the honor of being June Calendar Girl.

Pi Beta Phi has been the recipient of the gifts of Heather's enthusiasm and versatility. She is Manitoba Alpha president this year and has previously served her chapter as pledge class social chairman and as recording secretary. The chapter is doubly blessed with Henderson leadership, for under the guidance of Heather's mother, the Mother's Club has had one of its most active years.

Sondra is president of the YWCA at Iowa State and is chairman of the sister-program for People-to-People, foreign student organization. She has also served as secretary to the student body government's president and is Iowa Gamma pledge supervisor this year.

A Quartet of Queens

Events have had a regal tone for Ontario Beta Chapter of Pi Beta Phi in the past year. That chapter has had the unusual distinction of counting four major campus queens among its membership.

Peggy Richardson led the way last February when she was elected Queen of Arts and Science, the most coveted title on the University of Western Ontario campus. Peggy was chosen from ten candidates by a poll of approximately 6,500 students.

The following month, Libby McAskile, was the winner among five candidates for the title of Delta Upsilon Darling in a vote of that fraternity.

The third title was brought home by Carolyn Hogg, who was named Huron Ball Queen from a slate of six candidates by the students of Huron College. This is a subsidiary college of the University and the queen honor ranks second only to that of Arts and Science Queen.

The quartet of queens was rounded out in December, 1962, when Sally Young was chosen Interfraternity Queen from candidates representing the eight fraternities on the Western Campus.

AT UNIVERSITY OF MANITOBA—Carole Bourrier, Manitoba Alpha, is serving this year as President of Wakonda, the women's association to which every woman at the University belongs.

AT INDIANA UNIVERSITY—Marty McKeehan, Indiana Beta, toured Europe with the School Band of America in 1962. A solo flutist with the Indiana University Symphonic Band, she attended the National College Bandmasters' Association in Chicago while premiering "Prisms" by Morton Gould.

Pi Phi Duo Tops in Their Classes

by Ellen Plummer, Ohio Zeta

The members of Ohio Zeta watched proudly as Pi Phi's Pat Fritzlen and Anne Wiseman received the President's Awards for the most outstanding senior and junior woman respectively. This high honor is bestowed by the university to a woman who in the opinion of the Board of Trustees of Miami University, Oxford, Ohio, and the President has served her school best.

Both Pat and Anne have outstanding records of service to both their school and to Pi Beta Phi.

Not many women can serve as president of two pledge classes! But Pat Fritzlen served as president of both her pledge classes at Northwestern University and at Miami.

She was elected by the women of her hall to serve as secretary of her freshman hall and later was elected by her hall to be a member of the May Day Court.

Pat was elected President of SPURS, a service organization for junior women. Serving as both a member of Student Senate and Associated Women Students' Council, she worked with administration and students. During her four years at Miami Pat was elected to many honoraries. She served as President of Mortar Board during her senior year. She was Vice-president of Alethenoi, an English honorary and a member of Les Politics and Kappa Delta, education honorary. During her senior year Pat was elected to Phi Beta Kappa and received an undergraduate fellowship in English.

Anne Wiseman combines both charm and efficiency. She was selected to serve as a counselor during her sophomore year. The ladies of Miami University elected Anne to be secretary of Associated Women Students during her sophomore and junior years, and president her senior year. Anne was elected to Mortar Board as a climax to her junior year.

The members of the home economics department selected Anne to be an undergraduate fellow in the home economics department this year. She is a member of Kappa Delta Pi, education honorary and active in the Home Economics Club.

Anne plays an active role in bringing the feelings and trends of women on campus to the attention of the administration when a group of campus leaders meets periodically with President John D. Millet and members of the Board of Trustees. She is also active on Student Senate.

Both Anne and Pat have served as Vice-president of Pi Beta Phi. They are truly deserving of the honor of outstanding junior and senior women.

Pair of Outstanding Seniors Praised

by Kathryn Kuhn, Pennsylvania Gamma

Two Pennsylvania Gamma seniors at Dickinson College have shown through their outstanding leadership, high aims, and warm personalities the true character of Pi Beta Phi.

Carol Lindstrom, the president of Pennsylvania Gamma, has had many opportunities to assist her school and chapter. As a member of the Student-Faculty Judiciary Committee, she has worked closely with significant issues on campus which require combined co-operation and use of tact. She has also contributed to student representation through her active participation in student elections as co-chairman of one of the two school parties.

Much of Carol's ability has been focused on the women's government. As a member of Wheel and Chain, the senior women's honorary equivalent to Mortar Board, she has assisted in the organization of the revised freshmen orientation program and numerous other campus activities. She also holds the position of vice president of President's Council, the co-ordinating body of the dormitories.

Carol has been a consistent Dean's List student during her four years of college. Academically interested in Spanish and political science, she hopes to teach at the secondary school level after graduation.

Equally deserving with Carol in recognition as an outstanding Pennsylvania Gamma and fellow member of Wheel and Chain is Kathryn Linduff. Kathy has found her abilities utilized in areas quite different from those of Carol.

Kathy, the vice president of Pennsylvania Gamma, was a freshman counselor during her junior year. The experience she gained through making crucial judgments has led her to serve actively on the Panhellenic Council. She is now acting as president of the organization after having served as secretary-treasurer last year.

Swimming and singing are two personal interests of Kathy's which have given her both pleasure and the opportunity to contribute leadership to the organizations involved. She has directed routines in Aquacade, Dickinson's synchronized swimming group, and has given much to the choral society on campus.

Kathy's avid interest in the field of Fine Arts has primarily occupied her academic study. She was largely responsible for the expansion of the curriculum to offer an official major in that area. She will be one of the first two students upon graduation to receive an A.B. in Fine Arts. Kathy hopes to apply her studies to museum work after completing a secretarial course at the Katharine Gibbs Business School.

Double Barrels Turned on Campus Activities

by Mimsi Sass, D.C. A

D.C. Alpha has double barrels turned on campus activities at George Washington University with its two outstanding seniors, Sharon Glenn and Suzanne Ritter. Between them, Sharon and Suzanne, who were pledge sisters, hold ten of the major campus offices. Both are listed in Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities for 1963.

Sharon is vice president of Mortar Board, editor of the yearbook, Junior Advisor to freshman students, member of Pi Delta Epsilon journalism honorary, Alpha Theta Nu scholarship honorary, a student member of the faculty-student Publications Committee, and secretary of Delphi, sorority women's honorary. She was named the outstanding senior woman in student activities by the Big Sis Board. She has also served as vice president of the Big Sis Board; President of Tassels, sophomore women's honorary; member of the Newman Club, and staff member of the Student Handbook for Freshmen. Sharon is the holder of three scholarships at the University.

Suzanne keeps school spirit high in her capacity as co-captain of the cheerleaders. She is also president of Delphi, and Greek editor of the yearbook. She was named the outstanding senior woman in school spirit by the Big Sis Board. She has also been costume manager of Dance Productions and a staff member of the Student Handbook, Summer Carnival, Hockey Club, and Colonial Cruise.

Sharon

Both have been quite active in their service to Pi Phi. Suzanne is president of D.C. Alpha, having succeeded Sharon in that office. Sharon has also been a censor, scholarship chairman, and assistant treasurer. Suzanne has held most of the major offices in the chapter, including rush captain, pledge trainer, social chairman, and standards chairman. She was also the Outstanding Initiate of 1960.

Homecoming Queen Barbie

by Nancy Reynolds, Washington A

On the University of Washington campus the most prized queen contest is that of Homecoming Queen. This year Washington Alpha Pi Phi, Barbara Clanton, carried away that prize from a group of nearly fifty contestants. The queen is chosen for beauty, poise, personality, conversational ability, and charm-qualities of which Barbie has an abundance. This she proved by shining out as best during three hours of interviewing.

What is it like to be the Homecoming Queen? Well, Barbie could never have guessed. In addition to presiding at half-time activities the day of the Homecoming game, she spent several weeks attending radio and television interviews, banquets, dinners in her honor, a rally with the football team and the Homecoming Dance. During this time she had a new white car for her personal use. Barbie was also "called on the carpet" by the Homecoming Committee for not ordering flowers for her every appearance.

When she told them she had received several corsages which she could use, they told her that regardless she should let them know the color of her outfit for each occasion because flowers were supposed to be sent. "So," Barbie says, "I ordered!"

Barbie has always been an on-the-go girl. She spent a quarter studying in Mexico City, and last summer she worked in

New York on a Hudson River social work ship. When questioned as to how her family likes her traveling so much, she replies, "My father says he doesn't know what he ever did to deserve me, especially when I came home 'in the hole' last summer; but it was a wonderful experience just the same. That's what I keep telling them, anyway."

As a loyal Pi Phi, Barbie is serving the chapter as Pledge Trainer, giving a lovely example for all pledges. She also serves the campus as vice president of "Husky Honeys," an honorary hostess group for the University.

That Barbie is a worthy queen shows in what she said as quoted by the newspapers upon her selection as queen—"I have never been so honored or so humble."

The Washington Alpha chapter will remember Barbara Clanton as a truly regal queen.

ALPHA PROVINCE

*MAINE ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF MAINE. Chartered, 1920. Pledge Day, December 9, 1962. INITIATED, January 6, 1963: Geraldine Adams, Newport; Jacqueline Gauthier, Fairfield, Conn.

The Pi Beta Phis opened their fall semester at a nearby lake. All the Maine As had great fun eating, relating stories of their summer experiences, singing, and waterskiing.

Women's fraternity rushing began on November 4 with informal open houses. All freshmen and transfer students who were interested were invited to all chapter rooms. Actual rushing parties began early in November with the theme THE ROARING TWENTIES predominating. Rushing activities were climaxed by a bowpinning supper sponsored by the Eastern Maine Alumnae Club.

Sandy Moores and Suzanne Young were both candidates for Honorary Lieutenant Colonel at the annual Military Ball which was held in January this year. Barbara Rider was also a Calico Queen candidate for the Farmer's Fair.

Christmas season on the Maine campus was highlighted by the parties held by the men's and women's fraternities for the many orphans in the area. Pi Beta Phi and Φ Γ Δ entertained Saint Michael's Orphanage from Bangor.

On the Sunday evening before classes ended all the senior girls on campus joined together to sing carols in a candlelight procession throughout the women's dormitories.

PLEGGED: Sally Allen, Linda Barstow, Nancy Fox, Skowhegan; Geraldine Bachelard, Cape Elizabeth; Barbara Bickmore, Kittery; Linda Breed, Attleboro Falls, Mass.; Barbara Bristol, North Attleboro, Mass.; Ann Eddy, Bathurst, N.B.; Canada; Audrey Finnegan, Bangor; Kathryn Gould, Lisbon Falls; Mary McDonald, Burnt Hills, N.Y.; Donna Robertson, Peekskill, N.Y.; Jane Wareing, Old Town; Susanne Whitaker, Portsmouth, N.H.; Joan Wilkinson, Linda Cate, Reading, Mass.; Suzanne Young, Bar Harbor.

MARCIA FULLER

NOVA SCOTIA ALPHA—DALHOUSIE UNIVERSITY. Chartered, 1934. Pledge Day, Feb. 5, 1963. INITIATED, October 28, 1962: Janet Davison, Elinor Dunsworth, Peggy Mahon, Halifax, Judith Estabrook, St. John, N. B.

The first term for Nova Scotia A has proved to be as active and fun-filled as ever before. One of our rather recurrent problems, has been that of finding adequate facilities in which to hold our meetings and functions. This fall, however, we were able to obtain a suitable place for the 1962-63 year.

In November, we enjoyed the visit of Grand Vice President, Mrs. Dix. Her words of advice and encouragement have proved most beneficial. The enthusiasm, sparked by Convention, of Carol Quigly and Virginia LeQueene, in their talks on "Convention Night," and "Settlement School Night," has added to the spirit and future plans of actives and pledges alike.

Our congratulations go to Barbara Reardon, who was crowned Queen of the Law Society. The Interfraternity Ball was held in November, and a number of interfraternity parties were held, with more planned for next term.

With much of the ground work laid, Nova Scotia A is anticipating an activity-filled spring term.

MARGARET HORNE

*VERMONT ALPHA—MIDDLEBURY COLLEGE. Chartered, 1893. Pledge Day, February 17, 1963.

This semester began with the excitement of hearing about Convention from President Pat Moore and Susan Hanson. Discussion of the action taken there and the problems brought up was valuable for us all, whether we agreed or disagreed with the decisions made.

Our contact with national was strengthened when Grand Vice President Helen Dix spent a weekend with us during October. We enjoyed a dessert with her and our local alumnae, and she shared in our problem of financing a special fall project. She was certainly a welcome visitor to entertain and come to know.

After a successful program last year in which we presented the film "Operation Abolition," the chapter decided to repeat this type of project. Dr. Eduardo Mondlane, head of the nationalist movement in Mozambique, very dynamically acquainted the campus with the problems of African colonialization and drive for independence. The speech was preceded by dinner in the rooms with faculty members who have a particular interest in Africa, and with visiting African students in the area. A raffle and baby-sitting pool have helped to finance the program.

The annual Pi Beta Phi-Kappa Kappa Gamma debate was a highly entertaining success this year, despite the fact that the independent women granted the victory to our challengers.

A Christmas party with the faculty, and a dessert with KDR were highlighted by our own version of the College Bowl. Again Pi Beta Phi graciously conceded defeat to our guests, but we had spent two very enjoyable evenings. Christmas was also celebrated with Θ X, who invited us to help with their party for the town children.

Besides rush preparation and open houses, the sororities have been discussing the role they play at Middlebury and the improvements and changes which could make this an even better system. The importance of Panhellenic concern and action has been increasingly stressed.

Ann Wadsworth was co-chairman of the very successful Religion Conference which dealt with "Changing Ethics in American Society," and Pat Moore is treasurer of Middlebury's Conference, this year dealing with modern art, to be held in the spring. Beth Douthy is the dedicated editor of the 1963 yearbook, Kaleidoscope, while Barb Bailey and Barb Dickey head the French and Canterbury clubs, respectively.

January has meant enthusiasm for rush which begins in February, and anticipation of Winter Carnival which is now reaching the final stages of preparation.

KAREN PAULLIN

*VERMONT BETA—UNIVERSITY OF VERMONT. Chartered, November 24, 1898. Pledge Day, February 10, 1963.

After busy and exciting Christmas vacations, all the Pi Beta Phis are back and beginning to study for examinations. The bright hope of rushing, which begins on January 28, carries us through these long days. To welcome us back we found newly painted living and dining rooms in our Chapter House. A redecorating campaign is in full swing with exciting changes to be made during the next year.

The University of Vermont has opened its new Patrick Gymnasium Gutterhouse Field House, and Forbush Natatorium. After opening ceremonies held on December 11, the recreation facilities for indoor ice skating and swimming were open to the University students and general public.

After the Middlebury—University of Vermont Football Game, an open house with Σ A E was held in their new addition. The Pi Beta Phi from Middlebury and their dates joined the Vermont

Betas for a "Simple Supper" at our House.

The chapter's annual Hernando's Hideaway Spaghetti Dinner was held on November 18. The proceeds went to aid the Settlement School. To honor our alumnae and their husbands who have done so much for our chapter, we invited many of them for one sitting at dinner. During dessert, the actives, all in red-checked shirts, serenaded the guests with fraternity songs and a few old favorites.

The Pi Beta Phi is continually enjoying the company of Mrs. Duke, our housemother. After our Christmas caroling she graciously served us cocoa and delicious homemade cookies.

BEVERLY JEAN HUME

MASSACHUSETTS ALPHA—BOSTON UNIVERSITY. Chartered, March 7, 1896. Pledge Day, October 29, 1962.

This past term at Boston University has kept the sisters of Massachusetts A busier than ever. Homecoming Weekend held from November 2 to 5 was an exciting time. Friday, November 2, was the evening of the Homecoming Ball. Sharon Pross, vice president, was honored by becoming a member of the Queen's Court. Saturday, during the football game with West Point, it was announced that Pi Beta Phi had won first prize in the sorority division of the float parade. The theme was "I B.U. Take Thee Army" and the chairman for this float was Liz Geiger. December 3 to 9 was the annual sorority-fraternity Greek Week. The sisters especially enjoyed participating in the Variety Show during this week in a skit entitled "Forecast Frolic" of which Karen Anselmi and Sonia Mills were co-chairman. Friday, December 7, was the evening of the Greek Ball during which time the president of Massachusetts A was Greek Queen candidate.

Two sisters and a pledge, Priscilla Beaton, Liz McNeill, and Polly Kuzal, recently were pledged the Sisters of Minerva in $\Sigma A E$. We are also very pleased to welcome again one of these sisters who is a new affiliate from California B, Liz McNeill. A coffee hour was held with $\Sigma A E$ which turned out to be very successful.

Former Grand Vice President, Mrs. Anna Robinson Nickerson, honored our chapter with a visit this fall during which time she gave her pin to the chapter. This pin will be given to a different active each month who is voted by the chapter to be the "sister of the month."

Three new Pi Beta Phi brothers were presented with their pins recently, and they are Charles Beach, John Field, and Jack Stella. Also, our housemother's pin was given to Mrs. Ann Le Moine for her warmth and understanding. A joint pledge-active Christmas party was held in December 17. Each member donated money to a Boston charity, money that would normally be spent on exchanging personal gifts. The pledges held a tea for all pledge classes on campus which proved to be very rewarding.

PLEGDED: Jacqueline Baer, Rye, N.Y.; Patricia Clayton, Highland Park, N.J.; Sandy Lee Knotek, Allentown, Pa.; Mary Lynn Lewis, Summit, N.J.; Cynthia Miller, Brookline; Roberts Schorrod, North Baldwin, Long Island, N.Y.; Christina Slomkowski, Wollaston; Diane Wharen, Wellesley Hills.

MASSACHUSETTS BETA—UNIVERSITY OF MASSACHUSETTS. Chartered, 1944. Pledge Day, December 3, 1962.

INITIATED, September 30, 1962: Lucille Francescon, Lakeville; Patricia Hall, Springfield; Gail Benvie, Worcester; Meredith Halstead, Gloucester; Sharon Hanahan, West Medford; Diana Mick, Belmont; Gretchen Nelson, East Brookfield; Kathleen Osterberg, Sturbridge; Judith Seddon, Winchester; Patricia Simmons, Donna Titus, Plainville.

Massachusetts B has been enjoying a very busy and profitable year. At the Panhellenic Scholarship Tea held in December it was announced that Pi Beta Phi had placed second highest in the accumulative average for the 1961-1962 school year. Patricia Gully was initiated into $\Delta A \Delta$, the Freshman Woman's Honor Society. Carol McDonough was elected to $\Phi K \Phi$. Also four seniors were chosen to be in Who's Who in American Colleges. They are Patricia Chase, Roberta Hanna, Carol McDonough, and Barbara Viera.

At the end of October the Pi Beta Phi were pleased to have the new Grand Vice President, Mrs. Dix, visit the chapter. Everyone enjoyed meeting her and felt her visit to be a very profitable one.

Homecoming was held October 12-13. The Pi Beta Phi had a great deal of fun working on their float which won first place. It was a depiction of Noah's Ark, entitled "Centennial Flood," this being the centennial year of the university. Gail Benvie was in the Queen's Court during this weekend.

During United Nations Week the Inter-Fraternity and Panhellenic Councils combined efforts in a carnival, the profits from which went to UNESCO. Prizes were awarded to the best booths at the carnival with Pi Beta Phi placing second.

The rush parties this fall were very successful, due mainly to the efforts of Sue Lemans, the membership chairman; and the Pi Beta Phi welcomed twenty-three new pledges on December 5.

During the Christmas season Massachusetts B and $T E \Phi$ had a party for underprivileged children who were presented with many wonderful toys and presents.

PLEGDED: Ruth Owen, Amherst; Karen Ploeger, Brookline; Maureen Richardson, West Springfield; Pamela Brady, Ann Walsh, Natick; Elizabeth Hallberg, Elizabeth Shelley, Westfield; Roberta Rayfield, Cohasset; Geraldine Tomasselli, Methuen; Patricia Vernell, Shutesbury; Julie Alger, Holliston; Donna Bangs, Susan Morris, Pittsfield; Janice Cieplik, Greenfield; Carol Gennari, West Stockbridge; Mary Ann Kuczynski, Springfield; Beatrice Shafer, South Dennis; Marion Smith, North Attleboro; Carol St. Aubin, North

Eastham; Bonnie Stokes, Medway; Betsy Thorin, Springfield; Kathryn Watson, Palmer; Michele Wyatt, South Dartmouth.

JO-ANNE VEALE

CONNECTICUT ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF CONNECTICUT. Chartered, April 10, 1943. Pledge Day, October 2, 1962.

Connecticut A's Winter Semester was highlighted by successful Arrowcraft and Settlement School Sales. The chapter held a Settlement School Banquet complete with skit and corn bread. Joint meetings were held with alumnae clubs from New Haven and Manchester. Miss Joan McCall, Panhellenic Advisor, held an all sorority convocation to discuss the Greek system and its ideals and accomplishments on the University of Connecticut Campus. During Christmas Week the Greeks on campus held parties for underprivileged youngsters from surrounding areas. Connecticut A, in addition, held a party for students in Lynda Hazen's special education class. An annual Christmas party, a winter formal, and a social with $\Delta \Sigma \Phi$ were also held to culminate the semester's work and fun.

Connecticut A is extremely proud of its campus leaders: Betsy Caye is secretary of the junior class; Sharon Germaine is secretary of the sophomore class, and Marge Barrie is president of Panhellenic; Fran Dineen is president of the Newman Club; Cindy Moore, president of Tassels; Grace Miner, president of the 4-H Club; Elizabeth Regan serves as administrative director of the radio station and Peggy Karbovanec is copy editor of the Connecticut Daily Campus.

Joan Austin and Linda Michelen were elected to $\Phi K \Phi$ and Judy Cutler and Mary Powell to $K \Delta \Pi$. Marge Barrie represented Connecticut A as the 1962 Homecoming Queen and Patricia Taylor as $\Sigma \Phi E$ Pledge Princess.

PLEGDED: Linda Anderson, Washington; Patricia Bartolan, Foxon; Ellen Closs, Lyons, N.Y.; Peggy Coonley, Syracuse, N.Y.; Nancy Holderman, White Plains, N.Y.; Nancy McFarland, Manchester; Jane Meister, Arlington, Va.; Rosalie Mondani, Chester; Claire Nichols, Hamden; Anita Palermo, East Patchogue, N.Y.; Barbara Picerne, Cranston, R.I.; Linda Roberts, Bristol; Edwina Reburn, W. Hartford; Claire Smith, Ballston Spa, N.Y.; Patricia Sullivan, Glastonbury; Patricia Taylor, Bethel; Donna Yacobucci, Bloomfield.

BETSY ANN JONES

BETA PROVINCE

NEW YORK ALPHA—SYRACUSE UNIVERSITY. Chartered, April 28, 1896. Pledge Day, February 20, 1962. INITIATED, April 26, 1962: Pam Cobb, Linda Temple, Syracuse; Toni Patti, Vestal;

Nancy Barrett, Mamaroneck; Bonnie Burns, Orchard Park; Bonnie Cocheran, Erie, Pa.; Sylvia Dodson, St. Johnsville; Colette Glenn, Sidney; Kathy Jeffe, East Aurora; Lynne Maylone, Upper Montclair, N.J.; Ellen Mayne, Hudson; Karen Palmer, Gladwyne, Pa.; Anne Pokel, West Caldwell, N.J.; Nancy Preston, Northville; Susan Quinlin, New Britain, Pa.; Sue Shine, Pittsburgh, Pa.; Linda Scott, Morristown, N.J.; Brenda Snyder, Jamestown; Margaret Steele, Nyack; Sally White, Yarley, Pa.; Dorothy Roefs, Lynbrook.

INITIATED, October 5, 1962: Sandra LaVigne, Ogdensburg; Lana Merchant, Deposit; Rosemary Pires, Norton, Mass.; Charlene Steubing, Rochester, Lee Shultes, Camillus.

This year we were very happy to see a large number of Pi Beta Phi sisters helping to orient the freshmen. Sue Shine, Sue Quinlin, Margaret Steele, and Sylvia Dodson were chosen for Goon Squad, quite an honor for sophomores and Bobbie Clark, Kathie Rothwell, Ellen Mayne, Joyce Hergenhan, Judy Schoenborn, Diane Decker, Nancy Fuller and Sue Shafer were AWS guides. Waine MacAllister and Sally White worked as Panhellenic Councilors and Kate Antony was appointed advisor to the class executive council.

Joyce Hergenhan received recognition for her journalistic talents by being appointed editorial director of the Daily Orange. She was tapped last spring for Eta Pi Upsilon, senior woman's honorary, and is now serving on the senior class exec council.

Academically we were all proud to see Barbara McElroy chosen for $\Phi K \Phi$ and wish her continued success.

Joint Student Government had its share of Pi Beta Phi this year. Beverly Lewis is activities coordinator and Kate Antony is elections commissioner. Sue Shafer is serving as secretary to the Government Structures Committee in the Legislature and Anne Pokel, Charlene Steubing and Pam Cobb were elected senators. Bev Lewis and Kate Antony were our reps and the annual Pinebook Conference.

It was a great day for us when Sue Quinlin was tapped for Traditions Commission. Among her other activities Sue is coordinating of Day Hall and centers many other activities around WAER, the campus radio station.

The Panhellenic Ball was a great success this year with many Pi Beta Phi Heading committees. Kate Antony was over-all chairman with Margaret Steele, Pam Cobb, Ann Shepard, Bonney Cocheran, and Lee Schultes serving as committee heads.

We have spent most of the semester getting ready for rush and are anxiously awaiting our new pledges.

KATE ANTONY

NEW YORK GAMMA—ST. LAWRENCE UNIVERSITY. Chartered, 1914. Pledge Day, February 10, 1963.

The holiday season was celebrated at New York T with a Christmas party, at which an unidentified member presided as Santa Claus. She passed out surprise gifts to the other members and then revealed her identity.

The chapter has gained new scholastic honors. Peggy LaRock was elected to ΨX , the national Psychology honorary. Sheila Kain and Kathy Moore were chosen for membership in Irving Bacheller, English honorary. Nancy Ludwig was elected to II M E, the math honorary. Scotty Babcock, Sherric Buell, Nancy Ludwig, and Kathy Moore were named to the Dean's List for the fall term of 1962. Carol Lee Eckhardt, Betty Harper and Diane Lapham were named on the Sophomore Honor List which includes those sophomores who attained a B average during their freshman year.

Sandy Besseghini was elected secretary treasurer of II Σ A, the government honorary. Scotty Babcock was elected vice president and Ann Pfeifer secretary of Ψ X.

Jane Petrie had a supporting role in the dramatic club's production, "Life With Father." Kathy Moore was the Virgin Mother in the Christmas Pageant.

Diana Lewis is the chapter's candidate for the Military Ball Queen.

PLEGDED, October 26, 1962: Nancy Hall, Staten Island.

MARGARET LAROCK

*NEW YORK DELTA—CORNELL UNIVERSITY, Chartered, 1919. Pledge Day, February 11, 1962.

The first big event of the semester for New York Δ was the banquet given in honor of the new initiates. The banquet was followed by singing, humorous speeches, and the presentation of the pledge history. In October, Mrs. O'Donnell, Beta Province President, arrived for a three day visit. Guests were invited to a Sunday morning coffee hour in her honor, and near the end of the visit, the chapter enjoyed the fellowship of a cooky-shine. The Monmouth Duo, the annual formal dance with K K Γ, was given in November. A band played for the dancing, and the Pi Beta Phi "Hi-Fis" and the K K Γ "Keynotes" sang during the intermission.

The chapter has continued its interest in foreign students. Nancy Deeds and other members of a Cornell United Religious Work team showed slides and told about their experiences living and working in Honduras last summer. All women's fraternities held a tea for international students. The Pi Beta Phi have been inviting to dinner the students they met at their tea.

To prepare for Christmas, a Settlement School Tea was held to enable the chapter to buy and order gifts. In December there was a Christmas open house. The guests helped trim the tree, and everyone sang carols and had refreshments. The Christmas exchange with T K E was a party for orphans. Santa Claus arrived to give presents to the children.

The other social exchanges this semester were with Φ Δ Θ, and Σ II, and a coffee hour with the Business College.

CAROLE NELSON

*PENNSYLVANIAN BETA—BUCKNELL UNIVERSITY, Chartered, 1895. Pledge Day, February 11, 1962. INITIATED, December 13, 1962: Diane Froud, Norwalk, Conn.; Ann Kendall, Arlington, Va.; Susan Usmar, Montoursville.

As of our last letter, Pennsylvania B, was anxiously awaiting the arrival of our province president, Mrs. O'Donnell. The entire chapter not only enjoyed meeting and speaking with her, but her advice to the chapter has proven most beneficial.

Nancy Barlow, scholarship chairman, introduced the motto "Pi-Bete Phi-Bete" in the fall. Taking heed, the chapter again became the guests of Δ Δ Δ at a steak dinner, the result of our scholarship challenge.

The annual Settlement School sale was held on November 8 under the able direction of Sally Miller and Rita Raisch. This sale has become quite popular on the campus and all the chapter participated in the sales.

As part of our Thanksgiving project, the chapter distributed Thanksgiving dinners to some of the underprivileged families in the immediate area.

There has been a movement on our campus, under the auspices of Panhellenic, to unite all sorority women in a common cause. Sally Steininger, president of Panhellenic this year, has introduced to the chapter many exciting ideas for this goal as they have been discussed in Panhellenic meetings. One of the many ideas acted upon was the Panhellenic serenade; ten members from each sorority on campus sang a selection of their individual sorority songs which was followed by a group sing. Pennsylvania B also took part in the Panhellenic Christmas project, which was to make Christmas toys for the children in nearby hospitals. An all-sorority banquet is scheduled for the spring.

Christmas pre-vacation parties again filled our calendars with such activities as the Σ A M and Σ X orphan parties and the annual Φ K Ψ tree decorating party.

Striving for improvement of the chapter pledge booklet, Nancy Henderson and Sally Clute have added a section including names, addresses, and general information about each girl.

Our congratulations go to Jane Hansen and Ronnie Mazer, who were nominated for Military Ball Queen.

Reflecting on the busy and prosperous past semester, we are looking forward to beginning our next semester with Monmouth Duo, to be held at Σ A E on February 1.

Pennsylvania Γ is in the midst of numerous chapter and campus activities. The Christmas season brought with it our annual fashion show, The Fashion Flurry, sponsored as a social service project. The clothes were supplied by The Boutique of Carlisle, and twelve of the sisters modelled outfits suitable for any occasion from a Bermuda vacation to a Vermont ski trip.

Our chapter joined Φ E II fraternity for a Christmas party for underprivileged children in the area. Santa appeared right on time to distribute his gifts, and both the children and the college students enjoyed the holiday celebration.

Dickinson College has had several professors become members of the faculty this year. Our chapter entertained them and their families at a recent tea. Many new acquaintances were made, and everyone left full of the Christmas spirit after singing Christmas carols.

The senior Pennsylvania Γs were honored at "Senior Formals," the annual dance organized by the rest of the chapter. B Θ II was the setting for its theme, "Night in Nassau," and we all enjoyed the Calypso atmosphere.

Three important offices in the women's student government are held by Pennsylvania Γs. Carol Ann Raskopf is the president of her dormitory; Carol Lindstrom, president of our chapter, occupies the vice president position of President's Council, the coordinating body of the dormitories; and Kathryn Linduff is doing an able job as president of the Panhellenic Council after serving as its secretary-treasurer last year.

Dickinson College is in a state of expansion at the present time. The radio station on campus, WDCV, began its operations just recently and can be received at all dormitories and fraternity houses. An extensive building improvement program is presently under way with a new library and student union building. The ten fraternity houses, which are now located throughout Carlisle, will be centralized in two adjacent quadrangles. Dickinson is on the move at the dynamic leadership of its president, Dr. Howard Rubendall.

Pennsylvania E welcomed Susan Ritland into the chapter. Sue transferred from California E.

The chapter dressed in costumes and gave a surprise Halloween party for Δ Γ. Pi Beta Phi entertained with a skit and served cider and donuts.

Φ E II entertained the chapter with a barn party. The chapter was also hosted by Φ K Σ, A T Ω, and Σ II at Friday evening socials.

Sue Basile and Carol Wright led Pennsylvania E to first place in intramural bridge for the second year in a row.

Margo Lewis was homecoming finalist. Lois Affleck was tapped for Ψ X. Jan Somerville and Margo Lewis were selected for Who's Who.

As part of the Faculty Associate program, Pi Beta Phi hosted Dr. Pierce Lewis and Dr. Jan Prybyla for an informal discussion and refreshments. Dr. Lewis invited some of the girls to come to his house for another discussion.

OHIO ALPHA—OHIO UNIVERSITY, Chartered, 1889.

November found Ohio A members busy entertaining Mrs. James Speaker and their fathers all in the same week, since Fathers' Weekend immediately followed Mrs. Speaker's visit. Susie Barnhart represented the chapter as Fathers' Weekend Chairman.

Homecoming festivities were enjoyed by all with Ohio University beating rival Miami. Penny Blackford, Pi Beta Phi's queen candidate, was named first attendant to Queen Susan Starr. Following homecoming, Pershing Rifle candidate Joan Waldron was elected Honorary Sergeant.

Two chapter scholarship awards were given as incentives to a big-little sister combination. Molly Jones received a diamond active pin for the best grade improvement and pledge Karen Heffelfinger was given an autograph hound for highest six-weeks grades.

Three Ohio A members were given appointments by Ohio's President Vernon Alden. Beth Breitenstein was named to the Convocation's Committee, Becky Morelock to Baker Center Policy Committee and Carolyn Burrows to President's Library Committee.

Socially, the chapter has been active planning parties. In December, X Ω, A Σ Δ and II B Φ toasted the holidays with a semi-formal dance. January found the members searching their wardrobes for purple clothes for their Purple Passion Party. The pledges entertained the actives at their annual party, requiring the actives to don high school clothes.

Pledged to honoraries recently were Lelia Roberts, K Δ II, and Bette Niederauer, Θ Σ Φ.

One of the highlights of the Christmas Party was the presentation of the Minnie Dean Pin award, given to an outstanding senior. Karen Jenkins was the recipient.

After a chapter retreat at Camp Cardinal, Rome, Ohio, Pi Phi entered into the campus "Broadway Musicals" Homecoming activities. Following the busy homecoming, Ohio State sororities each held 26 open houses for all women students. Our Grand Secretary, Mrs. James F. Speaker, arrived in time to attend the parties and the Panhellenic Scholarship Banquet. Ohio B pledges and actives both took second place for the pledge and active scholarship awards, and the combined chapter placed first on campus to win a large silver punch bowl. Mrs. Speaker and Mrs. Dallas Head, chairman of the Alumnae Advisory Committee, brought the award into immediate use by providing the refreshments for a spontaneous open house after the banquet. The next Pi Phi event was the Dad's Day Luncheon during which the fathers took a tour of the house. Then Pi Phi and Pi Phi fathers attended the football game. The quarter's activities ended with the Christmas Formal where toys were given to fun-loving dates as formal favors.

During the quarter, several Ohio Bs were tapped for honoraries. Among these were: Charlotte Jones, Φ T O; Carol Davis and Susan Logan, Π A Θ ; Kitz Netting, A A Δ ; Patty Boden, Torch Club; Pat Whitney, Scarlet n' Gray and A O.

Ohio E was very happy to have Mrs. Speaker, Grand Secretary, as our guest in November.

Many chapter honors were received by Ohio E this semester. Under the leadership of Dianne Pasch, the chapter took first place in the annual Σ A E Olympics. The pledge class received the most money in the World University Service slave auction. The homecoming float placed second in the over-all competition, and first in the Panhellenic competition. The chapter won a stereophonic record player by placing first in a cigarette package U-build-it contest. Sharon Hawkins was chairman of the event.

Many honors came to individual members as well as the entire chapter. Pat Sullivan was elected ROTC honorary officer. Carol Connolly and Angie Halker were elected vice president and secretary of the freshman class, respectively. Angie Halker was also elected as a Pershing Rifle honorary officer. Joyce Stein and Donna Carroll were elected to Who's Who. Paige Price was selected for membership in Π Γ M. Nancy Dennis became a member of Φ A Θ . Nancy also won first prize in the annual talent contest sponsored by the Student Union Board. Ann McDermott, Dorene Mowery, Pat June, Leslie Turby and Jeanne Florence are members of the University Rockettes Drill Team.

The winter formal was held December 22 at the Park Lane Hotel. Chairmen of the event were Elaine DePrisco and Dorene Mowery. Again this semester the chapter will participate in the annual Womens Songfest under the leadership of director Martha Bruce.

The Twist isn't dead yet, and Ohio Π Pi Beta Phi's helped stage its fall comeback at the Fall Party, given at the house in combination with Δ Γ .

Another highlight of the fall was a visit by Mrs. Virginia Speaker, Grand Secretary. During her stay, a faculty tea was held by Pi Beta Phi in her honor and that of Miss Margaret Heinrichs, our new housemother. On the heels of this visit came Dad's Day, when we served luncheon to our Dads, and the pledge class presented a novelty skit to everyone's delight. That evening, a Sorority Song Fest was staged for the fathers, and we all got a chance to show off a little.

At the annual Christmas party, held in Columbus, Ohio H and their dates enjoyed a Luau-style dinner. This was topped-off by a visit from Santa Claus who gave out Christmas stockings full of childishly amusing gifts.

Recently, we were honored to have Jean Wiley play a starring role in "Career," put on by the Denison theatre department. Judy Anderson is spending her junior year in France. On the Dean's List are: Pamela Maky, Diane Liebner, Carol Heinze, Susan Duck, Susan Fowler, Connie Lynn, Beverly Welles, Betsey Chamberlain, Judy Brundage, Jo Ann Early, Molly Moore, Kitty Reed, Cynthia Harley, and Cynthia Christianson. D.C. ALPHA CHAPTER—GEORGE WASHINGTON UNIVERSITY. The Pi Phi's had a most enjoyable fall semester. On Sept. 28 fifteen new pledges were pledged and a party followed the Pledging Ceremony at an active's house. The new pledges are Sally Beer, Dottie Boyles, Mary Bourgoyne, Diana Davis, Beverly Faylor, Sara Frampton, Kathryn Haidos, Sue Hazzard, Louise Kates, Sally McMahon, Ann Sanders, Paula Seaman, Lelia Troup, Linda Viray, and Kitty Watson. Throughout the semester, these girls have proved themselves to be an outstanding group. Among the things they have done is to win first prize in the Annual Goat show in the category of originality. Their skit was entitled "Who Stole the Strawberries From the King's Strawberry Patch."

The sorority chapter also attended several exchanges during the fall. The first was with Pi Kappa Alpha and the theme was "Halloween." There was also an exchange with Sigma Alpha Epsilon and the theme was "Hillbilly." There was also a coffee hour with Phi Sigma Kappa in November.

The annual Pledge Formal was held in early December at the International Inn. It was preceded by a party at the home of one of the actives and another party afterward at the home of one of the pledges.

The annual Christmas party was held the Sunday night before Christmas holidays began. Each girl exchanged a gift with another girl in the chapter and the actives cooked a chicken and rice dinner for the pledges.

The Saturday morning before the Christmas holidays, the pledges "kidnapped" the actives from their beds between 6:30 and 7 A.M. and had a surprise breakfast for them in the sorority rooms. It was a pleasant surprise for the actives.

Now everyone is planning to do her best on the final exams and to enjoy as pleasant and fruitful spring semester as the fall semester proved to be.

has been very rewarding for Virginia Γ. The members of the chapter have taken an energetic part in campus life as demonstrated by their many honors and activities. Diane Bright was elected from her dormitory to the Student Government Association. Suzanne Frayser was tapped into the classics honor society Η Σ Φ. The Virginia Γ captured many beauty honors this past fall. The chapter's retiring president, Lesley Ward, and Leslie McAneny were included on the Homecoming court. Excitement spread over Virginia Γ when the following six members were selected to compete for the title of Miss William and Mary: Cynthia Fulwiler, Joyce House, Leslie McAneny (finalist), Janet Norment, Sandra Tolbert, and Lesley Ward (finalist). Virginia Γ is also proud to proclaim Ethelyn Abbott as Σ A E's new sweetheart.

The chapter has participated in many philanthropic, social, and extracurricular activities these past months. The traditional spaghetti dinner was given in early October, and it proved to be very successful. Homecoming came late in October. The weeks of working on the float rewarded the chapter with second prize. The girls continue to be active in intramurals, and Donna Nunn was chosen to be a member of the Tidewater Hockey Team.

For Thanksgiving the chapter's philanthropic chairman, Emily Vawter, made tray favors for the patients at Community Hospital. Later as the Christmas season approached, Pi Beta Phi joined Σ A E in singing Christmas carols for Eastern State Mental Hospital. The holiday season brought many smiles and good times to Virginia Γ. The chapter held its fun-filled Christmas party and Christmas open house. The fraternities serenaded their sweethearts the last few weeks before vacation, and a reception was prepared for Σ A E.

The members returned from Christmas vacation to find the kitchen in the midst of being redecorated. Everyone anxiously awaits the results of the hard working house improvements chairman, Mary Jane Mitchell. The chapter is thrilled to have a brand new kitchen to show the rushees in February!

The A.B.O. Girl of the Month Award presented by Virginia Γ to an outstanding member of the chapter has been given to Lynne Thomas and Joyce House for their distinguished contributions to Pi Beta Phi.

*MICHIGAN BETA—UNIVERSITY OF MICHIGAN. Chartered, 1886. Pledge Day, February 24, 1963. Shortly after returning from Christmas vacation, University of Michigan students were faced once more with examinations. This shall not be the case next year, however, since the University has decided to have three equal semesters each year. On this trimester plan, the summer program will be extended while the fall and spring semesters shall begin and end earlier than they have in the past. Next January returning students shall be starting their spring semester.

Several Pi Beta Phis are currently active in campus organizations and activities. Among these are Susie Brockway, Wanda Westrate, and Chris Irwin, who are members of Scroll, a senior women's honorary. Wanda and Chris are also active in the campus Panhellenic Association where Wanda served as executive vice president and Chris served as scholarship chairman up until elections this spring. Madeline Bates is a member of Mortar Board and has served as their past president. Madeline is also a member of the steering committee of the Literary College.

Two Michigan Bs who are especially active on campus are Kay Wunsch and Malinda Berry. Kay served on the Homecoming Central Committee last fall and is now working on the central committee for Spring Week-end, a campus-wide event to take place April 26-27. Malinda is an editor of the campus paper, The Michigan Daily, and is one of the paper's busiest reporters, as well.

Women's rush was held over a three and a half week period from February 1 until February 24 which was Pledge Day.

INITIATED, October 27, 1962: Thespo Christides, Clarkston; Diane Grigg, Saginaw; Laryl Larson, Benton Harbor; Marjorie Smith, Detroit.

After a busy but wonderful Christmas vacation, the members of Michigan I returned to begin preparations for winter rush. Rush parties start January 5 and continue approximately three weeks.

Chapter members active on campus this year include Judy Donoghue, treasurer of Campus Chest; Donna Hockaday, chairman of the musicale for Union Board Week; Carolyn Holbrook, Mr. MSU chairman for Spinsters' Spin; Sandra Lambert, secretary of Panhellenic Council; Laryl Larson, Executive Council for Water Carnival; and Sharon Munn, secretary of Union Board Week. Joan Hatch was chosen Army Corps sponsor.

The annual Christmas Sing was held with the men of $\Delta T \Delta$ on December 2. This traditional ceremony consists of lighting the large Christmas tree before the Union Building. Two children from Saint Vincent Orphanage were invited to do the honors of lighting the tree and were given a party and gifts by the chapter.

Prior to the rush of final week, the alumnae held a Christmas party for the chapter, and later Michigan I had its annual house Christmas party, with gifts and refreshments for all.

MICHIGAN DELTA—ALBION COLLEGE. Chartered, March 7, 1959. Pledge Day, October 8, 1962. Michigan Δ has been quite busy the first semester, starting the year off with one of the largest new pledge classes on campus.

Michigan Δ was also very proud to be able to claim the sorority and the sorority-fraternity scholarship cups for the 1962 spring semester with a 2.1 overall scholastic average.

Several Friday afternoon TGIF's have been held with the ΣN , $\Delta \Sigma \Phi$, and $T K E$ fraternities, and during the holidays a party was given for the underprivileged children in the Albion area. Pi Beta Phi participated in an all-campus Christmas caroling party which was preceded by a party given for them at the home of President Norris.

Of interest on campus some very noteworthy speakers and performers have appeared throughout the semester. John Ciardi spoke early this fall, Maurice Evans and Helen Hayes presented a Shakespearean reading program, Theodore Lettvin gave a piano concert, and the Four Lads entertained with a combined vocal and comic program.

PLEDGED: Mary Jane Allen, Elyria, Ohio; Kathleen Atlee, Gladwin; Kathleen Battle, Plymouth; Ann Bridgeman, Durham, Conn.; April DuVal, Franklin; Mary Jane Erickson, Iron Mountain; Ellen Fisher, Chelsea; Judy-Lyn Kiffer, Petoskey; Deanna Kinsey, Fremont, Ind.; Jean Klein, Flint; Judith Leman, Longmont, Colo.; Lorene March, Mona Sprenger, Southfield; Susan McHorney, Snyder, N.Y.; Virginia McNitt, Arlington, Va.; Donna Meyers, Garden City; Mary Neller, Lansing; Ann Robinson, Eaton Rapids; Nancy Weaver, Ravenna; Gwynne Wilcox, Dearborn; Marjorie Wildt, Albion; Rozanne Williamson, Schenectady, N.Y.

The initiation class of Ontario have raised over fifty dollars for the Canadian Project. A car wash was held at the fraternity house on the McGill Toronto football weekend. The shoeshine on January 7 was a big success.

The Initiation Banquet was held on January 13, at the Four Seasons Hotel. Coralie Phillips received the award for the outstanding member of the initiation class.

The annual Christmas party with ΣX was held on December 10. This event is one of the philanthropic projects of the chapter. This year, a grade two class from the north Toronto area came to play games, to have supper, to see cartoons, and to meet Santa Claus.

The spring term will be busy at Ontario Alpha with informal rushing and the annual formal, being held this year at the Lord Simcoe Hotel.

*ONTARIO BETA—UNIVERSITY OF WESTERN ONTARIO. Chartered, October, 1934. Pledge Day, September 30, 1962. INITIATED, November 18, 1962: Nancy Aikenhead, Marlene Campion, Georgina Hartwell, Gail Ibbotson, Ann McLachlin, Heather Mitchell, Barbara Phipps, Janet Richardson, Anne Sengbusch, Jane Spencer, Lynn Taylor, Patricia Ann Travers, London; Joan Armstrong, Stratford; Susy Beeston, Kaye Neal, Welland; Margaret Church, Windsor; Mary Greenwood, Chatham; Karen Hammar, Kitchener; Joanne Haugh, Port Credit; Karen Lamb, Brenda Lorimer, Toronto; Ruth McMane, Brantford; Judy McCraney, Willowdale; Penelope Robinson, Hamilton; Sheila Soulsby, Collingwood; Catherine Williams, Alliston.

After the Initiation Ceremonies, Ontario B held their annual initiation banquet at the Latin Quarter restaurant with speaker Dr. Helen Battle, a Professor of Zoology at Western University and a charter member of Ontario B who gave a very interesting history of the university. Those receiving awards at this time were Sue Carter for highest scholarship, Barb Burrows for the most improved average, and new initiate, Anne Sengbusch for the Billy Miller award. Before initiation, the actives gave the pledges the annual Square Dance which was once again thoroughly enjoyable.

We all took pleasure in meeting our new province president, Mrs. R. H. Meyer during her visit to the chapter three days prior to initiation. Plans immediately followed her visit for annual Christmas Bazaar held December 8, 1962. This again proved very profitable after the creative efforts of actives, old and new, and the baking talents of our alumnae. Our housemother, Mrs. Chapman, kept the Christmas spirit going with her annual dinner for the girls in the house. This event is always eagerly anticipated by these girls knowing the wonderful time they can expect. It was Pi Phi's turn to hold the Inter-sorority Christmas party this year; so that just before the holiday, our house was overflowing with happy girls having a good get-together before the annual emigration.

Ontario B has had two inter-fraternity parties this last term with $B \Theta \Pi$ and ΣX . The latter even came back Grey Cup day to clean our living-room walls! Two of our members have honoured themselves and the chapter by winning sweetheart titles; Carolyn Hogg was elected Huron Ball Queen in November, and Sally Young was chosen Interfraternity Queen in December.

The next month will be very busy for us with Formal Rushing parties the first weekend in February. Immediately following is Western's Winter Weekend, the highlight of which is the Arts & Science Ball. Five of the ten candidates for Arts & Science Queen are Pi Phi's this year—Mary Jane Fryce, Sharon MacLean, Heather Johnston, Sally Young, and Ruth McMane. Good luck to them all!

Ontario Beta is just beginning plans for our biggest social event of the year, our formal dance in March. We all hope it will be as successful as ever.

*INDIANA ALPHA—FRANKLIN COLLEGE. Chartered, 1888. Pledge Day, September 15, 1962.

Two trophies were presented to Indiana A at the annual Homecoming festivities. Mary Jane Phillips, a pledge, was chosen to reign as 1962 Homecoming Queen. Pi Beta Phi won first place in the float competition. The chapter's winning theme was "Arkuy's! Sock 'Em," and the theme was carried out by two girls with knitting needles and balls of yarn knitting a large red and gray argyle sock.

At the fall honors convocation Grace Cleveland was tapped by Alpha, similar to $\Theta B K$; Linda Bryer, Virginia McBeth, and Joyce Thompson were tapped by $A \Phi T$, national coeducational journalism honorary; Ann Davison was tapped by Gold Quill, honorary for junior and senior women; and Linda Bryer and Bonnie Johnson were tapped by $K \Delta \Pi$, national education honorary.

Two members of Indiana A, Grace Cleveland and Alice Gill, were chosen for membership in Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges. Alice was also selected as the Outstanding Greek Woman during the annual Greek Weekend activities.

Ann Davison has been named editor of the Franklin College literary magazine. In the freshman class elections Janet Edmondson, a pledge, was elected class secretary.

Indiana A pledge class held a tea for the chapter Alumnae Advisory Council. The skit which they presented depicted the life of a Pi Beta Phi through the four years of her college career.

The chapter enjoyed the fall dinners given by the patroness club and the mothers' club.

Fall activities also included a Halloween date night at the home of Bobbie Azbell in Indianapolis. The members and their dates enjoyed a wiener roast and a pumpkin-carving contest.

Zeta Province President, Mrs. Allan C. Raup, paid her first visit to Indiana A early in December.

With the arrival of the Christmas season several holiday activities were added to the Pi Beta Phi calendar. The members and their dates went caroling at the Masonic Home, Methodist Home, college president's home, and chapter faculty advisor's home. The annual pixie week was climaxed by the Christmas spread, Virginia McBeth wrote a play, "The Lonely Star," which was presented at the college Christmas party. Several members of Indiana A sang in Handel's "Messiah" which was presented by the Franklin College combined choir and the orchestra.

On January 7, Indiana A celebrated the seventy-fifth anniversary of the founding of the chapter with a Diamond Jubilee Banquet. Mrs. Oliver B. Simmons, national historian from Kansas City, was the featured speaker. Pi Beta Phis from several surrounding states as well as Indiana were present for the celebration.

*INDIANA EPSILON—DEPAUW UNIVERSITY. Chartered, 1942. Pledge Day, September 28, 1962.

The recent fall semester has been most rewarding for Indiana E. The year began with a most pleasant visit from Mrs. Allan Raup, province president. Another special day consisted of a lovely tea to honor four new members of the Greencastle Pi Beta Phi Alumnae Club.

Late in October, the chapter honored their fall pledges at a most successful dance, "Beaux and Arrows." Both decorations and pledges were tons! Soon came Dads' Day and a gay time centered around the theme "Dad's Daze" in the 1920's. The banquet and skit made the weekend a memorable time.

Banquets were an important time this fall season. Just prior to Thanksgiving vacation, the DePauw administration was entertained at the Pi Beta Phi annual Thanksgiving banquet. At Christmas time, the chapter entertained the Greencastle alumnae and their families at a Christmas dinner. Indiana E also enjoyed themselves at their Christmas party, especially when "Santa" and his two "elves" arrived bringing many toys that were played with and later sent to Settlement School. Soon the secret was out, "Santa" and his "helpers" were Pi Beta Phi waiters!

Other festivities of the holiday season included the chapter joining with the members of E X for a fun party to entertain underprivileged children of Greencastle. Indiana E had a most pleasant surprise during Christmas when the pledges not only came caroling but dressed the Christmas tree with a beautiful felt skirt that they had made themselves. Early one morning the pledges sent their sorority mothers on a long hike, after which they presented them with Christmas gifts.

Pi Beta Phi are active this semester. Melinda Paine, Barb Dafeo, and Lynn Wood are new members of Orchestra, a dancing honorary. Jane Talbot played in the campus production of "Annie Get Your Gun." Sandy Jones is a peppy member of the cheerleading squad. Sallie Reid was chosen as a member of the university committee to study the problems of discrimination. Lynn Wood was crowned 1962 Homecoming Queen.

*INDIANA ZETA—BALL STATE TEACHERS COLLEGE. Chartered, August 23, 1952. Pledge Day, January 29, 1963. INITIATED, October 22, 1962: Donna Zelt, Fort Wayne.

Homecoming brought with it much excitement for Indiana Z with Charlotte Beach reigning as Homecoming Queen. The afternoon was spent with the football game and also entertaining friends and relatives in the suite. Our treasury swelled with our annual selling of homecoming mums.

Four Pi Beta Phi were recently elected to Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities. They are Nancy Lee Cambridge, Betty Huntoon Darby, Leila Kirkley, and Gloria Tlobor.

Also, Indiana Z is very proud of Sunny Lloyd who is doing an excellent job as editor of the college newspaper.

Christmas time brought with it the annual Christmas party for all the members of Indiana Z. This year we chose a needy family in Muncie, and with our gifts of food, clothing, and toys, helped to make Christmas a little brighter for them. The Pi Beta Phi had their own party in the suite where refreshments and the singing of carols and chapter songs were enjoyed by all.

The annual Playboy Penthouse dance sponsored by Pi Beta Phi and $\Sigma T \Gamma$ fraternity was a huge success. Several of the Pi Phi dressed as "bunnies" served as hostesses for the event. Marcia Cline did an excellent job as chairman of the dance.

Indiana Z was also busy planning for the annual visit of our new province president, Mrs. Raup. We were proud to show her the new co-ed dormitories which have just been in use this year.

The Pi Beta Phi at Ball State welcomed two transfer students this year. Susan Copeland and Kay Cross, are both from Indiana Γ .

We at Indiana Z are presently in the very heart of rush. Julie Pratt Mendenhall and her rush committee are doing a highly commendable job, and a very bright future is foreseen when pledges are taken the last of January.

*KENTUCKY ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF LOUISVILLE. Chartered, October 9, 1925. Pledge Day, September 26, 1962. INITIATED, October 21, 1962: Sheila Brohm, Hawthorne, Pa.; Jonnie Grubb, Sandy Marr, Carol Waford.

Throughout the winter holiday season, members of Kentucky A were participating in a constant round of activities. At the Homecoming game, it was announced that Sheila Brohm had been elected to the Queen's court. Soon after this, the members of Kentucky A and their dates celebrated Thanksgiving with a traditional dinner which was prepared and served by the mothers' club. The alumnae club also expressed its active interest in the chapter by sponsoring a dessert-bride party in November.

In December, $\Phi K T$ invited the whole chapter to a steak dinner and the ΔT pledge class gave an afternoon dessert for Kentucky A pledges. A Christmas dinner and party for our advisor, Dr. Raymond Wilkie, and his family was held December 16, immediately before vacation. On January 8, Kentucky A invited ΔT to an informal buffet supper.

Members of Kentucky A have received various honors in the past few months. Betsey Keeling, Mary Beth Rose, and Sheila Brohm were elected cheerleaders. Betsey Keeling is also treasurer of the freshman class. Judy Heaton, the president of the Sociology Club, was chosen to receive the B'nai B'rith Community Service Award and a grant of one hundred dollars. Sherry Penn, vice president of the Student Council, was listed in the new edition of Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities.

SALLIE GULLEGG

KENTUCKY BETA—UNIVERSITY OF KENTUCKY. Chartered, March 3, 1962. Pledge Day, October 31, 1962.

The fall semester has been a busy one for Kentucky B. Early in the semester the local alumnae club sponsored the Settlement School program which was presented at Convention this past summer, and we enjoyed it a great deal, as we learned more about our national philanthropic project. This was very timely for us, as a few weeks later the annual Settlement School sale was held at the chapter house, and we were able to see many of the articles from the school which we had heard of previously.

The chapter held a fall retreat at the home of one of our local members, where we got to know our new pledges better and discussed goals and ideals for our chapter. Later in the semester the pledges held a similar retreat where they, too, discussed their goals as new Pi Beta Phi. There was a dessert with $\Phi K T$ in November, and in December we had a Pi Beta Phi Christmas party.

Among the many exciting things which happened in our chapter this semester were the Homecoming float contest in which the float which we made with A $\Gamma \Delta$ won second place. The ΣX Derby, too, was very exciting for UK Pi Beta Phi as our queen candidate, Pat Witt, was chosen ΣX Derby Queen. In early December we were pleased to have the opportunity to meet our new province president, Mrs. Peter Schuyler, when she made her chapter visit.

Many Pi Beta Phi are active on the UK campus, with Carol Harper chosen as a member of the Greek Week Steering Committee, Betty Kavanaugh selected to be chairman of Stars in the Night, the program honoring women students on campus, and Donna Wilcox chosen as chairman of the AWS Regional Convention to be held here next year. Barb Dean is a soloist with the Madrigal Singers, Etta Jane Caudill is president of the Women's Residence Hall Council, Carol Harper was selected to participate in the Washington Seminar, and Patty Pinson, Harriet Hieber, Vanda Marcum, Virginia Wesche, and Ann Armstrong were delegates to the annual fall Leadership Conference.

Among the pledges, Cathy McCallum was chosen to be an ATO Little Sister, and Carol Freeman and Gail Staskopf are on their dorm advisory councils.

We were very pleased to have several of our girls tapped for departmental and national honoraries this fall. Jan Mitts and Betty Kavanaugh were invited to join the education honorary, Carol Harper was selected for the Math Honorary and Vanda Marcum and Nancy Percival were tapped for Φ B K.

PLEGDED, October 31, 1962: Susan Bailey, Louisville; Betty Brown, Lyndon; Alice Jo Peck, Sharpsburg.

*TENNESSEE ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF CHATTANOOGA. Chartered, 1923. Pledge Day, September 20, 1962.

Pi Beta Phi won first place in the homecoming Decorations with its representation of a stork with the motto: "We're expecting victory."

Tennessee A won the "Shroeder Award" for selling the most symphony tickets in competition with the other sororities on the U.C. campus.

Janet Parks, Tennessee A President, has been elected secretary of the junior class.

The chapter was honored by a visit from Mrs. Kent Morgan in October. The National Panhellenic Delegate was entertained at a coffee in her honor.

In November, Pi Beta Phi made their annual trip to the Settlement School in Gatlinburg. Also in the fall, the pledges gave an informal party for the actives, and a hayride was enjoyed by all.

Much fellowship was enjoyed by Pi Beta Phi during the Christmas season. The mothers' club sponsored a Mother-Daughter Tea. Big and little sisters exchanged presents at a Christmas party, and the following day, a party was held at the chapter house for a group of needy children.

Some changes have been evidenced on the U.C. campus. Land has been cleared for a new gymnasium, and the library has been completely remodeled and air-conditioned.

Pi Beta Phi at the University of Chattanooga have been engaged in many activities and expect to have a very good year.

ELMA O'NEAL

*TENNESSEE BETA—VANDERBILT UNIVERSITY. Chartered, November 9, 1940. Pledge Day, February 4, 1963.

The big event of fall semester at Vanderbilt was rush. Tennessee B has now added to her number twenty-two Pi Beta Phi promisees who will be formally pledged in February.

Fall semester also proved eventful in many other aspects. The Vandy Pi Beta Phi moved from the old house into a temporary one, and construction is now underway on the new chapter house which we hope will soon be completed.

We were quite honored to have as our guest this fall, Mrs. Dorothy Weaver Morgan, National Panhellenic Conference Delegate. A luncheon was held at the chapter house to honor her and Mrs. Fred Clark, our housemother.

The Pi Beta Phi were hostesses at several other social events this semester. In November we entertained at the annual fraternity dinner to honor the officers of each fraternity on campus. Later in the year, the pledges will entertain at a similar dinner in honor of the officers of the fraternity pledge classes.

Before the holidays began, the Pi Beta Phi Christmas party was held. The feature attraction of the afternoon was a visit from Santa, played by promisee Emaline Henard, who brought gifts to all the actives.

Mortar Board Stunt Night was held in early December and had as its theme "The Twelve Days of Christmas." Each class presented a skit, and Pi Beta Phi was well represented in each performance. We were proud to have Kate Harwood serve as co-chairman of the senior class skit, and Emaline Henard co-chairman of the winning freshman skit.

A highlight of fall semester on the campus was the Miss Commodore contest. Promisee Suzanne Parker represented Pi Beta Phi and was one of the ten finalists. Pam Oliver was the ATO's contestant, and Mary Vance Noel, representing Σ N, was a member of the Miss Commodore court.

Other activities on the Vandy campus have spotlighted members of Tennessee B. Ruth Montgomery and Penney Poppe are members of Lotus Eaters, the honorary society for sophomore women, and Judy Wood and Cissy Kerkow are newly elected members of Athenians, the junior women's honorary society. Winnie Duncan, Cornelia Barnes and Frances Civetts are members of the Aquatic Club. Serving as presidents of their halls are Margot Steenland and Jeanne Odell.

Culminating an exciting semester was the very successful "Christmas Village" which was sponsored by the Nashville Pi Beta Phi Alumnae Club. Over fifty merchants were represented by booths where Christmas shopping could be done. Lunch and dinner were served and entertainment was provided throughout the day. The proceeds went to the Bill Wilkerson Hearing and Speech Center.

AFFILIATED: Cornelia Barnes.

TENNESSEE DELTA—MEMPHIS STATE UNIVERSITY. Chartered, February 24, 1962.

Tennessee Δ began a successful year at Memphis State after acquiring a pledge class of thirty-two during fall rush. The pledges showed their enthusiasm for Pi Beta Phi by capturing first place in Σ X Derby Day.

Intra-fraternity functions included a halloween party given by the actives for the pledges, a slumber party at which the actives were honored, a Christmas party given by the pledges, and the annual Christmas banquet given by the mothers' club. Pi Beta Phi also entertained several fraternities with desserts.

Tennessee Δ initiated a unique type of entertainment on campus this December in the form of "Stag Night with Pi Phi," a fashion show directed men interested in ideas for gifts for the women in their life. Kay Brothers directed and narrated the program and was largely responsible for its success. Besides seeing clothes and gift items from Gerber's modeled, the men enjoyed entertainment, refreshments, and door prizes.

The Wine Carnation Ball was held December 7 at the Colonial Country Club. A buffet supper was served after which Pi Beta Phi and their dates danced to the music of the Casuals.

*ALABAMA BETA—UNIVERSITY OF ALABAMA. Chartered, September 19, 1949. Pledge Day, September 20, 1962.

The fall semester has been a busy and exciting one for Alabama B. Many beauty honors are held by Pi Beta Phi. Jan Russel was chosen as an Army ROTC Sponsor and as a Football Sponsor while Diane Thornburg was selected as a Crimson Girl. Jan Russel was also chosen as a Corolla Beauty for the beauty section of our yearbook. Sherry Gray was in the Σ X Sweetheart Court and Donna Smith was an alternate for Π K Φ Star. Homecoming was doubly exciting for us since Deedee McFadden was alternate Homecoming Queen and our lawn decorations won second place.

Pi Beta Phi hold many positions in campus activities. Nancy Wagner was elected vice president and Anne Nichols, chaplain, of Freshman Y. Jan Wood was elected president of the School of Home Economics. Anne Nichols and Richie Starnes were chosen to serve on Freshman Council; Jane Hester and Connie Marshall, Sophomore Council; Nan Brooke, Jan Wood, and Dot Turnipseed, Junior Council; and Judy Murdock, Senior Council. Margaret Miller represents the Graduate School in the Student Legislature. We were all excited when Maralyn Childress was chosen as a member of Φ B K and again when Maralyn and Judy Murdock were elected to Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities.

Just before the holidays we held our annual pledge banquet, faculty tea, and Christmas party which were enjoyed by everyone. We also had a Christmas party with the K Σ 's for underprivileged children.

ALABAMA GAMMA—AUBURN UNIVERSITY. Chartered, February 2, 1957.

This has been a very rewarding time for Alabama Γ . Linda Lane was chosen for Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities. Barbara Atwater and Liz Hayes were tapped for K Δ II, education honorary.

Joan Odom was selected by a division of Magnolia Dormitories as sweetheart. She was nominated for Glomerata Beauty by Auburn Hall. Another pledge, Suzanne Temple, was a finalist for Δ T Δ pledge sweetheart. Barbara Wallace also represented the chapter for Glomerata Beauty.

In intramurals the Pi Beta Phi were first runner up in volleyball for the second year. The co-recreational team with Θ X is still in the competition. Ginger Theiring was second in the shuffleboard tournament.

The pledges were honored at a tea early in the quarter. Homecoming weekend the pledges and all guests were entertained at a "Kidnap Breakfast." Other highlights of the quarter were the pledge retreat to Chewacla Lake where they made plans for their pledge class; the Homecoming Tea where we had a chance to entertain in our new chapter room; pledge swaps with Σ II, Δ T Δ , and Θ X; and the Beatnik Christmas party. The pledges took second place in the Burn the Bulldog Contest.

FLORIDA ALPHA—STETSON UNIVERSITY. Chartered, January 30, 1913. Pledge Day, October 6, 1962. INITIATED, October 15, 1962: Beverly Chapman, Atlanta, Ga.; Sandra Liddy, St. Petersburg; Karen Marion, Orlando; Betsy Seigle, Alexandria, Va.

With fall semester just beginning, one of our brand-new pledges, Gwen Knight, brought us the honor of $\Pi K \Phi$ Freshman Beauty Queen, the prettiest girl in the freshman class. Suzanne Fletcher, another new pledge, was second runner-up. This is the fourth straight year we have won this honor.

Our spirited cheerleaders this year are Cissy Harris and Sherry Hankins. This is Cissy's second year and Sherry's first.

Soon after rush was over, there was a Panhellenic Banquet for all the sororities, where all the new pledges were introduced. We were entertained by several girls in each sorority modeling the latest fashions from a dress shop in Daytona. This year we are starting a Junior Panhellenic for pledges. Our delegates are Mary Jo Jones and Gwen Knight.

Our annual retreat this year was at the New Frontier in Daytona Beach. After a barbecue supper, we made plans for our Spring week-end and other big events to come.

Greek Week brought good times for all the Greeks. Cissy Harris was our candidate for the Greek Goddess. We were paired with $\Delta \Sigma \Phi$ for the skit, which we won. The whole week of activities was climaxed by the Presentation Ball held in Sanford. At this ball, all sorority pledges and their escorts were presented. Florida Alpha was really proud of their fourteen pledges.

The end of November brought Green Feather to the campus. This is our annual charity drive. Each sorority teams with a fraternity for a booth at the carnival, where all money goes to charity. We were teamed with $\Lambda \chi \Lambda$. A Miss Hatter Contest was also held in connection with Green Feather festivities. Our contestant was Karen Marion. Suzie Hankins represented $\Sigma \Phi \epsilon$; Suzanne Fletcher, $\Pi K \Lambda$; Penny Gray, ΣN . Karen won the crown and Penny was a runner-up.

Suzie Hankins, Eleanor Dickey, and Jane Hall have just received word that they have been tapped for Who's Who.

Jane Hall is our candidate for the Queen of Cotton Contest.

Our Christmas party was at DeLeon Springs. The theme was a "Swiss Christmas." Each girl brought her gift for her date and put it under the tree. The gifts were mugs. This year Florida A, together with the $\Sigma \Phi \epsilon$, gave a Christmas party for the orphans in DeLand in the ΣE house. The little orphans each received a Christmas present from Santa and all had a good time.

Our alumnae presented us with their annual Christmas dinner. Alumnae, actives and pledges each brought a small gift for needy children.

Just before leaving for Christmas holidays the Miss Basketball Contest was held in connection with the Hatter Invitational Basketball Tournament. Our contestant was Ginger Barnett. Suzanne Fletcher, representing $\Pi K \Lambda$, was second runner-up. The queen was crowned by Judy Wood, last years queen.

PLEGDED: Karen Anderson, Columbus, Ohio; Mary Barnhill, Hollywood; Leanne Duane, Pompano Beach; Suzanne Fletcher, Greensboro; Connie Flieshel, DeLand; Sandra Fox, Jacksonville; Sherry Hankins, Miami; Mary Jo Jones, Lee Summit, Mo.; Gwen Knight, Jacksonville; Ann Lucas, Jacksonville; Cindy Morris, DeLand; Florence Morrow, Daytona Beach; Martha Slaton, Damascus, Md.; Betsy Snodgrass, Coral Gables.

*FLORIDA BETA—FLORIDA STATE UNIVERSITY. Chartered, October 14, 1921. Pledge Day, September 20, 1962.

The pledges and actives of Florida B launched the Spring trimester of 1963 with a retreat at the Florida State University Reservation. There was an opportunity for a rush meeting and skits put on by the pledges.

One of the highlights of Florida B's fall trimester was the selection of Pam Carlton to the 1963 Orange Bowl Court. Also, Denise Edwards was chosen to be one of five finalists in the yearbook beauty section.

Scholastic honors include Jean Pasteur who was tapped for $\Lambda \Lambda \Delta$; Alice Barron and Lou Rich selected for $\Phi K \Phi$; and Diane Goodwin tapped for $K \Delta \Pi$.

Village Vamps, the campus hostess honorary, chose Sandy Clark, Pat Clark and Liz Harper. Sally Dunlap was elected secretary of the organization. The F. S. U. leadership honorary, Garnet Key, tapped Bonnie Worsham. Who's Who in American Colleges will list Lou Rich and Diane Goodwin. Judy Travis and Patti Haer were chosen as $A T \Omega$ little sisters. Angel Flight elected Sandy Gilley to its membership, and Cindy Cline, Judy Nealing and Sandy Smith were selected for Modeling Board. An active member of F. S. U.'s majorette squad is Sara Boggs. Phyllis Webb was tapped for Theater Dance and recently appeared in the theatrical production of Kismet. Flying high in Circus this year is Suzi Miller.

Florida B recently installed the new chapter officers. Elected were: Sally Dunlap, president; Beth Ann LeGate, vice president; Phyllis Webb, recording secretary; Libby Gentile, corresponding secretary; Pam Carlton, treasurer; and Noel Doepeke, pledge trainer.

F. S. U. is enjoying a newly inaugurated program of "open rush" whereby there is only one formal membership campaigning period in the fall and during the remainder of the year girls may be pledged at any time.

*ILLINOIS ALPHA—MONMOUTH COLLEGE. Chartered, April 28, 1867. Pledge Day, October 21, 1962.

Even though Monmouth College had deferred rush this year along with a new "three-three" curriculum, the Pi Beta Phi chapter was very busy.

Homecoming was especially exciting because Dee Ann Smith was Homecoming Queen and Lynette Lyndrup was Senior Attendant. The chapter held a Homecoming tea at Holt House for alumnae and parents.

Nancy Dunlap, Judy Iverson, and Genie Willman were all finalists in cheerleading tryouts. Nancy and Genie are now on the squad and Linda Warnock is captain.

Jean Cowan and Linda Warnock were elected as Student Council Representatives. Karin Loya and Livvy Lunn were named members for the Religion in Life Committee by President Gibson. Jane Hamburger was tapped for membership in $\Sigma O M$ Monmouth's equivalent to $\Phi B K$. Mary Ann Gustafson was also eligible, but she has transferred from Monmouth. Livvy Lunn has been elected secretary of German Club and president of the French Dramatics organization. Marge Henderson was elected secretary of the junior class and treasurer of Pep Club. Carol Dettman is living in the new Senior Women's Honor House this year.

The chapter was very pleased to be able to re-pledge Marilyn Russell who had been out of school for a semester. A cooky shine was held at Holt House on Wednesday, October 24, in honor of the province president, Mrs. Gross.

On November 11, the chapter honored Amy Burnham Onken and her friend, Janette Powell, who helped her mother dress the Founders' dolls at Holt House, at a tea. The annual Parents' Day tea was also held at Holt House.

On Sunday, November 18, several members of the chapter went to the $\Phi \Delta \Theta$ house at Knox to serve at their final rush party.

The honorary music fraternity, $\Pi A N$ presented "Sequence in Sound" on November 20, with Carol Dettman, Jan Patterson, and Laura Turner singing in the chorus and Karin Loya, Kay Precuil, and Judy Sluka playing in the orchestra. Sixteen members of the chapter participated in the production of the Messiah.

A Christmas cooky shine was held at Holt House and six little girls from town were invited as guests. Gifts were exchanged and fun was had by all.

The chapter has been very busy with rush since returning from Christmas vacation. It officially began with the Panhellenic Teas on Saturday, January 5. The formal parties were held from January 7 through January 10 and pledging was on Saturday, January 12. The chapter was very proud to pledge seventeen freshmen women and one upperclassman. Rush chairman, Jane Hamburger, and assistant, Missy Menhall may be congratulated by the chapter. A cooky shine was held that evening in honor of the pledges and a delicious meal was prepared by the alumnae club.

PLEGDED: Judith Anderson, Sally Bowman, Monmouth, Ill.; Kathy DeMet, Chicago; Kai Hamilton, Little York; Gail Hartong, Jacksonville; Susan Hodde, Springfield; Linda Jungbluth, Arlington Heights; Nancy Livingston, Hammond; Carol McMaster, Altoona; Lynn Mayo, New Castle, Pa.; Wendy Muldowney, Calumet City; Janet Picken, Savannah, Ga.; Trudy Roberts, Downers Grove; Valerie Saems, Crown Point, Ind.; Ann Taylor, New York, N.Y.; Barbara Trubeck, Park Ridge; Lynn Witt, Chicago; Maren Olson, Highland Park.

*ILLINOIS BETA-DELTA—KNOX COLLEGE. Chartered, 1930 (Beta 1872; Delta 1884). Pledge Day, November 19, 1962. AFFILIATED: Winifred Gentry, Illinois Z.

Since Homecoming when Judy Jablon, Dale Klama, and Leslie Martens reigned on the Homecoming Court, the Pi Beta Phi of Illinois B- Δ have settled into a busy schedule filled with activities and studies. Serving as senators to the Knox Student Senate are Barbara DeLong and Sandy Stack. Vicki Lewis is serving as vice president of the freshman class. Chapter members are keeping their fingers in the grease paint; Jan Anderson assisted in the production of "A Taste of Honey" and Ann Perkins will appear in "Man and Superman."

The Pi Beta Phi served as honorary pledges for ΣN one weekend this fall. $\Delta \Delta E$ and $\Phi \Gamma \Delta$ were both hosts to the chapter for dinner.

Dorilee Walworth presented her senior violin recital for the college. The chapter is also proud of Dorilee for being nominated by the Knox faculty as a candidate for a Woodrow Wilson Fellowship.

PLEGDED: Teresa Adams, Denver, Colo.; Vicky Anderson, Patricia Emard, La Grange; Virginia Bliss, Arlington Heights; Barbara DaPisa, Glen Ellyn; Elaine Hansen, Racine, Wis.; Judith Holland, Des Plaines; Victoria Lewis, Pelham, N.Y.; Elizabeth Little, Highland Park; Judith Lord, Stillman Valley; Ann Perkins, Middletown, Ohio; Patricia Seaman, Batavia; Elizabeth Rockwood, Buenos Aires, Argentina; Laura Seren, Chicago; Sandra Stack, Joplin, Mo.; Joyce Whittington, Evergreen Park.

The members of Illinois E were especially busy in activities this fall. Carol Jones, Linda O'Riordan, Kathy Herndon, and Alice Viertel served on Symposium committees. This was the second year for Northwestern's Symposium, during which outstanding personalities from various fields give lectures and seminars with the students. Lynn Woodrich, Jan Katek, Micky O'Neil, Judy Weed, and Arlene Mikos served on committees of Mock Congress.

The Pi Beta Phi were well represented as standards members of the Associated Women Students. Ellen Smith was elected president of Allison Hall, and Connie Billian was elected president of 1900 Orrington. Vicky Vickery served as president of her standards group.

Hoover Commission selected as one of its members Ellen Andrews. Bonnie Burst served on the publicity committee of the International Bazaar, while Barbara Hetler played a lead role in Dolphin Show. Jill McGovern became a member of the Women's Glee Club and also a member of Northwestern's honor hockey team.

Margaret Weatherly and Linda Lerch were busy as co-chairmen planning for the Pi Beta Phi Pops weekend. The event took place the weekend of November 17, the Michigan State game. The dads were kept busy with many activities including entertainment by their daughters.

The Homecoming festivities had special interest for the Pi Beta Phi as Jackie Mayer, Miss America 1963, returned for the occasion. A small informal party was held for her at the chapter house. For most of us, this was the first time we were able to see her since her crowning. Jackie hopes to return to Northwestern to finish her education.

*ILLINOIS ZETA—UNIVERSITY OF ILLINOIS. Chartered, 1895. Pledge Day, November 20, 1962. INITIATED, October 27, 1962: Bonnie Guimont, Oak Park; Susan James, Champaign.

During the Christmas season, Illinois Z and A X A were busy practicing for a Christmas concert which was taped and then presented on a local television station Christmas day. The holidays brought other festivities including our annual Winter Formal, which was presented by our pledge class.

In an all campus vote, Gail Veasman was elected to serve on Student Senate. Ann Hopkins was selected to serve on Freshman Council and was also elected social chairman of Junior Panhellenic. Patty Peck is one of ten finalists in the Illio Beauty Contest.

The Panhellenic system at the University of Illinois is going through a unique transition period this year. Up to this time, girls rushed in May or June and were able to move into the sorority houses the following September, but the new system will change the rush dates to fall, making it necessary for pledges to live in University housing. To prepare for this transition, Pi Beta Phi, as well as other sororities, pledged over their quota and then chose at random a number of pledges to live in the dormitories for one year. In addition to this, an informal rush was held in the fall. Panhellenic hopes that all pledges will be living out of the sororities by 1964. Although this plan has presented a number of new problems, we are confident that it will extend and greatly improve the Greek system on our campus.

PLEGDED: Julie Hughes, Kris Korst, Champaign; Sharon Porter, Mt. Vernon; Nicki Rappaport, Norridge; Sandy Rudd, Chicago.

*ILLINOIS ETA—MILLIKIN UNIVERSITY. Chartered, March 29, 1912. Pledge Day, September 16, 1962.

With the fall semester nearly over and finals just around the corner, Illinois H can look back at the semester's events with a great deal of pride and satisfaction. The chapter has worked closely throughout the semester, and each girl has felt its reward.

The annual university-sponsored Parents' Day was very successful for Illinois H as many of the parents were able to come. The chapter honored all of the parents with a luncheon at the house; the parents attended the football game in the afternoon. Judy Kay Powell and Marilyn Swanson were in charge of the all-university reception for the parents following the game.

Homecoming, as always, was a busy, but fun time. Illinois H was proud to place a close second in float competition; the theme of the entry was "The Birth of the Blue," commemorating the university's founding. In addition, the chapter and over ninety returning alumni were honored at a lovely buffet given by the local alumnae club.

The Alumnae Club style show and settlement school sale in November included several girls from the active chapter. Judy Hutton and Mary Ann Suter served as models; Darlene Heit, Martha Evans, Christina Kloker, Sara Hitzeman, and Mary Kay Gisolo were all part of the entertainment.

The Arrow Club has been most generous to us all. In November, nearly all of the mothers were able to come for the annual luncheon given by the Arrow Club in honor of the chapter. They have also presented the chapter with several lovely gifts.

As a chapter, Illinois H is proud to have served in both community and university-sponsored projects. Again this year, the chapter, along with other Greek organizations at Millikin, helped in the two day drive for the Lincoln State School for Retarded Children. All who participated felt that this was a most rewarding experience. Illinois H was also privileged to honor the young violinist, David Abel, at a reception following his university Fine Arts Series concert.

In addition to the many chapter activities, there have been numerous individual accomplishments. Judy Kay Powell, Pat Edie, and Martha Evans were chosen as Campus Chest Committee co-chairmen. Terry Taylor, Sara Hitzeman, Marilyn Wimberly, and Cheryl Thompson were chosen for the newly-formed freshman Pom Pon Squad; Ingrid Anderson was chosen alternate, and Cheryl Thompson was elected co-captain. Sara Hitzeman was elected president of the Pep Committee. Martha Evans was chosen co-chairman of the Student-Faculty Retreat; serving on her committee are Beth Gage, Jane Looft, and Chris Kloker.

Four Illinois H's were elected to Who's Who; juniors were Beth Gage and Judy Hutton and seniors were Bev Bray and Roz Cordts. Nancy Rice, Bev Bray, and Roz Cordts were chosen for II M O, senior women's honorary. The chapter is also very proud of Nancy McClelland who was awarded one of the Ecumenical Work Camp Scholarships to spend the summer abroad.

Christmas is always a very exciting time for all of the members of Illinois H. The chapter tree-trimming party opened the season for the house. The annual date-dinner was a lot of fun for all, as dates were honored with trick gifts. The chapter Christmas party and gift exchange was a delightful climax for a memorable Christmas season.

AFFILIATED: Pat Edie, Martha Evans.

*ILLINOIS THETA—BRADLEY UNIVERSITY. Chartered, May 17, 1947. Pledge Day, September 23, 1962.

Illinois Θ was honored with a visit from the province president, Mrs. Gross October 14 and 15. The first Pi Phi night was held in conjunction with her visit. To emphasize the scholarship program, the evening was highlighted by a "Steak and Beans" dinner. Those girls who had earned above a six-point average on the eight-point system were served steak; those from initiation average to a six-point ate hamburgers; and those below initiation average had beans. The scholarship committee presented a short skit describing the right and wrong ways to study.

Homecoming found Pi Beta Phi as its third-place stunt show, and Judy Angell and Patti Eidswick were princesses in the court. Carol Steffens reigned as ΣX Homecoming queen.

Cris Pritz was selected as publicity chairman of the all-girl drill team, the Meri-N-Ettes, with Jyl Wilkie as assistant choreographer.

Judy Angell is a new member of Chimes, a women's honorary, with Judy, Sue Brockmeier, and Anne Maple as members of WHO'S WHO.

In school government, Cris Pritz was recently appointed an All School Senator.

Dawn Kenny was selected to reign as the ΣN White Rose Queen for 1962.

"Moonlight and Mistletoe," the winter formal, was held on November 30. The highlight of the evening was the presentation of an "Honorary Pi Phi Man of the Year" trophy to Dr. Elwood of the Education Department.

One of the many activities of the year was a Mother-Daughter pizza party held at the home of one of the alumnae. Another activity was an open house January 13. The "Final Fling" was held from 2:00 to 5:00 with a band and refreshments.

*WISCONSIN ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN. Chartered, November 1, 1891. Pledge Day, October 8, 1962.

INITIATED, October 13, 1962: Barbara Regez, Madison; Mary Eichhorn, Sheboygan; Sharon Emerich, Minocqua; Kay Kujath, Waupun; Karen Mueller, Waukesha, Judy Schuler, Ripon; Karen Chilcutt, Key West, Fla.

Falling leaves and crisp October weather found Wisconsin A preparing for a fun-filled Homecoming Weekend. While Rose Bowl hopes ran high, Wisconsin A enthusiastically hammered and stuffed a sidewalk display with the Evans Scholars, teammates for the third year. Homecoming awards brought the Pi Beta Phi a third place in the fraternity-sorority decorations division of Homecoming Holidays. Our pledges won additional honors by winning first place in the WRA pompon selling contest, and in doing so they defeated all other sorority pledge classes on campus.

Mrs. Cuyler Adams, the new Kappa Province President, honored 233 Langdon with a visit during November. She conferred with each officer giving them constructive criticism, and attended various parties where she gave interesting news about other chapters in Kappa Province.

"Fashions Afloat," the annual AWS Fashion Show kept general chairman, Marcia Lawton busy through November. Of the fifteen models, there were five Pi Beta Phi, including Gretchen Brown, Karen Chilcutt, Kris Ekstrom, Margie Thompson and Carol Geisler. Capturing the spotlight as campus beauties were Marcia Lawton, a member of the Homecoming Court and Military Ball Court, and Karen Krumm, chosen Miss March of Dimes. Margie Thompson was selected as a $\Delta \Sigma \Pi$ Rose Queen runner-up.

Amid snow flakes and red noses, the December holidays began. First the Settlement School sale, with those popular Pi Beta Phi mugs, then a pledge Christmas party at Children's Hospital, and the chapter Christmas party complete with a fireside and the reading of the Littlest Angel. Highlighting the Christmas formal was the inauguration of "Our Pi Phi Man" chosen from sweethearts of Wisconsin A.

Carol Nechrony has been selected president of the Memorial Union, while Karen Jensen was chosen Panhellenic General Rush Chairman. Carol Condon was appointed Special Projects Director of WSA. The Wisconsin players production Wonderful Town will have the addition of Karen Krumm.

WISCONSIN BETA—BELOIT COLLEGE. Chartered, August 20, 1919. Pledge Day, September 23, 1962. INITIATED, October 21, 1962; Alice Gilbertson, Janesville; Nancy Lamson, Princeton, N.J.; Libby Larson, Fargo, N.D.; Betsy Reeve, Appleton; Pamela Watt, Cazenovia, N.Y.; Sally Young, Newton, Mass.; Barbara Youngren, Mount Prospect, Ill.

Saturday, October 30, found the Wisconsin B putting the finishing touches on their house decorations for the Homecoming weekend. Following the theme, "Bucs and Books," the chapter pictured "Vikings Enter Valhal," feeling that the Beloit Buccaneers would send the Lawrence Vikings to Valhalla in the afternoon football game. The house decoration placed second as Ellen Pepe was the attendant to the Homecoming queen.

The fall informal was held the 3rd of November at which time the girls and their dates went on a hayride, then returned to the house for a dance. The theme this year was "Autumn Leaves" and the house was warmly decorated in browns, golds, and yellows.

Just before winter vacation the alumnae surprised the chapter with a delicious dinner in celebration of Christmas. It was a wonderful opportunity for the girls to get to know their alumnae better and also for the new alumnae to meet the girls. Good food and warm friendship made the event a success.

January, the last month of the semester was filled with events. On January 5 the formal dance was held with $\Delta \Delta \Delta$ at Lake Lawn Resort. The dance was preceded by a dinner and later the Pi Phi king, Dan Steele, was crowned. The weekend of January 12 saw the Winter Carnival at Beloit College. Karen Wahamaki was crowned Queen of the Snow Saturday night following the skating contest which the Pi Beta Phi won in the afternoon. Marcia Ziehn was elected to Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities, and Susan Fullgrabe is editor of the college yearbook, The Gold.

But final exams were ahead and soon all settled down to two weeks of furious studying in a last effort towards higher scholarship.

PLEDGED: Martha Green, Susan Pelkey, Renee Teague, Carol Sargent.

Wisconsin Γ has again placed in the homecoming house decorations competition, this time taking second prize, working with $\Phi \Gamma \Delta$. Virginia McKee was one of the attendants to the homecoming queen.

Halloween saw Wisconsin Γ "good ghosting" to collect canned goods for needy families in the Appleton area.

A visit from Mrs. Adams, province president, late in November culminated in a serenade and cooky shine in her honor, given by the members of Wisconsin Γ .

For the second consecutive year, Wisconsin Γ won first place in the inter-sorority field hockey tournament. Sandra Karlson was elected to $\Phi \beta \kappa$. Judy Anderson is serving as president of Orchestis, and Jean Sydow as president of $H \Sigma \Phi$. Suet von der Heydt and Anne Haberland are co-social chairmen of the freshman dorm, and Peg Pfaffle is treasurer. Barb Wood is treasurer of Aqua-fin.

Coming up on the social calendar is our pledge formal with $\Phi \Delta \theta$, and a toga party with $\Delta T \Delta$.

PLEDGED, December 8, 1962: Jane Day, Libertyville, Ill.

PLEDGED, January 13, 1962: Margaret Cornelison, Minneapolis, Minn.; Deanna Davis, Glen Ellyn, Ill.; Julia Frazier, Marquette, Mich.; Holly Guequierre, Wauwatosa; Anne Haberland, Milwaukee; Marilyn Hill, Beloit; Sharyn Jacob, Wellesley Hills, Mass.; Gail-Sue Janisch, Evergreen Park, Ill.; Julie Lewanti, Athens, Greece; Sandy McDonald, Jan Quilling, St. Paul, Minn.; Carla Mettling, Margaret Pfaffle, Sue Von der Heydt, Wheaton, Ill.; Elaine Mossman, Iowa City, Iowa; Karen Noel, Decatur, Ill.; Martha Vitue, Ypsilanti, Mich.; Gretchen Weber, Sheboygan; Sewall Whittemore, Bellingham, Wash.; Jane Willson, Baraboo; Lucina Young, Marshalltown, Iowa; Annette Tool, Muskegon, Mich.

*MANITOBA ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF MANITOBA. Chartered, May 1929. Pledge Day, October 18th, 1962. INITIATED, January 2nd, 1963; Lesley Bremness, Edmonton; Carole Bourrier, Janet Burns, Brenda Croft, Sandy Eggertson, Barbara Fraser, Carol Grant, Irene Hofmeister, Myrna Macready, Gerry McMichael, Susie Pugh, Joan Tanchak, Kathy Taylor, Linda Wake, Winnipeg.

Manitoba A had a good opportunity to get acquainted with the new pledges at the several exchange parties held in the past few months. At Halloween time $\Phi \Delta \theta$ hosted a "horror" party and the pledges all donned graveyard costumes. The second party was held with θN at whose house our chapter holds its weekly meetings. At the suggestion of Mrs. Adams, province president, who visited our chapter at this time, we "auctioned" our pledges at the party to raise money for our rent. The pledges then performed their allotted tasks much to the delight of the hosts and guests alike.

A party was held at the $\Delta \Psi$ new house and the chapter decided to present the fraternity with little "humorous" house warming gifts, each monogrammed appropriately with $\Pi \beta \Phi$. These were proudly displayed in a place of honor on the mantel.

Pi Beta Phi and T K E went carolling at the Veterans' hospital Dec. 21. Pledges and actives of Manitoba A had a Pajama party afterward at one of the members homes, to celebrate the end of first term and the beginnings of Christmas holidays.

The second annual Christmas party for underprivileged children was held by Manitoba A at the Royal Alexandra hotel, December 23. The children were treated to games, carols and all the food they could eat. The chapter's "Fraternity Sweetheart" Bob Manning, acting as Santa Claus, distributed gifts to the delighted children. A Christmas hamper was donated to one of the needy families present at the party.

Pi Beta Phi Awards and Honors! Carole Bourrier was elected president of Wakonda, the association to which every woman registered at the University of Manitoba belongs. Kathy Taylor was awarded a Sixteen Hundred Dollar I.O.D.E. National War Memorial Scholarship. Kathy is Freshie Queen of the Faculty of Pharmacy. Carol Grant has won both the Manitoba Synchronized Swimming Strokes and Figures Championship and the Solo Championship. Linda Muir is candidate for ΔT Sweetheart and Brenda Croft is a candidate for T K E Sweetheart.

Pi Beta Phi eagerly anticipate our annual banquet and formal to be held January 12 in honor of the new initiates.

GAIL MOFFAT

NORTH DAKOTA ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF NORTH DAKOTA. Chartered, October 7, 1921. Pledge Day, September 15, 1962. INITIATED, September 29, 1962; Pamela Falk, Judy Fraser, Patricia Healy, Patty Ann Johnson.

We began the new school year on the right note by persuading Mrs. Stewart Tuft, National Director of Membership, to visit us during formal rush. Mrs. Tuft has a gift of charm that always seems to inject a bit more pep and energy into even the most tired of rushers, and we were very glad to have her as our guest. Thanks to Mrs. Tuft, one of our last rush parties will be one that is long remembered. At her suggestion, we completely dropped our party schedule, which by this time was quite mechanical, and entertained our last group of rushers completely "ad lib." Two ukuleles were brought out and the group progressed from listening to Pi Phi sing "original" ballads about one another to the entire group singing familiar folk songs.

One of the highlights of homecoming week-end was the alumnae breakfast we held in honor of the Pi Beta Phi graduates of 1937; their class was holding its 25-year reunion that weekend. The 1937 graduates gave Florence Larson, our cook, a corsage of baby roses. For "Flossie" was the Pi Beta Phi cook then just as she is now and a very important person in the North Dakota house.

We were able to meet our new Kappa Province President November 15 when Mrs. Cuyler Adams paid us a 4-day visit beginning then. Mrs. Adams offered many helpful suggestions to actives and pledges alike.

We invited two speakers to the house this fall. Mrs. Don Knutson of the Sherrie Pau Studio talked to us and answered questions concerning correct manners, etiquette, and dress for women. Dr. Carlton Green of the Wesley Foundation spoke on the text "Your Marriage Will Succeed If—"

The pledges sponsored a "beat-nik" party for Pi Beta Phi and their dates. The intriguing decorations, the savory refreshments, the talented entertainment, and the never ending enthusiasm of the hostesses all combined to make the party a great success.

Pi Beta Phi are always active in campus activities; several assumed new leadership and honorary positions this fall. Monica Hynek was elected to the Council of Christis Rex, the Lutheran student fellowship; Monica was also a delegate to the regional Mortar Board convention. Avis Goheen was chosen to be on the Greek Week Planning Committee. Teddy Shafer became the fourth Pi Beta Phi presently on the approximately 20-member governing board of the Association of Women Students when Penates elected her to be its representative. Joan Rustad was elected to membership in $B \Delta \Psi$, National Accounting Fraternity. Monica Hynek and Patricia McBride were invited to join $\Pi \beta \Phi$, honorary for women in education. Ruthanne Nedrud was elected president of the Little Sisters of Minerva. Nancy Rosenberger and Joan Nichols were chosen for membership in the Little Sisters of Minerva by the men of $\Sigma \Delta E$. Kathy Stroupe is also a member of the Little Sisters. Pat Gronowski was a finalist for $\Sigma \Delta E$ Pledge Princess. Arlene McNeill was elected campus homecoming queen attendant; she was also selected as a hockey cheerleader for the second year in succession. Merida Pleasance was chosen the first Pledge Princess of Delta Upsilon, UND's newest fraternity. Delta Upsilon's first Sweetheart, chosen last year, was also a Pi Beta Phi—Arlene McNeill. Nancy Fraser was crowned Sweetheart of $\Delta T \Delta$ at their annual Christmas Formal.

December brought in a rush of Christmas parties and activities. North Dakota A invited the local high school legacies over for supper and to help decorate the tree. A children's Christmas party was held for the children of the alumnae. Would you believe it? Santa Claus is a $\Theta \chi$! The best Christmas party of all, of course, was our own house party held December 17. The bus boys, the cook, and the pledges all contributed to the entertainment. North Dakota A gave Tony Skalenda of Winnepeg, Manitoba, our busboy for four years, his graduation present one month early—a Pi Beta Phi Brother's Pin.

A scheme which originated in the "money earning ideas department" had even better dividends in the "public relations department." University men could get their Christmas presents wrapped at the Pi Beta Phi house, and we later found out that they enjoyed the visiting while waiting for their presents.

PLEGDED: Sharon Anderson, Pekin; Susan Crawford, Rochester, N.Y.; Susan Duddleston, St. Paul, Minn.; Katherine Egert, Sioux Falls, S.D.; Judy Espeland, Dawne Grindeland, Diann Hager, Jacqueline Thomforss, Grand Forks; Penny Ferguson, Winnepeg, Man.; Patricia Gronowski, Mandan; Patricia Moniot, Philadelphia, Pa.; Doris Norman, Sandra Thompson, Westhope; Merida Pleasance, Akra; Sherron Poole, Hopkins, Minn.; Janice Senechal, Anamoose; Janet Anderson, Minot; Nancy Hosmer, Dunseith; and Jean Knoff, Drayton.

*MINNESOTA ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF MINNESOTA. Chartered, 1906. INITIATED, January 26, 1963: Jean Burkland, Buffalo; Linda Davis, Wayzata; Wendy Gislason, Judy Grohs, Kathy O'Connell, Sara Roscoe, St. Paul; Joyce Hamren, Owatonna; Judy Johnson, Barbara Robinson, Marge White, Minneapolis; Kathy Mc Grann, Watertown, S.D.; Pat Pierre, Mahtomedi; Pat Robl, Mary Vangen, St. Louis Park.

Once again, fall quarter at the University of Minnesota was a busy and rewarding experience for Minnesota A. The quarter began with a visit from the new Kappa Province President, Mrs. Connie Adams. Mrs. Adams is a resident of Minneapolis and has been an active alumna in this area for many years. Her warm and sincere manner along with her wise words added greatly to the already high enthusiasm of Minnesota A's actives and pledges.

The major all-university event of fall quarter was Homecoming. It was a great success. Although the Pi Beta Phi did not receive any awards for their endeavors in Homecoming, the cooperative effort of actives and pledges drew everyone closer together and added to the spirit of the chapter.

Minnesota A's pledges were kept very busy with many chapter and campus activities this quarter. The second week of the quarter, an Open House was held for them. Shortly after, the Mother's Club gave a tea in honor of the new pledges and their mothers. In November, Panhellenic Council and Interfraternity Council sponsored a Pledge Camp. All the pledges from the various fraternities and sororities on the Minnesota Campus attended this camp. They learned a considerable amount of valuable information about the ideals and goals of Minnesota's fraternity system and had a very enjoyable time.

During fall quarter many of the Pi Beta Phi worked on numerous campus organizations and committees. Some of Minnesota A's members were given special honors. Jan Barber was chosen as one of the five finalists for Homecoming Queen and Jean Burkland was a finalist for Rose of $\Delta \Sigma \Pi$. Kathy Pasek was honored by being elected to $\Sigma E \Sigma$, a sophomore honorary society and Julie Jons was chosen to be a Little Sister of Minerva.

The Fall Formal, the Grandmother-Granddaughter Dinner, Dad's Day and the active chapter-alumnae Christmas Party highlighted the social events Minnesota A participated in this quarter. The annual Dad's Day luncheon was held at the Pi Beta Phi chapter house and the Dads spent an enjoyable time being entertained by their daughters. The annual Christmas Party was also held at the house and was sponsored by the Minneapolis Alumnae Club. This was the last social event of the quarter and it ended fall quarter on a pleasant note.

Although winter quarter has just begun, Minnesota A has already obtained some honors. Myreen Gayle is Co-Chairman of Greek Week Song Fest and Sue Johnson is Co-Chairman of "Ski-train," an annual all-university weekend festivity. Also, Jan Barber and Gloria Bodlund are up for Greek Week Queen. Minnesota A is hoping that winter quarter will bring the Pi Beta Phi many honors and much enjoyment.

On December 10, 1962, the Panhellenic Banquet was held at the Northern Alberta Jubilee Auditorium. On this occasion Alberta Alphas were presented with the coveted Panhellenic Scholarship Trophy presented for the highest overall average of all the women's fraternities on campus. Pi Phi's won more honors—a silver engraved coffee spoon was presented to Judy Kales for having the highest individual average among the 1961-62 pledge classes, and Michelle Jersperon Mercer won honorable mention for having the second highest active average.

The Trophy now occupies the place of honor on the Chapter Room mantle—it is a beautiful new trophy this year—a rosebowl.

A new big sister system was begun this year for graduates who are assigned big sisters from the alumnae club. Alumnae big sisters accompanied their active little sisters to the Panhellenic Banquet. It is expected that alum-active relations will be strengthened through this plan and that new alumnae will be eager to participate in the alumnae club after their graduation.

The Doctor Margaret Hutton Ring was awarded to Ann Dodds as the outstanding Pi Phi of the year. The award was presented at a cooky shine which was attended by Mrs. Adams, Kappa Province President, on her visit to Edmonton.

The house-girls of K A Θ Δ Γ and Pi Beta Phi teamed for an "on-the-go" dinner party. Housemothers were the honored guests. Everyone agreed that the evening was a success!

An enthusiastic pledge class entertained the actives at a costume party on December 7, 1962. The theme "Welcome to Hades" inspired many ingenious costumes.

PLEGDED: Dianne Attwood, Betty Anne Davies, Sheila Evans, Judy Elliott, Elizabeth Frost, Sandra McCuag, Rosemary Morris, Jacqueline Ramsey, Audrey Rea, Patricia Sereda, Maureen Stuart, Linda Switzer, Wendy Taylor, Edmonton; Sheila Johnson, Marcia Mitchell, Annamary Williams, Patricia Aitkin, Calgary; Dale Robertson, Benchazi, Libya; Sandra Janzen, Wetaskiwin; Elizabeth Klimovich, Camrose; Noreen Callahan, High River; Elaine Maher, Innisfail.

*MISSOURI ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF MISSOURI. Chartered, 1889. Pledge Day, September 7, 1962. INITIATED, December 2, 1962: Susan Seelen, Nancy Pugh, Columbia; Susan Graham, Susan McDougall, Kirkwood; Donna Sue Barnes, Trenton; Kathy Fay, Rockport; Karen Flemming, Kansas City; Mary Ellen Kirtley, Independence; Tina Layman, Parkville; Judy Graves, Hannibal; Bobbie Aussieker, St. Louis; Sherie Randol, Chillicothe; Jane Rison, Des Moines, Iowa; Betsy Slayton, Wausau, Wis.; Kathy Stenzel, Belleville, Ill.; Laura Grebel, Chicago, Ill.; Marcia Beck, Decatur, Ill.; Karen Goltz, Alton, Ill.; Sara Hatcher, Walnut Ridge, Ark.

Missouri A had a busy fall semester. Mizzou's Golden Homecoming was joyously celebrated when Mary Ann Azar was selected Homecoming Queen. Also, Mary Ann headed the House Decorations Committee for this gala week end. Nancy Low, $\Phi \Gamma \Delta$ Sweetheart, rode on their float in the parade.

As a part of the annual Greek Week, Panhellenic and Interfraternity Council jointly sponsored a drive for toys to be given to the underprivileged children of Columbia. Pi Beta Phi and ΣN jointly collected seven hundred toys, spent a day repairing them, and carried home a trophy for collecting the most toys of any group that participated. Several chapter members were delegates to the Greek Week Banquet, which culminated the week's activities.

Christmas was an exciting time with the Christmas formal, Angel Week, and the annual Christmas Party. Pi Beta Phi and $\Sigma A E$ carolled at the Boone County Hospital, helping to make the season more merry for everyone. As vacation drew closer, many Pi Beta Phi's made plans to go to the Blue Bonnet Bowl.

Nancy Wright and Susanne Grayson were elected to Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges, and Jeanne Ann Taylor was selected for Angel Flight. In the realm of Beauties, Dee Hartley and Susan Hart were chosen to represent Pi Beta Phi in the "Ten Best Dressed Girls" contest.

As vacation came to a close, Missouri B went into "hibernation" in anticipation of the coming final week.

*MISSOURI BETA—WASHINGTON UNIVERSITY. Chartered, 1907. Pledge Day, October 4, 1962. INITIATED, October 21, 1962: Maggie Henriksen, Lincoln, Neb.; Barbara Jenkins, Delaware, Ohio; Alice Lagod, Arlington Heights, Ill.; Nancy Paton, Streator, Ill.; Penny Prada, Fulton.

Missouri B welcomes two new affiliates, Pam Morrow and Susan Wiltier. Both girls have been participating actively in chapter functions, and have brought many new suggestions with them from their former groups.

The chapter enjoyed many before Christmas treats, thanks to the alumnae and mothers' clubs. Among them were a Christmas party and dinner, given before the vacation, and a coffee for all Pi Beta Phi's living in St. Louis which took place during the holiday week.

Two pledges, Carole (Monty) Stotts and Flicka Rahn began their college career by being accepted to sing in the University's Madrigal Group, a highly select organization of exceptional vocalists. Another member of the pledge class, Carole Caylor, has been elected captain of the Freshman Cheerleaders.

Ann Boyer is Washington University's New Homecoming Queen, with Betty Rice and Cyrella Sennert as two of her four special maids. The Homecoming Dance was a great success; three orchestras played in three different ballrooms, providing Dixieland, music for twisting, and something for the tastes of more mellow parents and faculty members.

At the bonfire and dance on the day before Homecoming, Manon Cleary and her partner Theo Carl of $\Sigma A E$ won a trophy for their championship style in dancing the twist.

Angel flight selected Deanna Deerr, Suzanne Earhart, Marty Kerr, and Maggie Henriksen for membership.

Katy Telpher was chosen Diamond Princess of $\Sigma \Phi E$. Suzanne Earhart is Pi Beta Phi's Chairman for the $\Pi B \Phi Z B T$ entry in the 1963 Thurtene Carnival.

Brave members of Missouri B challenged K A Θ to a hockey match, and after a fun-filled game both teams finished in a tie.

The chapter enjoyed visits from Mrs. Mansfield and Mrs. Lafon, Lambda Province President during the fall semester.

Finally, all the actives and pledges of Missouri B send a friendly "hi!" to Lynne Turner, who is spending the year in Strasbourg, France.

*MISSOURI GAMMA—DRURY COLLEGE. Chartered, 1889. Pledge Day, September 22, 1962.

Elected to the cheerleading squad by the Drury student body were Missouri P's Mary Horton, Jane Brite, and Vicki Carter. Vicki was then chosen as squad captain by the newly elected cheerleaders.

Saunty Burks was chosen one of the finalists in the annual Springfield Miss Merrie Christmas contest.

Missouri Pi Beta Phis were delighted to meet their new Lambda Province President, Mrs. Thomas H. Lafon, who visited the chapter in November. A dinner was given in her honor in the chapter rooms with actives and pledges attending.

On October 29, chapter members honored Jane Henderson, their alumnae sponsor, with a special dinner. Following the dinner, Jane was proclaimed and crowned "Pi Beta Phi Mother of the Year" in recognition of the years she has spent guiding and advising her "girls" in actions and attitudes becoming members of Pi Beta Phi fraternity. After being presented a silver-blue scrapbook trimmed in gold and entitled "Your Life in Pi Beta Phi," Jane was serenaded by the entire chapter with songs especially arranged for the occasion. To conclude the ceremony, Jane was presented a silver bowl inscribed with the date and chapter insignia.

*ARKANSAS ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF ARKANSAS, Chartered, December 29, 1909. INITIATED, October 20, 1962: Mattalou Roth, Vicki Simmons, Siloam Springs; Sharon Drake, Nancy Ritchie, Little Rock; Donna Erickson, Ft. Smith; Judy Bell, Dallas, Tex.; Mary Jane Webb, Helena; Sallie Kinman, Roswell, New Mexico; Susie Wilcoxson, Walnut Ridge; Mrs. Peter Blanton, Marked Tree; Mrs. John Conner, Newport; Mrs. Courtney Crouch, Springdale.

Mrs. Madeleine Closs Lafon, Lambda Province President, visited Arkansas A in December after having been in Little Rock supervising the new Pi Beta Phi colony, the former B Xs, at Little Rock University.

University of Arkansas's Panhellenic Council has adopted a new combined rush booklet to replace the previously distributed individual booklets.

Arkansas As Ann Rector and Linda Cox won the WRA tennis doubles tournament.

Gene Chambers was selected as a member of the 1962 Homecoming court. To close the football season in 1962, Karen Giss represented the University of Arkansas at the Cotton Bowl, and Arkansas A was proud to support the Razorbacks in the Sugar Bowl.

Cathie Rimmel, Susan Linebarger, Betty Copeland, and Jane Kitchen were appointed to Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities. Jill Thompson is a member of A E Δ national honorary pre-med fraternity.

Susan Helmig, an ROTC sponsor, has been honored by an invitation to attend Mardi Gras in New Orleans as a guest of the ROTC department.

Arkansas A pledge mothers and daughters enjoyed the Christmas party held at the chapter house preceding the Christmas holidays. Gifts were exchanged, refreshments were served, and a skit was presented by Santa Claus, Ann Canaday, to the enjoyment of the chapter and guests Mrs. Alice Renfrow and Mr. and Mrs. Jim Gregory.

*LOUISIANA ALPHA—SOPHIE NEWCOMB COLLEGE, Chartered, October 29, 1891. Pledge Day, October 1, 1962. INITIATED, November 12, 1962: Nancy Dulaney, Fort Worth, Tex.

The sororities at Newcomb College were informed by the faculty this fall that a system of deferred rush will be inaugurated next year.

The members of Louisiana A have been very busy this semester with several charity projects. Volunteers from the chapter go to the Kingsley House five days a week to supervise nursery schools for underprivileged children. The chapter also "adopted" a needy family for Christmas and presented it with useful articles of clothing as well as toys for the children and a trimmed Christmas tree.

Tulane had an exciting homecoming weekend and Pi Beta Phi won third place in decorations. The chapter volleyball team placed first again this year in the Panhellenic volleyball tournament.

The pledges have been very active on the campus this year. Mary Helen Young was elected vice president of the freshman class, and Mary Brown was elected secretary of the freshman class. Susan Graham was chosen to be the freshman representative to the Newcomb Honor Board.

The pledges gave a pizza party for the actives on November 17, and the chapter reciprocated with a surprise breakfast for the pledges on December 9.

Louisiana A was honored with a visit from our new province president during the last week of November.

Rosemary Fleming, Harryette Turpin, and Jenny Williams were chosen to Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities. Carol Ann McKay Terry and Janet White were initiated into K Δ II. In the Darling of LSU contest Judy Harris and Jacque Bland were among the twenty-five finalists. Rosemary Fleming was initiated into Φ K Φ. Judy Walker, Carol Ann Butcher, and Rosemary Fleming were members of the Homecoming Court.

During the Thanksgiving season the chapter working in conjunction with SAE Fraternity entertained children from the Louisiana State School for the Deaf with a Thanksgiving supper.

One of the highlights of the fall semester was the annual pledge-sponsored Christmas party. The actives were entertained with skits, presents, and surprises.

Another highlight of the semester was the visit of Mrs. Thomas H. Lafon, the new Lambda Province President, to our chapter.

*MISSISSIPPI ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF SOUTHERN MISSISSIPPI, Chartered, April 8, 1961. Pledge Day, September 23, 1962.

Pi Beta Phi has won quite a few honors during the fall quarter, both individually and collectively. Joann Watts was selected as an R.O.T.C. sponsor and a II K A Calendar girl. Pi Beta Phi had three members selected to Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities. No other group had as large a representation this year. Those selected were Barbara Ann Bilbo, Sara Stringer, and Joyce Sanders. Barbara W. Bilbo was honored by being elected Junior Class Secretary and Class Favorite.

Pi Beta Phi participated in the homecoming parade with a float and several cars. In October the chapter gave a supper honoring the active and pledge presidents of the seven fraternities on campus. At the X Ω Song Fest, the group sang, "Remember" and "It's Beginning to Look a Lot Like Christmas." In spite of these and other activities, Pi Beta Phi rose from fifth to first place scholastically on campus. Over 60% of the chapter was on the honor role. Mississippi A intends to retain this honor.

*IOWA ALPHA—IOWA WESLEYAN COLLEGE, Chartered, 1867. Pledge Day, September 30, 1962.

Iowa A has reason to be proud of the effort it has put forth so far this year. The seeds of work have yielded a fine harvest of trophies and honors. Homecoming came early this fall; but the chapter, eager to win laurels, quickened the industrious pace of mind and hand and brought forth a first place skit and float. The beautiful new trophies symbolize weeks of planning, rehearsal, and manual work.

However, honors did not cease to befall the chapter of Iowa A. Soon, Phyllis Sterk was elected queen of the lettermen at an annual dance. Shortly thereafter, Leah McCahon was chosen for Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities. More honors fell to Rita Russell and Jane Breder who placed in the district "Make It With Wool" contest.

Yet, the activity of Pi Beta Phi continued. The chapter next engaged in the presentation of a gay Halloween informal, the lucrative work of a carwash, the entertainment of college faculty at an open house in the chapter rooms. A special treat awaited Iowa A; for the Mount Pleasant Alumnae Club held a banquet for the members, at which a delicious meal was furnished by gracious women.

Christmas brings many different forms of tradition, and so it was with the festivities of Iowa A. First, there was the customary caroling to those less fortunate than they. Next there was a chapter party in the Pi Beta Phi rooms and the exchanging of gifts. Then came the tree decorating party at which the members were accompanied by their dates. Popcorn strings are a traditional decoration for the Christmas tree of Iowa A, and this year the popcorn was cooked in a new popcorn popper given to the chapter by the Des Moines Alumnae Club.

The chapter is now busy with plans for a winter formal that is scheduled for January 11. It promises a night of much gaiety, and the members eagerly work to add another laurel to the name of Pi Beta Phi.

*IOWA BETA—SIMPSON COLLEGE, Chartered, 1874. Pledge Day, September 14, 1962. While turning the calendar to a new year, Iowa B looks back on the past one with fond remembrances. In the past semester we were awarded the Scholarship Cup for the third consecutive semester on the merit of a grade point average of 3.01.

Scholarship ranks high but not to the exclusion of campus activities. Ioan Book and Carolyn Bakker were elected to membership in Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities because of outstanding scholarship and service to their college community.

The Surfside Four (Jean Ewing, Sharon Wolf, Carolyn Bakker and Caryl Aschbacher) and the Cameos (Meredith Beardsley, Barb Christensen, Sue Willis and Susan Foster) were Pi Beta Phi entries in the Barbershop Quartet Contest. Wearing quaint costumes of the 1880's the Cameos sang their way to second place.

Silence reigns now, as the final week approaches and our scholarship chairman (Carol Van Bergen) encourages everyone to study diligently and aim toward winning the grade cup.

Judy Kooser was pledged to Σ T Δ, National Honorary English Fraternity, on Sunday, January 13, 1963.

1962: Barbara Erbe, Boone; Lynne Johnson, Nevada; Margie Wilson, Mount Pleasant, INITIATED, December 2, 1962; Mary Cord, Sioux City.

It is time once again for Iowa Γ to look back upon a busy fall season and the many accomplishments of Pi Beta Phi. Iowa Γ awarded its diamond arrow to Barbara Haugen. This arrow is given each quarter to the girl who is considered to be the most co-operative in the chapter. Barbara also represented Iowa State as one of the twenty-five candidates for American Royal Queen in Kansas City.

Betts Baukol had the lead in the opera Gianni-Schicchi which was presented on campus during Homecoming. Betts was also elected president of the pledge class for Σ A I, music honorary. Karen Coletti and Margie Wilson were also tapped as new members of Σ A I.

At the end of September Pi Beta Phi cleaned the house inside and out in preparation for the arrival of our new housemother, Mrs. Jennie Stevens (Mrs. Don) from Shenandoah, Iowa. Mother Jennie has a special place in her heart for Pi Beta Phi since her daughter was an Indiana B.

The following weekend Iowa Γ had the pleasure of entertaining our Grand President, Mrs. Alice Weber Mansfield. On Sunday evening during her visit we had a chocolate hour in her honor to which campus, city, and alumnae friends were invited.

Fall quarter also started the first joint active-pledge meetings on the first Monday night of each month. The program for the first meeting was a report by Sue Tomlinson and Sue Uhlinger on the convention held in Washington, D.C.

Sue Tomlinson was elected first vice president of Phi Upsilon Omicron, home economics honorary. Newly tapped members this fall were Barbara Haugen, Cleta Iverson, and Sondy Krumrey.

Barbara Throckmorton, Polly Kent, and Karen Coletti performed with the modern dance club in the annual Christmas Festival on campus.

A number of Iowa Γ pledges are becoming quickly involved in campus activities this fall. Mary Larson is program chairman for Junior Panhellenic, Linda Sprague is secretary for the Greek Week service project, and Sandy Wood is a member of Naiads.

Many hours go into preparation for the annual three-day spring festival, Veishea. Memi Rodriguez and Barbara Erbe are co-ordinators for Stars Over Veishea's production of "The Music Man." Margie Wilson is secretary for Veishea publicity and Sondy Krumrey is co-chairman for the Veishea home economics open house.

Among other campus honors and positions: Betts Baukol is a member of Chamber Singers; Sue Wentzell is Forum secretary for People-To-People; Barbara Flickinger is a finalist for Bomb (yearbook) Beauty.

Deanna Smith Waters, Pi Beta Phi senior, and her husband are once again directors of Stars Over Veishea's production.

Winter quarter found Jan Readhead being awarded the diamond arrow and Sue Uhlinger the scholarship arrow.

The largest undertaking at present for Pi Beta Phi is the Varieties skit which we are doing with Δ Σ Φ . Nancy Lessel wrote the skit and is also co-director of it. The theme is a serious one centered around brotherhood.

Carol Straehle is taking charge of the memorial fund for our late housemother, Mrs. Mary Don Carlos. A committee is looking into the possibility of a scholarship or chapter library in her memory.

The members of Iowa Z have had a very active and eventful school year. Jean Fee was first runner-up at the Profile Previews style show presented each year by the freshman women. The Dolphin's, a men's swimming fraternity, chose Jean Fee to be a member of the Dolphin Queen Court. Linda Markulin was a finalist for the Sigma Nu Homecoming Queen and Karen Harris was selected Σ N White Rose Queen. Angel Flight, which just started on this campus, selected Mary Bywater as a charter member. Angel Flight is an auxiliary unit of the Air Force Reserve Officers Training Corp to further interest in the Air Force. Becky Ross was chosen art chairman for the International Foreign Student's Festival.

The house was decorated for the Christmas season with white flocked trees, decked with red birds. The members with the help of the housemother, Mrs. Evans, made a life-sized angel which covered the front door to greet the visitors.

Social events included Dad's Day activities, the annual football dinner which is given in honor of the varsity football team, and a Christmas Banquet at which the members entertained their dates. A scholarship dinner was held honoring those members with high scholastic records for the previous semester. The house Christmas party with one of the members playing Santa Claus was held also.

Last fall, rush week was especially exciting for Nebraska B. We are very proud of our new pledge class. The pledge's first real big activity as new Pi Beta Phi was Σ X Derby Day. They won it hands down and carried the trophy home singing joyously, "Pi, Pi Beta Phi."

One of the most thrilling moments was the outcome of the all university election for Homecoming Queen. Susie Salter was elected. For the past two years, the queen has been an independent woman and the year preceding that, the queen was a Pi Beta Phi.

Nebraska B is proud of several members who were elected to membership and offices in campus honoraries. Serving as commander of Angel Flight, a new organization on our campus is Ruthanne Read, and new initiates are Kaye Schnurr and Christie Brehm. Initiated into Σ A H was Kaye Schnurr. Other members are Sara Brewster and Sue Vandercar. Susie Salter, Diane Armour, and Diane Joens were initiated into Π A Θ . Diane Armour was recently elected as president of Tassels and Joanie Graves is president of A A Δ . Gail Galloway, president of M E, has a lead in Street Scene.

Three of the four finalists for the cheerleading contest were Pi Beta Phi pledges. Becky Haas won the contest.

We spent a delightful weekend with Mrs. Roy J. Koza, our Province President, early in November.

December brought many exciting Christmas parties. The Pledge Formal was one of the highlights of the season. One week end night we had a fireside carol sing in the living room. The girls and their dates enjoyed egg nog and apple cider while singing Christmas Carols. After closing hours we had our traditional gift exchange. The senior girls played Santa Claus with background music of carols on the Stereo.

The following night we had a slumber party with the Γ Φ B's. We all had a good time and got very little sleep.

The alumnae children's Christmas party was really a lot of fun this year. It was mainly for the smaller children with Santa Claus coming with a pack of toys on his back. Their eyes really sparkled.

During Christmas vacation, the Omaha Alumnae Club entertained Pi Beta Phi actives, legacies, and mothers at a brunch.

This fall semester has been a busy one for the Pi Beta Phi at the University of Kansas. On October 22 we moved into our new chapter house. The construction was finished slightly behind schedule, but the house itself was well worth the delay. We had two open houses, one for alumnae and parents on December 8 and one for faculty and students on December 9.

In spite of the confusion of moving we have been very active in campus affairs. Pi Beta Phi and B Θ II are entering a script for the Rock Chalk Revue, the student variety show. We have received honors as individuals in the areas of scholarship, queens, and activities. Sue Hardisty was chosen to be one of the Hilltoppers, who are considered to be outstanding seniors and are presented in the yearbook. Linda Machin was a Military Ball Queen finalist; Pat Wyles, a Pershing Rifles Sponsor finalist; and Judy Kleinberg, the Σ N White Rose Queen.

Jay Jones, the honorary upperclasswomen's pep club, elected Marilyn Crompt as its president. The Debate Squad of the University of Kansas claims Ann Leffer as one of its members. At the end of November Melinda Hall and Mary Baumgartner attended the annual conference of Region 8 of the Association of College Unions at Iowa State University. In December Kay Cash, the Greek women's representative to the All Student Council, attended the Student Government Conference at the University of Missouri.

December 16 was the date of our traditional Christmas Buffet for our dates. The toys we brought for our dates were later collected and distributed to underprivileged children.

Excitement was high when Kansas B won first place in homecoming decorations with the slogan, "A Step to Progress," depicting Kansas State University's centennial year.

New members of K Δ II include Susie Young, Ruth Fiser, Lydia Howell, and Mary Jo Rupp. Harriet Meals, Rae Ann Mettlen, Rita Mundhenke are new members of Angel Flight. Susie Young was the delegate from Kansas State University to the Midwest Model United Nations in St. Louis, Missouri. Debbie Hines was selected for Φ A M. Mary Bliss is the president of Little Sisters of Minerva. New initiates of Little Sisters of Minerva are Ann Bates, Nancy Noyes, and Marty Lairmore.

Queen honors were awarded to Kay Ingersoll when she was chosen Barnwarmer Queen. Tody Tripp was chosen as A T Ω-Σ N Blackfoot-Whitefoot Queen while Letty Staebler was chosen queen for the II K A-II K Θ Duo.

The annual II Ψ-K K Γ Duo was held in the form of a barn party with jack-o-lanterns as decorations and favors. One of the highlights of the fall semester was the dedication of the new chapter house held October 13, 1962. Our Grand President, Mrs. Alice W. *OKLAHOMA ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF OKLAHOMA, Chartered, September 1, 1910. Pledge Day, September 10, 1962. For the second consecutive semester, the Pi Beta Phi pledge class walked off with the OU Panhellenic Pledge Scholarship cup and the members of Oklahoma A placed second among campus chapter ranks.

Sue McCoy has been named one of nine recipients of a $100 Panhellenic scholarship.

Pi Beta Phi has been selected as one of the large group acts in "Sooner Scandals," the student variety show. Under the direction of Nanelle Wall, Oklahoma A's entry—Operation KICK—combines humor and satire in a clever presentation. Win or lose, the chapter is enjoying working together on rehearsals, making costumes and painting scenery.

Oklahoma A is especially proud of Cynthia Curtis, chosen by faculty and students as the most outstanding senior woman on the OU campus. This presentation is based upon grades, activities and contributions to the college.

Honoring the new housemother, Mrs. Velma Pfeiffer, Oklahoma A held a tea and open house to introduce her to other campus housemothers, faculty members and students.

Jane Monroe was elected by fellow classmates as one of nine to represent the entire freshman class in the OU Student Senate. Nancy Coffman is serving as WRA reporter and Nancilu Jackson has been chosen campus intramural chairman, responsible for coordinating all women's athletics.

Oklahoma A is happy to welcome as a new neighbor on "fraternity row," K Δ sorority, which has just completed a beautiful new house. We are very glad for them.

Dawn Dobbins has gained national recognition both for herself and Pi Beta Phi by being named the winner of the Γ A X "Advertising Leadership of Tomorrow" award. Dawn serves as president of the OU chapter of Γ A X, honorary women's advertising fraternity.

Mary Nagle and Beth Kennedy were honored when they were presented as debutantes in the annual Beaux Arts Ball in Oklahoma City. Later, they were again recognized when they were named to the list of Bachelor Club debutantes. Oklahoma A is very proud of them both.

In order that Pi Beta Phi may get to know the OU faculty members better, and at the same time give these instructors a chance to see how Pi Beta Phi live, Oklahoma A has been hostess for three faculty dinners. Everyone fully enjoys these and Pi Beta Phi entertains its guests with skits and singing.

Judy Jones, Kathy Munn and Kathy Guy are active in the OU Ducks club, invitational women's synchronized swimming organization. Kathy Guy is also a member of Orchestis, honorary women's dance group.

Ann Forrester has been named as one of the four finalists in the Navy Queen race, while Stephanie Thomas has been chosen by the Army as one of its Honorary Lieutenant Colonels. Nancilu Jackson represents Oklahoma A as an Honorary Lieutenant Colonel in the Air Force.

Pi Beta Phi was especially pleased with a visit from the Grand President, Mrs. Alice Weber Mansfield. Her stay with Oklahoma A gave each of us a chance to get to know the woman who exemplifies the highest in Pi Beta Phi.

Oklahoma A also had a warm and good exchange of ideas when Mrs. R. Brack, province president, visited us earlier this fall. Pi Beta Phi is looking forward to her coming again.

OKLAHOMA BETA—OKLAHOMA STATE UNIVERSITY, Chartered, August 12, 1919. Pledge Day, January 7, 1963. Oklahoma B has been keyed to a high pitch of excitement this semester as many beauty, scholastic, and leadership awards have been bestowed on the chapter.

Oklahoma State University seemed to be spotlighting Pi Beta Phi this year during Greek Week. Jan Post was selected to serve as co-chairman of the week-long activities. Our chapter was chosen the Greek group with the most outstanding participation during the seven days. To climax the fun-filled festivities, the fraternity men again elected a Pi Beta Phi, Courtney Risner, to reign as Princess Athena.

Additional beauty honors include Una Thurston, yearbook beauty finalist; Judy Jones, lettermen's club queen runner-up; and Becky Hart and Carole Grant, Scabbard and Blade sweetheart nominees. The Student Union Fair found four Pi Beta Phis sponsored by fraternities. Lynn Yelton was the candidate of B Θ II; Janet Terrill was A T O's entry; Ann Hill was sponsored by II K A; Judy Martin, Σ X's choice, was elected 1962 Fairest of the Fair, Σ X then proceeded to choose Judy as their candidate for province sweetheart. As a third distinction, Judy was elected finalist for queen of the college of arts and sciences.

Our queenly realm extended far beyond the OSU campus as Gladeen Burris became a finalist in the National Maid of Cotton contest in Memphis, Tenn. We were particularly proud of our pledge class, for two varsity cheerleaders hail from the Pi Beta Phi house in the persons of Jeanne Cooper and Jerlyn Davis, both pledges.

But emphasis is also placed upon scholarship. Janet Terrill, Brenda Turner and Anne Larason were tapped for Φ K Φ. Both Anne and Brenda were selected for Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities. Other scholastic honors include Σ T Δ, honorary English, which chose Gladeen Burris, Becky Hart and Linda West; Ψ X, psychology, Barbara Hopkins; Σ A Σ, business, Lois Gearhard; and II Ω II, business education, Susie Froge. *TEXAS ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF TEXAS, Chartered, February 2, 1902. Pledge Day, September 16, 1962. INITIATED, November 12, 1962: Roberta Jean Nelson, Houston.

Texas A has had a quite successful fall semester. Academically speaking, both the actives and the pledges have done well. Special mention may be given to Penny Murchison and Ginny Graham who were tapped for Spooks, and to Bea Ann Smith who was tapped for Orange Jackets.

It was an honor for Pi Beta Phi to have another campus officer this fall, as Jan Jopling was elected student assemblyman. Another campus celebrity was Chris Guess, who was chosen freshman cheerleader.

Texas A would like to boast, too, of her "Miss Populars" galore. Cecile Autrey and Ann Walters were two of the ten chosen for Most Beautiful of the University of Texas. Out of the seven Pi Beta Phi pledges who were semi-finalists for freshman beauty, Ann Hall was one of the six girls to be chosen as finalists. Linda MacDaniel worked hard to sell the majority of tickets to the charity Cowboy Minstrels, and her charm was the winning touch crowning her Cowboy Sweetheart. Jeanne Amacker was recently elected Miss Austin in the Miss Austin Pageant sponsored by the Texas Union. Maybe Pi Beta Phi will have a Miss Universe!

The time of the year for fraternity sweethearts has not come; however, the chapter is equally as proud of Macey Hodges, Portia, Law School Sweetheart, Ann Walters, Scherazade, Sweetheart of Arabic Students, and Kay Sealy. Chemical Engineering Sweetheart, Susan Fowler and Eden VanZandt were selected for Angel Flight, and Kay Bailey was chosen R.O.T.C. Sponsor.

The Monmouth Duo was Texas A's social "spectacular" for this semester. Because K K Γ-Pi Beta Phi were both founded at Monmouth, Illinois, and because both chapters always celebrate their close founding dates each year, it was decided that the Monmouth Duo would be a unique way to commemorate these occasions. The two chapters held a semi-formal together, January 5, at which time favors were given containing both chapter's crests. Everyone seemed to praise the idea; everyone, indeed, enjoyed the dance; and everyone hoped to continue having it. It was a tremendous success.

The pledges, of course, have been working hard all semester on grades, projects, and pranks. They accomplished the feat of winning Wood-Gathering for the Aggie bonfire again this year—a tradition which Texas A hopes to continue! At the moment, though, all activity has appeared to cease, for finals are right around the corner.

Plans are already being made for next year's rush. The new rush captain, Martha Sealy, and her assistant, Kay Sealy, have presented many new ideas for procedures, plays, decorations, etc. We are anticipating a successful rush already, especially with the help of our new house addition due to be completed by next September. The fall semester has been an active and profitable one for Texas B. Homecoming this year was an exciting event, for a Texas B pledge, Linda Shank, was selected as first runner-up for Freshman Homecoming Queen, and the house decoration of the chapter won third place. Gail Meletio represented Pi Beta Phi as nominee for Homecoming Queen.

Texas B is proud of its individual members who have been recognized on the campus with various honors. Pat Hearn, a junior pledge, was selected as a member of Southern Methodist University Royalty and is a member of the modeling squad. Gail Meletio was elected as secretary of her senior class. Susan Tubb was chosen as K Σ Pledge Sweetheart. Ann Roberts was elected to serve as president of Junior Panhellenic, which is reactivating its program this year under her leadership in co-ordination with the Panhellenic's revitalized spirit of unity and co-operation. Several national honoraries also selected chapter members to join their organizations: Carolyn Seilheimer, $\Sigma T \Delta$; Harriett Calhoun, $\Sigma \Delta \Pi$; Linda Lowry, $B K \Gamma$; Mary Helen Barksdale, $\Pi \Delta \Phi$ and the psychology honorary, Linda Lowry was also selected to serve on the Student Senate Recruitment Committee, which is working on recruiting top students to attend Southern Methodist University.

Looking ahead to the new year, Molly Porter was chosen to head the House Decorations Committee of the Student Center. Also, when the Associated Women's Students posted its slate of new officers, it was found that four Texas Π Beta Phi were slated for office: Sally Griffith for president, Susy Scrafford for second vice president, Diane Ley for treasurer, and Judy Mason for Colt-Wrangler chairman. It seems as if the spring will be a busy one for Texas Π .

The spirit of revitalization noted above in the activities of Panhellenic and the Student Senate is being carried out in the whole campus community through what is termed the Master Plan, which is an investigation of all areas of university life through various committees in order to formulate a plan whereby Southern Methodist University may be strengthened as a university. The optimistic attitude prevalent on the campus is very stimulating, and it may be hoped that this attitude will manifest itself in a true betterment of the campus community in the years to come.

Texas Γ Pi Beta Phi were pleased with fall election returns when Tanya Tarkington was elected freshman cheerleader and Lynn McElroy was chosen to represent the sophomore class as secretary. Carolyn Davis was also a homecoming queen candidate, and Ginny Ridge and Lady Falls became Little Sisters of Minerva.

Pi Beta Phi who are in the spotlight on campus this winter are Anne Weaver, Betsy Baker, and Cathy Gordon who were chosen for Who's Who. Hazel Hale, Judy Wells, Charlotte Dorsey, and Barbara Sue Owen were selected to be President's Hostesses, a group of official college hostesses.

Members of Texas Γ Pi Beta Phi were very proud of the pledge class when they won first place for a skit presented at Club Scarlet. This is the third consecutive year Pi Beta Phi has taken this honor. Another honor came to the chapter when Dianne Wheelis received third place at the annual Black and White Ball at San Antonio.

Christmas was a festive season for Texas Γ . The season began when mothers and patronesses gave a Christmas tea for actives, pledges, and alumnae in the home of Mrs. Bruce Ferrell. The pledges hosted at a Christmas party for a group of children, and then honored the members with the annual Christmas paddle party.

*TEXAS DELTA—TEXAS CHRISTIAN UNIVERSITY. Chartered, August 30, 1956. Pledge Day, October 4, 1962. The fall of 1962 has been a busy one for the chapter including several social activities. Pi Beta Phi and ΣX gave a beatnik party at the Glen Garden Country Club. Everyone dressed in costume. Later this fall, $K A \Theta$ and Pi Beta Phi sponsored a date party at the Yacht Club. Both parties proved to be a success.

To celebrate Parents' Weekend, the chapter gave a luncheon honoring the parents. The tea, during Homecoming Weekend, welcomed parents and the members of Texas Δ . At this time, Texas Δ was especially proud in its winning second place for the Homecoming float.

The chapter was honored in October by a visit from the province president, Mrs. Brack. She gave the chapter new ideas and helped build spirit.

Texas Δ is proud of the honors awarded to the members. Beverly Jamison was chosen Sweetheart of ΣX and named Horned Frog Beauty. The chapter's president, Bonnie Kingston, was elected into $A X$, Who's Who, and the Bryson Club. Alice Kelly was elected president of Colby Dormitory, secretary of the Women's Association, and secretary of the Young Democrats Club. Nancy Harder was elected treasurer of the Greek Council of Chaplains. Nancy Loffland and pledge, Sandy Martin, were selected to be members of $A \Delta$, an honorary scholastic society. Selected as a member of Corp-dettes was Lucy Sale.

The college received a $150,000 endowment from Amon G. Carter Foundation for future university use. Plans are also being made for the building of a new infirmary.

The Turtle Race bestowed a third place on "Petunia" who was the chapter's turtle.

NEW MEXICO ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF NEW MEXICO. Chartered, September 11, 1947. Pledge Day, September 15, 1962. Fall activities at the University of New Mexico have kept New Mexico Π Beta Phi busy at Penny Naughton Taggart and Stephanie Mitchell Redd were named to Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities. Other honors went to Kathy Riley who is chief clerk of the Student Senate and Carolyn Volpato, Kay Brown, and Sally Esteb were pledged to $\Phi \Gamma N$, women's business honorary.

The fall pledge class produced a very successful and worthwhile fashion show to earn money which they used to furnish our living room with beautiful lamps. The house board also gave the Pi Beta Phi some lamps. The mothers' club had their annual Christmas party which was a pot luck supper and presented the house with a very nice screen for the fire place and a lovely table cloth. As a Christmas project the Pi Beta Phi went caroling to all of the sorority and fraternity houses on campus, and also to the children's ward of the Indian Hospital.

Pi Beta Phi were not neglected in fraternity honors as Robin Read was named first runner up to $\Sigma A E$ Sweetheart. Miss Read was also tapped as a Little Sister of Minerva. Donna Clouser was named as $\Phi \Delta \Theta$ first alternate (runner up) Sweetheart. Martha Weidman was crowned $\Delta \Sigma \Phi$ Carnation Ball Queen.

Carole Bowman represented Roswell, N.M., as Sun Bowl Princess in El Paso, Texas. Miss Bowman is "Miss Roswell."

Recently we held our annual Winter Formal at which Chuck Lewis received the "Arrow Man" award. This honor is based upon the man who has helped Pi Beta Phi the most.

*COLORADO ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF COLORADO. Chartered, 1884. Pledge Day, September 16, 1962. Once again, Colorado A kept busy with fall activities. The annual retreat, held this year at the Aspen Lodge in Estes Park, proved to be an excellent introduction to the new semester. Over Homecoming, the chapter greeted Pi Beta Phi alumnae at a reception and buffet dinner. Those attending the Homecoming festivities were able to see Judi Butler take part as one of the queen attendants. Colorado A was also pleased to welcome Mrs. T. Browning, Xi Province President, when she visited the chapter in November. Over fifty dads came to Boulder from all parts of the country to be the guests of their daughters at Dads' Weekend. The pledge formal was held this year at the Denver Hilton.

Tapping for Castle Bells, the Army ROTC honorary for women, brought invitations for membership to Donna Beaver, Sara Figi, and Sheila Scott. Judi Butler and Jerri Comley were selected as two of the five finalists for the Coloradoan yearbook queen. Sherri Shaffer and Judy Weston modeled for Pi Beta Phi at Neusteters Department store.

Jeanne Johnson and Jean Santi were tapped for $K \Delta \Pi$, education honorary. Jean Santi was also selected as a state finalist for the Fulbright scholarship.

Campus activities have kept many of the members busy. Theatergoers saw Debbie Daves play one of the leading roles in The House of Bernarda Alba. Barbara Saddler is the Senior Section Editor of the yearbook, the Coloradoan. Both Jean Santi and Sue Thompson are officers of the French Club. Ginger Larson is the secretary of the Student Government Program Commission.

As in past years, the influence of migration to and from Europe is prevalent. Adria Marconi, an exchange student from Milano, Italy, is living in the house. Four seniors have returned after spending their junior year abroad: Diane Davies, Kei Hale, Sande Swine, and Sue Thompson. Operating in reverse, Sharyn Helms, Mary Ferguson, Morty Steese, Carol Tideman, Linda Skaff, and Leslie Works are studying in Europe this year.

The new pledge class has been active too. They opened the semester by winning the ΣX Derby. Vicki Craig and Nancy Wambaugh were finalists for Freshman Queen, and Mary Anderson was a $\Pi K A$ Barn Dance Queen finalist.

Fourteen pledges were tapped for Silver and Gold, the freshman honorary: Mary Anderson, Brenda Brunner, Kay Eberhardt, Ann Griffith, Anne Hageboeck, Carol Johnson, Shirley Jones, Pam Kearns, Sharon Marie, Helen O'Neil, Dorothy Taylor, Tanya Ugrin, Kay Weakley, and Diane Wickersham. Orchestral, the dance honorary, tapped Dorothy Taylor, and Betty Jo Heller was elected for membership in the scholastic honorary for women, $\Sigma E \Sigma$.

Sheila Scott, pledge class president, was elected president of Junior Panhellenic. Diane McDonough was selected as 1964 Freshman Camp Director. She is also on the editorial staff of the Colorado Daily, the campus newspaper. Sherri Lambert has been elected AWS representative and Elaine Forester is serving as a Junior Senator to the Student Government Association.

Several of the pledges hold offices in their living units. Nancy Goldsberry is resident adviser, Sheila Scott is sophomore adviser, and Diane McDonough is social coordinator. In the dormitory wings, Jackie Friedman holds the office of president. Ann Griffith, Pam Kearns, Shirley Jones and Alix Riser also holds major offices.

During the pre-Christmas weeks, the chapter invited faculty members to the annual Pi Beta Phi Faculty Sing, and sponsored a party for the boys at the Golden reformatory with Squadron 1 of the Air Force Academy. Just before vacation began, a TV set which was won by collecting Marlboro packages was donated to the Mesa Vista Home for Mexican children in Boulder.

*COLORADO BETA—DENVER UNIVERSITY. Chartered, 1885. Pledge Day, November 26, 1962. Off to a spirited start, Colorado B is beginning its second quarter with high expectations for scholarship, activities, and a bit of socializing.

Three members are chairmen in charge of AWS Women's Week, January 21 through 28. Nancy Johnson, Dana Canatsey, and Betsy Busse are heading separate parts of the turnaround week. The chapter congratulates Pam Hatfield on her co-chairmanship of Winter Carnival to be held in March.

The chapter is proud to announce that Pat Naitove was initiated into $A \Delta$ in November. Among some of the activities the chapter participated in was Greek Week. Bill boards decorated the campus while skits kept the student population in laughter. The pledges of Colorado B surged forward to win the skit competition during Greek Week. Representing the chapter, Alice Duncan was honored as one of three finalists for Greek Week Goddess.

Board of Governors selected Charla Toller and Dana Canatsey to be two of their members. As president of Junior Panhellenic, Diana Duke is encouraging high scholarship and initiating a week devoted to the betterment of scholarship among the sororities.

PLEGDED: Joan Bush, Lincoln, Neb.; Jean Nibley, Honolulu, Hawaii.

*COLORADO GAMMA—COLORADO STATE UNIVERSITY. Chartered, September 8, 1954. Pledge Day, September 23, 1962. INITIATED, October 21, 1962: Kathleen Kane, Edgemont, S.D.; Carol Wakefield, Wray; Linda Heidebrecht, Abilene, Tex.; Virginia Arnold, Arvada; Marcia Donaldson, Katherine Evans, Mimi McCord, Denver.

Fall quarter on the C.S.U. campus was another busy quarter for Colorado Gamma. During the annual Homecoming celebration, the Pi Beta Phi took the sweepstakes trophy in house decorations. Pat Tobin was a candidate for Homecoming Queen, and pledge Katie Welsh won the Freshman-Sophomore Beauty Contest. Judy McMichael was named Miss Plum Street in the annual Sigma Xi Derby Day Events.

Other activities on the campus in which Pi Beta Phi was well represented include the Horticulture show in which we won second place in our flower display. Judy Hermann had a role in the C.S.U. dramatic presentation, An Inspector Calls. Our pledges went out on Halloween and collected food which was distributed to needy families in Fort Collins. Three of our members were candidates for Poudre Musket Queen, Nancy Myers, Dotty Dots, and Carol Booth. The Aggie Angel drill team from C.S.U., which won first place in a recent regional meet included six Pi Beta Phi members. These six members were Dotty Dots, Francie Gonzales, Cathy Kharitonoff, Pat Tobin, Nancy Myers and Karen Miller. Pi Beta Phi again took first place in the Pig Catching Contest which is held in connection with the Little National Western Stock Show. Francie Gonzales was chairman for the annual Club Holiday which is sponsored by Student Center Board.

A big event of the quarter was the Pi Beta Phi Presentation Pledge Dance, the second time for this type of pledge dance for Colorado Gamma. It was held on October 13, 1962 in our new Student Center and the pledges were escorted by their fathers.

Other honors received were members selected for Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities. These members include Barbara Jo Allen, Kathy Peavy, Francie Gonzales, Carol Booth, Karen Miller and Dotty Dots. Susan Cathey was selected district Wool Queen and went on to win first runner-up in the state wool contest.

Colorado Gamma had a very successful fall quarter and is looking forward to the pleasant continuance of this year.

CAROL J. BURNS

*WYOMING ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF WYOMING. Chartered, 1910. Pledge Day, September 15, 1962. The progressing 1962-63 school year finds Wyoming Alpha actively participating in various campus activities. Football season was climaxed by Homecoming festivities. Pi Beta Phi entered and placed in the annual sing and float competition. Returning alumnae and friends were guests at the traditional after-game tea.

Wyoming Alpha ranked high in recently announced campus achievements. Anne Gilroy and Leota Heil were named to Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities with Ann Sherard and Anne Siren receiving Honorable Mention. Ann Siren and Janyce Thomas, yearbook editors, were selected for membership in Pi Beta Phi, the national journalism honorary.

Other activities thereafter, found enthusiastic support from Pi Beta Phi. Jennifer Stout reigned over the annual Powder River Ball, held in connection with the Agriculture College Rodeo. Sharon Reed played a leading role in the UW Theatre production of Shakespeare's "The Merry Wives of Windsor." Sigma Xi asked Sheri Shwen to become a member of their Sweetheart group.

In early December, the Monmouth Duo, held jointly with Kappa Kappa Gamma honored the pledges of both sororities. The Christmas season was highlighted by two parties, one given by the pledges for the active chapter, and the other, for Pi Beta Phi and their dates. The New Year brought the close of the first semester. With the start of the new one, election of officers was held. Preparation for the annual Winter Snow Carnival then found energetic support from Wyoming Alpha.

*UTAH ALPHA. UNIVERSITY OF UTAH. Chartered, 1929. INITIATED, November 18, 1962: Linda Clawson, Kendra Dedekind, Ann Dinwoodey, Bette Dudley, Sherrice Gowans, Georgia Losse, Mary Jo Maero, Margaret Orme, Linda Pelton, Salt Lake City; Jo Ann Johnson, Manhasset, N.Y.

Construction on the new chapter house has been the main concern of workmen and seventy-five Utah Alpha Pi Beta Phis who have been anxiously awaiting its date of completion which is now in sight. The fashion show held in November proved a great success thanks to the able organization of Sharon Thorne and the full support of the Salt Lake City Alumnae Club.

As usual, fall quarter gave the members a chance to shine on campus. Chosen as AWS Outstanding Coed was Sandra Speers who has proven herself well deserving of this honor. Newly initiated into Alpha Alpha Delta, scholastic honorary, is Kendra Dedekind, and Zeta Phi Eta, national speech honorary, claims as members Donya Smith, Sandra Speers and Sharon Thorne.

Selected for Philadelphia were Hilary Attwooll, Kathi Brown, Sandra Speers and Diane Swan who enthusiastically support Alpha Delta Theta.

Utah Alpha has been well represented on the university ski team by Bette Dudley, Kathie Erickson, Barbara Harker, Virginia Harker, and Mary Jo Maero.

For the second time in a row, the Sigma Xi honored a Pi Beta Phi with royalty by choosing Sally Smith to reign as Baby Orchid.

For the sake of art, Sandy Teece danced in the University's annual production of the "Nutcracker" ballet. Dot Thompson played her bassoon with the noted Utah Symphony and Jan Poole acted in "Don Quixote." Linda Clawson has been doing an outstanding job as chairman of the art exhibits in the Union Building and Sharon Thorne has arranged some notable concerts presented by her at Homes Committee.

During Homecoming, the float constructed by Sigma Xi and Pi Beta Phi won first place in the Homecoming parade.

The chapter service pin which is awarded to an outstanding member each quarter was passed on from Ann Rothwell to Judy Coombs who has worked hard for Utah Alpha during her four years at the university.

Events to be looked forward to during winter quarter are the annual Monmouth duo with Kappa Kappa Gamma, Snow Carnival, Greek Week and the grand opening of the new house at 1443 E. 1st South.

*MONTANA ALPHA—MONTANA STATE COLLEGE. Chartered, September 30, 1921. Pledge Day, November 13, 1962. INITIATED, November 18, 1962: JoAnn Cada, Columbia Falls; Claudia Carstens, Helena; Nancy Hagen, Billings; Susan Vant, Edmonton, Alberta, Canada.

Angel Flight has selected four Montana Alpha girls for membership. They are Jill Doty, Peggy Hoffman, Sandra Rase, and Mary Thibadeau.

Grace Tschache has been elected vice president of Alpha Phi Delta, art and architecture honorary, and Joan Keene and Linda Warnecke Henderson have been selected for membership in this group.

Shirley Sorenson was elected treasurer and Sandra Quickenden was elected secretary of the senior class. Linda Bramlette was elected co-social chairman and Carol Stevenson was elected secretary of the sophomore class. The freshman class elected Jill Doty secretary.

Montana Alpha was proud to win the sweepstakes for the 1962 Homecoming. House decorations won first place and the float won second place.

Two pledges, Jeanne Crites and Carol Richardson, have taken parts in plays recently presented at Montana State College. These girls deserve recognition for jobs well done.

Nancy Benke has been selected as co-chairman for the annual High School Week activities and has recently been selected for membership in Alpha Phi Gamma, journalism honorary.

Montana Alpha joined Sigma Alpha Epsilon in presenting a selection at the annual Christmas sing. A good time was had by all.

The fall party, "The Roaring Twenties" and the Settlement School Tea took place during fall quarter.

So far Montana Alpha has been enjoying an interesting and busy year.

OREGON DELTA—PORTLAND STATE COLLEGE. Chartered, December 3, 1960. Pledge Day, October 4, 1960.

Fall term was the host for many eventful and fun filled days for Oregon Delta with football season and Homecoming two of the most outstanding activities. The Pi Beta Phis at Portland State came through with many honors this term. To name but a few, Shirley Abbott was selected as one of the Homecoming Princesses. Pi Beta Phi took second prize in a Dummy Making contest.

The Oregon Deltas are now busy gathering rummage for their February rummage sale and preparing for Open House January 20.

Winter Carnival is once again in the offering and many members are fully supporting it and working hard to make sure it is a big success this year.

Our more athletically inclined members, Shirley Abbott, Bonnie Apperson and Joan Welby, gained honors in a Fencing tournament. Diane Kopta, an ace bowler and a member of the Portland State Bowling team, has once again been bestowed with many honors.

PLEGDED: Barbie Chambers, Pat Danford, Susie Holman, Carole Kessinger, Bew Kingwell, Joy Martin, Arlene Matson, Sue McKey, Doreen McLane, Linda Merz, Shayla Miller, Linda Rhoton, Sally Sagar, Bonnie Sloan, Joan Walton, and Kathy Williams. BONNIE APPERSON

*WASHINGTON ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF WASHINGTON. Chartered, January 7, 1907. Pledge Day, September 26, 1962. INITIATED, January 19, 1963: Susan Anderson, Terry Anderson, Jean Barline, Julie Child, Cheryl Culverwell, Diane Deskins, Colleen Dombroski, Sally Fitzpatrick, Faye Griswold, Louise Henry, Carlene Hildman, Beverly Hoeffler, Janice Hoeffler, Ronee Hoheim, Linda Hopkins, Judy Johnston, Diane Kingsbury, Valerie Little, Karin Lofthus, Marcia Mackey, Pamela Mangini, Marchand Melcher, Karen O'Rourke, Leslie Perham, Colleen Rotchford, Vicki Rynd, Courtney Soule, Nancy Tharp, Liz Webber, Linda Willis.

Fall quarter at the University of Washington was an active, exciting, and rewarding one for all Pi Beta Phi.

Homecoming, a high point of the quarter, was especially exciting with the crowning of Barbara Clanton, as Homecoming Queen.

Other participants in the beauty department were Val Little, a finalist for Timber Queen; Julie Child, a finalist for $\Theta \Xi$ Sweetheart; and Faye Griswood, a finalist for Acacia Sweetheart. We all were very proud of these girls in their accomplishments.

Other Pi Beta Phi honored for outstanding achievement were Terry Anderson, Julie Child, Diane Kingsbury, and Judy Strang who were tapped for Corvettes, the women's service honorary for the Navy. Tapped for membership in the Air Force Angel Wings were Judy Buck and Gretchen Vadheim. For her ability and coordination in swimming Judy Strang was selected to be a member of Silver Fish, the women's swimming honorary.

The campus version of the model United Nations (MUN) will include two Pi Beta Phi in its worthwhile activities. They are Merilee Hopkins who will represent China and Courtney Soule who will represent Great Britain on the Security Council.

Some of our freshman Pi Beta Phi sisters were recognized for their spirit and enthusiasm as five of them were selected to be freshman song leaders. They were: Colleen Dombroski, Louise Henry, Diane Kingsbury, Val Little, and Cathy Rein.

To keep the rest of us "in vogue" three freshmen were selected to be on the AWS Fashion Board led by Evie Hamilton. The three Pi Beta Phi are Colleen Dombroski, Linda Hopkins, Leslie Perham. ΣX Day was a huge success last quarter especially because the Pi Beta Phi placed third in a field of twenty.

On November 17 we had our annual semi-formal pledge dance which was held at the Glendale Country Club in Bellevue. This dinner-dance was the most successful social function of the quarter.

Last quarter we were also privileged to get acquainted with our new province president, Mrs. Finch, who stayed with us for a few days in October. We all enjoyed her visit and hope that she will come again in the near future.

To formally announce the completion of the new addition and redecoration of our chapter house we had a silver tea on January 7, 1963. This was also a very successful party.

Winter quarter at Washington holds many things in store for all Pi Beta Phi. Besides skiing on the nearby mountain slopes, we will be participating in the annual AWS elections. We are hoping for a victory with Marlis McCully who is running for vice president of the AWS. Besides skiing and elections we will endeavor to maintain our high scholarship standards, a goal ever present in our thoughts.

LIZ ROBERTS

*WASHINGTON BETA—WASHINGTON STATE UNIVERSITY. Chartered, June, 1912. Wrapped up in the late fall and early winter activities were many of the Washington B Pi Beta Phi. Susan Eldridge was chosen to be princess of the Intercollegiate Knight's royal court; Julie Vanasse was a semi-finalist for ΣK Sweetheart. In the political area of campus activities, Bonnie Berg was elected to fill the office of Executive Council Member; Susan Kelley has been nominated by Panhellenic for Panhellenic President.

Susan Berger, the chapter president, was tapped by the education honorary to become one of its number. Ann Nicholson was informed by a formal drill unit at the door of her fraternity that she was selected to be a sponsor for Crimson Rifles. The Washington State University Drill Team added to its membership, Carol Lee, Linda Carlson and Julie Vanasse.

The month of Christmas spirit brought forth the beautiful pledge dance "Make Believe." Following soon after was the traditional Christmas fireside. The fireside gathered many couples around the decorated and warm house and tree to discover what clever toys would, this year, be sent to the children's homes. The spirit beamed with singing, dancing and laughter.

*WASHINGTON GAMMA—UNIVERSITY OF PUGET SOUND. Chartered, September 9, 1948. Pledge Day, September 14, 1962. Washington I was honored by the visit of Mrs. Howard Finch, Omicron Province President, late in October. Since this was her first visit everyone enjoyed meeting her.

At the end of October the pledges of Washington I, in coordination with the pledges of B Θ II, presented their annual pledge dance, "Anchors Aweigh." Maureen Finley did an admirable job as co-chairman for this event.

Christmas was celebrated with various events. The women of the campus were invited to a coffee hour where carols were sung. Our annual Christmas dance was given with ΣX fraternity, "An Old Fashioned Christmas." We closed the year with a Christmas party where big and little sisters exchanged gifts.

Diversified talents are also apparent in our representation in campus activities. Carolyn Owens played leading roles in both the Homecoming and Christmas plays. Participating in the choral reading group are Neena Rieder and Carolyn Owens. Ardith Oldridge was chosen as a new member of the Adelpian Concert Choir. Carrie Farman is the secretary of the Judiciary Committee. Sandy Seyler is the co-chairman of the Artist and Lecture Series, the group which brings leading entertainers to our campus, the most recent being the Brothers Four.

Beth Pederson recently has been crowned the Intercollegiate Knights Queen. At their regional convention she was awarded the talent award.

*OREGON ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF OREGON. Chartered, October 23, 1915. Pledge Day, September 25, 1962. INITIATED, October 20, 1962: Sandy Allen, Martha Dibble, Karen Sherwood, Portland; Linda Kinnee, Corrine Smith, Eugene; Jennie Wilson, San Marino, Calif.

This fall included many activities for the members of Oregon A. The annual Pledge Presents was held early in the term, in which our new pledges were presented formally to parents and students. The sophomore class of the university was in charge of Homecoming, and Carol Krage, Joyce Lowery, and Meta Baerwald actively participated in the organizing activities. Sandy Novak was chosen as a princess on the Homecoming Court. Chairman of Women's Week this year is Martha Dibble.

Among the honors received by the members, Gagie Lund was tapped for $\Phi \Theta$, speech honorary. Pat Wahlstrom was initiated into $\Pi A \Theta$, education honorary, in which Judy Kleene is serving as Vice President. Half of the Senior Pi Beta Phi were tapped for the "Decoys," a senior women's cheering section which corresponds to the "Drakes," the cheering section of senior men.

Two of the chapter's pledges are on fraternity courts: Karen Darling, Dearest Girl of $\Phi K \Sigma$, and Donna Johnson, White Rose of ΣN .

Counseling in dormitories this year are Elisa Thomas, Pat Wahlstrom, Mary Jo Delyea, and Mikell Thurston.

DENNIE ALLEN

*OREGON BETA—OREGON STATE UNIVERSITY. Chartered, 1917. Pledge Day, September 24, 1962 (none this term). Another term has passed, filled with fun and busy days. The members of Pi Beta Phi honored their pledges with a dance in their honor and a cookie-shine after closing hours.

Terry Rogers represented Pi Beta Phi on the Homecoming Court, and Mary Ellen Meriam was on the $\Phi \Sigma K$ Moonlight Court. One of the finalists for Pershing Rifles Sponsor was Cherie Viggers. Tapped for A $\Delta \Delta$ were Barbara Geisler and Lynn Forrest. To be eligible for this honorary, a sophomore woman must maintain a 3.5 grade point average or above. Leah Hoffman was chosen by SAE as one of their Daughters of Minerva. Georgina Eaton, Mary Ellen Meriam, and Pat Wilson are our new Angel Flight members, a group working with Oregon State's Air Force ROTC. O N, home economics honorary, has a new Pi Beta Phi member, Sandra Shaw. Barbara Bennett was the general secretary for Homecoming.

An honor the Pi Beta Phi has won for several consecutive terms is winning the blood trophy, awarded for the greatest participation in the Campus Blood Drive.

Half way through the term our chapter held a tea in honor of our new housemother, Mrs. R. J. Connarn.

The Memorial Union Christmas Party, held for all the faculty children as well as Corvallis children, kept Melissa Plouts, Ginger Harris, Georgina Eaton, and Sharon Trorey busy acting as hostesses.

Christmas festivities within the house found the Pi Beta Phi entertaining their houseboys and cooks at a dinner given in their honor. Santa was present to distribute gifts and provide entertainment for the afternoon. Then, at the house Christmas party a week later, one of the houseboys reciprocated by playing Santa, providing laughs and fun for everyone.

MOLLY PERRY

*OREGON GAMMA—WILLAMETTE UNIVERSITY. Chartered, June 3, 1944. This fall the members of Oregon I were again an integral part of campus life. Six girls were chosen for their beauty by various groups on campus. Joan Kane was elected the Sweetheart of ΣX for the year 1962-1963. The men's living organizations chose candidates for the snow princess at the Intercollegiate Winter Carnival. Among these were, Thelma Ray, $\Phi \Delta \Theta$, Joann Gay, Belknap Hall, Joan Kane, ΣX , and Sue Sweet, K Σ . Heather Birnie was chosen as the Holiday princess of the $\Delta T \Delta$ house. Since the Willamette chapter was just chartered this fall. Heather is the first princess to be selected.

A new Christmas tradition was started this year by having a tree trim with the $\Delta T \Delta$ s for underprivileged children. The chapter also serenaded the Oregon State Blind School.

The new chapter house is progressing, although it won't be finished until next fall.

BARBARA MORSE

IDAHO ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF IDAHO. Chartered, 1923. Pledge Day, September 15, 1962. Campus activities and house projects have kept Idaho A busy this past semester.

The chapter was honored by the visit of Omicron Province's new president Mrs. W. H. Finch, Jr. The annual Wassail Hour was held December 9 with Mrs. Finch as special guest.

Fall activities brought several queen finalists to the Pi Beta Phi. Delora Cook was A $T \Omega$ Esquire Girl finalist, Nikki Dahman was Gault Hall Snowball Queen finalist and Nadine Naslund was finalist for Homecoming Queen.

Karen Petersen was elected drill leader of the Vandalette marching group and Nikki Dahman and Marcia Studebaker were chosen costume chairmen. Barbara Hardy and Melanie Fruechtenicht were tapped for Pre-Orchestra, modern dance group. Melanie was elected president of the organization. Barbara Hardy has also been chosen to be a member of Air Force ROTC Angel Flight.

Members and pledges working on student committees include Helene Gillis, Off-Campus Activities; Judy Manville, Jazz in the Bucket; Patt Kelly, Board of Selection and Control; Susan Gregg, Rally Committee; and Penny Parberry, Board of Reference.

"Cut-Off Capers" was the theme of the annual pledge dance given for the pledges and new initiates. At the Big Brother Dinner, it was announced that Derold Hurlbert, SAE, is the new Pi Beta Phi Brother.

Idaho A has enjoyed a successful fall semester and is looking forward to new activities, responsibilities and honors.

*CALIFORNIA BETA—UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA AT BERKELEY. Chartered, 1900. Pledge Day, September 15, 1962. This fall California B opened its doors for post rush. It was a new experience for all and very rewarding since when we closed our doors again we had two terrific pledges locked inside.

In November the chapter was honored by a visit from Mrs. Moore, Grand Treasurer. We held a cooky-shine for her and she entertained us with very amusing stories along with wise advice.

Honors continued our way in December when Betty Bright was chosen to be a member of the Californian Club, and Nicola Severance was tapped for Prytanean, the junior and senior women's honorary group. Jane Downer was chosen to organize the Panhellenic inter-sorority ball in the spring. And Tally Bigelow was chosen Pledge of the Month for outstanding contributions and loyalty to the house.

Recognition was also brought to California B when Janet Primms was chosen as one of the princesses to reign over the Big Game. And we placed third in house decorations for Homecoming game this year.

Socially this fall has had its high points too. California B has had exchanges with Deutch Hall, $\Phi \Gamma \Delta$, and our annual Christmas dessert with the $\Phi \kappa \tau$. Our formal was a big success and now we are looking forward to the spring and our annual mothers' club fashion show and father-daughter dinner.

PLEGDED: Megan Olson, Walnut Creek; Susan Scully, San Francisco.

*CALIFORNIA GAMMA—UNIVERSITY OF SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA. Chartered, July 27, 1917. Pledge Day, September 20, 1962. INITIATED, October 13, 1962: Diane Bleiler, Ontario; Joan Reinhalter, Long Beach.

The recent fall semester has been most rewarding for California Γ . In November the chapter was honored by the visit of the new province president, Mrs. L. W. Sipherd. Later that month the Scholarship Dinner was held carrying out the theme "Aiming for Scholarship." The chapter members had cause to celebrate and incentive to strive for still higher goals as it had been announced that Pi Beta Phi had jumped up six places on the university scholarship rating.

Pi Beta Phis continued to be active in campus activities. Mae Rekers was elected vice president of Troeds. Linda Brown and Joan Pederson were elected Historian and Social Chairman of Spurs, respectively. Cheryl Jones and Paula Grand were chosen to be AMS hostesses.

Sandy Schaffer was honored to be chosen Sweetheart of $\Sigma \chi$. Also sharing the spotlight are Martha Martinez, recently chosen a Little Sister of Minerva, and Margaret Siddenfaden, a new Little Sister of $\tau \kappa \epsilon$. Pan Showalter was invited by $\Phi \kappa \tau$ to become an honorary pledge. $\Delta \chi$ named Mae Rekers as one of the new members of Chi Delphia.

One of the most memorable events of the fall semester was the annual Father-Daughter Dinner. Each Pi Beta Phi made a hat for her father carrying out the holiday theme. A good time was had by all!

The chapter is looking forward to the spring semester activities, the main one being the annual Songfest, to be held in the Hollywood Bowl. Ann Murphy has been chosen to be on the Songfest committee and help coordinate this university event. The Spring Fashion Show and Tea, sponsored by the active Mothers Club, will be held on April 19. This is an annual affair which is enjoyed by all. Two other spring events are anticipated, Founders' Day, April 27, and the Spring Formal.

*CALIFORNIA DELTA—UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA AT LOS ANGELES. Chartered, September, 1927. Pledge Day, September 16, 1962. INITIATED, October 20, 1962: Betty Freeman, Beverly Hills; Christina Panico, Tujunga; Shari Pouliot, Burbank; Linda Sansen, Fullerton.

Fall semester brought a number of fun and inspirational activities. Starting in October, we had an exchange dinner with the $\Delta \Delta \Delta$, just for fun. We had another one late in the semester with the $\kappa \kappa \Gamma$. Then, later in the month, we had our annual retreat, only this time we had it a little different from the previous ones. We went to a nearby ranch for the day, bringing our lunches, and devoting the time to Pi Beta Phi. In the evening, our dates joined us for a wienie roast and a hay ride. The event went over quite well!

The initiation of four new members came next, and after a wonderful celebration, we had our dance. The dance was held at La Venta Inn atop a hill in Portuguese Bend. A very successful day.

Our exchanges with $\Sigma \beta \tau$ and $\Phi \kappa \Sigma$ were most fun, with costumes and themes. All for better relationships with fraternities.

We also welcomed Mrs. Sipherd to our house for three days, and we wish it had been longer. Although we were in the throes of Homecoming and all Cal Weekend, we gladly took time out to get to know our new Province President. Incidentally, those of us who went to Cal welcomed the chance to get to know our sisters to the North.

Next came Greek Week, beginning with a Dads' Dinner, honoring our dads. We had fun games and dance contest, a good event. The next day our pledges took part in the Pledge Auction to raise money for our University Camp. They sold for $70.00, one of the highest prices.

After our successful Homecoming parade, we had our float partners, $\Sigma \chi$, over for a dessert. We had two finalists for Homecoming Queen, Niki Pollack, and Candy Pope, looking as beautiful as ever.

Our last big function was the Monmouth Duo with $\kappa \kappa \Gamma$. This was a first time for us, and will now be an established tradition. It was very successful. That same night Linda Weeks was selected $\Pi \kappa \Delta$ Dream Girl.

New Sisters of Minerva ($\Sigma \Delta \epsilon$) Marty Pirie, Jan Owens, and Phyllis Blackmun are now active members. Other new little sisters are Sally Christiansen of $\Phi \kappa \Sigma$, and Pam Willis of $\Theta \Delta \chi$. Candy Evans was a $\Delta \tau \Delta$ Princess. Spurs President, Jeannie Norris, has kept the Spurs busy, including historian Candy Pope. And Prytanean President Toni Church had kept other Prytaneans Phyllis Blackmun and Anne Plumb busy. Helping to plan our spring event, Mardi Gras, a two day spectacular, are Paula Tompkins, Ronne Troup, Nancy Ackerstrom, and Sandy Squire. Karen Christopher has been quite busy as president of Junior Panhellenic.

*CALIFORNIA EPSILON—SAN DIEGO STATE COLLEGE. Chartered, August 31, 1949. Pledge Day, September 21, 1962. INITIATED, October 28, 1962: Susie Ross, Coronado; Sheila McKenzie, Rita Parker, Claudia Pierson, San Diego; Gayle Griggs, San Gabriel.

California E Pi Beta Phis are well represented on campus as four members were elected to Associated Student offices. They are Claudia Pierson, Sophomore Class Treasurer; Stephanie Evans, Sophomore Class Secretary; Janice Mayer, Freshman Class Treasurer; Linda Wood, Senior Class Secretary.

October 27 the pledges were kidnapped by the actives for a "Come As You Are Breakfast." Then on October 28 California E sponsored a "Night At The Old Globe." The chapter sold tickets for the play, "The Fantastiks" as a money raising project for our future new house.

Mrs. Sipherd, Pi Province President, visited the chapter on October 29, 30, and 31. The members were thrilled to meet and become acquainted with Mrs. Sipherd.

Homecoming will long be remembered by Pi Beta Phi of California E as the chapter was awarded Sweepstakes for house decorations. Dexter Fisher was one of the Homecoming Princesses.

November 4 the pledge class treated the active chapter to a picnic, and even though the sky was overcast the spirits were high.

The active retreat was held at the Laguna Mountain Lodge on November 16 and 17. At the same time the pledges were having a retreat in a nearby cabin.

Panhellenic and the Inter-Fraternity Council held a Greek Retreat at Palomar Mountain on the weekend of November 30. Four active members from each fraternity and women's fraternities attended and discussed problems common to all Greek organizations.

The pledges surprised the actives on December 1 with a "Come As You Are Breakfast" at a local pancake house. On December 10 the Mothers' Club sponsored a Christmas party for the Pi Beta Phi and their parents. The Christmas Dance was held on December 16 at the Islandia Hotel.

Sherill Bottier was chosen AWS Woman of Achievement for December and Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities; Sara Vickers, Janice Mayer, and JoAnn Miller were Princesses of the Chariot Races. Janell Short, Patti Jones, and Pam Sellman were selected for Cetza, a lower division service organization. Geri Berg and Janet Johnson were tapped for Little Sisters of Minerva. Patti Jones and Janet Johnson were nominated for Miss Knockout. Jan Collins and Geri Berg were tapped for Angel Flight. Dexter Fisher was tapped for Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities.

*CALIFORNIA ZETA—UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA AT SANTA BARBARA. Chartered, February 2, 1950. Pledge Day, October 7, 1962. Progress continues at UCSB as San Miguel, a twin-wing eight story dorm, nears completion. UCSB served as host school to the annual Spurs convention, held on December 2nd and 3rd. The university seems to be a popular convention center: Cal Club is planning their winter conference here during semester break.

Between their pledges and their alumnae, the girls of Pi Beta Phi have had a busy fall semester. The traditional pledging ceremony was held on October 7, 1962, binding to the chapter the girls chosen during Open Rush. A week later the chapter united in sponsoring a tea in honor of its charming housemother, Mae Doop.

The month of December brought a glow of excitement as Pi Beta Phi looked forward to Christmas. To usher in the season, the alumnae club of Santa Barbara invited the active chapter to their annual Christmas party, held at the beautiful home of Mrs. Forbes. All joined together in games and songs and the enjoyment of refreshments. It is customary at this time for the alumnae club to present its Christmas gift to the house. Imagine the girls' shock of happiness when President Mary Leinster opened a box containing a miniature grand piano—a "reasonable facsimile" of what was to arrive a few days later.

California Z celebrated Christmas at its own party, held at the house before our last meeting. Joke gifts were exchanged and carols were sung, and everyone looked forward more than ever to the Big Day.

One more party was to make the walls of the Pi Beta Phi house ring that month as California Z sponsored its annual Song Title Party. Each person came dressed as the title of a song, and the men's dates were not revealed until the third dance. Happy couples rocked to the music of the Royaltones, and aluminum ice buckets were well received as favors. As usual, everyone had a wonderful time.

The girls of Pi Beta Phi have been fortunate in receiving more than their share of honors this semester. Leanne Moffett was chosen as Santa Barbara's Homecoming princess. The men of Σ A E chose Bobbie Burnette, Diana Litts, Kaaren Kettle, Patsy Parrish, Peggy Schevill, and Carolyn Shepherd as Little Sisters of Minerva. Colonel's Coeds, an ROTC honorary marching unit, this semester include pledges Diana Buffington, Sue Hill, Georgia Young, and Vickie Yarwood; also actives Bobbie Burnette and Kathy Harbordt.

All in all, California Z has enjoyed a very successful semester in every way, and looks forward to an equally rewarding spring semester, 1963. See you then!

BARBARA HOWORTH

*NEVADA ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF NEVADA. Chartered, 1915. Pledge Day, September 17, 1962. INITIATED, October 6, 1962: Barbara Coughlan, Sally Newport, Doris McGuire.

With all the parties and excitement of Christmas over, the members of Nevada A have final examinations to look forward to. The final week before Christmas vacation was a series of parties and dances. Nevada A held its Christmas formal on December 7. Our annual party for underprivileged children was a big success, with the members of Nevada A enjoying everything as much as the four small children. Also a party with the alumnae club was held December 20. Judy Charbonneau, social chairman, was in charge of these enjoyable parties.

Four Nevada A members were recently chosen to the national Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities. Those selected were: Ellen Murphy, Mimi Patrick, Pat White, and Jeanne Sadler. Other Nevada A members receiving honors on campus are: Virginia Bath who was elected as president of Association for Childhood Education International, and Joyce Muller who was chosen as secretary-treasurer of the Ski Club. Karry DeVincenzi was elected to be the freshman women's representative to the AWS council. Among our queens were: Patti Plenn who was an attendant to the Homecoming Queen, Andree Walker who was a Military Ball princess, and Toni Gale, A X Christmas princess.

Nevada A again won the Homecoming skit, and after three years in succession, the revolving trophy is ours to keep. We also won the dance attendance trophy for the Homecoming dance.

JEANNE SADLER

*ARIZONA ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF ARIZONA. Chartered, August 1, 1917. Pledge Day, September 15, 1962. Wishes are coming true for Arizona As who are tossing pennies into the unusual new fountain given to them by the mothers' club for Christmas. Plans are being made to redecorate the living room around the fountain this summer.

Election results for class officers found four Pi Beta Phis drawing majority votes. These officers are: Margie Tench, senior vice president; Suzi Sato, junior secretary; Sandi Button, sophomore treasurer; and Pam Shumacher, freshman secretary.

Europe is the destination of Lois Fenstermaker who was selected to participate in the Experiment in International Living Program this summer. The newly formed Junior Panhellenic organization elected Elaine Moe to its presidency. Barbara Longjohn is assistant editor of the Desert, the university yearbook.

Members of Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities were announced in November. Susan Palmer, Margie Tench, and Suzi Sato were on the list. O N, Home Economics honorary, extended an invitation to join to Margie Tench.

The serenading and tapping of the fraternity auxiliary groups of Σ A E and Φ Δ Θ brought much excitement to the house. Linda Marshman was chosen for Little Sisters of Minerva and Judy Anderson, Pat Butler, Jan DuPlain, Molly Keil, Carolyn Mackus, and Gen Wilmer were selected for Phidelphians.

Although busy with school the pledge class has also found time to surprise the actives with such things as filled Christmas stockings decorated with names. One of their money raising projects was a workday in conjunction with the alumnae club. In October, when Mrs. Moore visited, the pledges modeled for a fashion show which provided entertainment for a tea.

The entire house enjoyed a Christmas tree trimming exchange with Σ N and caroling with Δ X. Another typically Arizona Christmas tradition is the annual Santa Claus party given for Yaqui Indian children. Climaxing the season was the Christmas formal where Steve Stanton, Δ X, was crowned "Pi Phi" Man.

Be sure to send GT1 form with check for fees.

GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS

CHAPTER TREASURERS: Should see that letter from Grand Treasurer to the Parents of Actives and Pledges is sent to the parents as early in the fall as it is possible. The local letter on chapter finances which goes with it should have been approved by the Province President the previous Spring. It is necessary that parents understand the financial obligations at the beginning of the year.

Should see that Financial Statements to Parents of Pledges are sent approximately two weeks before the proposed initiation. They should be sent ONLY to the Parents of the girls who have met the initiation requirements and whom the chapter definitely plans to initiate. This means too that the blanks should be sent only for the girls who have received the required vote of the Executive Council and the Alumnae Advisory Committee for approval of initiation.

Should see that badges are ordered through the Central Office. It takes six weeks or more, to complete badge orders. Badges for prospective members should not be ordered until all initiation requirements have been met.

Should send the National pledge fee for each pledge with Form GT1 to Central Office. Canadian chapters send fee to Mrs. Henry Moore, Jr., 420 Pine Street, Texarkana, Texas, with GT1 form. Send within two weeks of any pledging or repledging.

Should send the initiation fee for each initiate with Form GT1 to Central Office within three days of initiation.

Canadian chapters send initiation fees to Mrs. Henry Moore, Jr., 420 Pine Street, Texarkana, Texas, with GT1 form.

Should send monthly reports to Pi Beta Phi Central Office, 264 Citizens Bldg., Decatur, Ill.

CHAPTER CORRESPONDING SECRETARIES: Should report to the Central Office and to the Province President changes in chapter officers if they are made any time during the year.

CHAPTER MEMBERSHIP CHAIRMAN: Should send within five days after any pledging, to the Director of Membership, a recommendation and consent to bid blank, or letter of recommendation, or blue blank of information from the State Membership Chairman, for each girl pledged. All blanks or letters must be counter-signed by the chapter alumna membership advisor. Should send within two weeks after the close of the formal rushing season, a report to the Province President on the result of rushing and pledging. Also report to the Province President and the Central Office, the name and address of the newly elected Chapter Membership Chairman.

CHAPTER PLEDGE SUPERVISORS: Should send a list of pledges, on forms intended for that purpose, to the Central Office and Director of Membership within five days after any pledging or repledging.

CHAPTER VICE-PRESIDENTS: Should send to the Province President within three days after any initiation a report that new membership cards have been placed in the card file.

CHAPTER RECORDING SECRETARY: Should send Recording Secretary's Membership Report to Central Office.

This is a report which is sent out from Central Office of all girls in school at beginning of each semester on I.B.M. listing, and is completed with assistance of Vice President.

CHAPTER HISTORIANS: Should send to the Province President within three days after any initiation a report that names of the new initiates have been recorded in the Record of Membership Book.

CHAPTER PROGRAM CHAIRMEN: Should send a report to the Director of Programs (see current ARROW for name and address) within one week following the holding of the program based upon material sent by that officer from Central Office.

CHAPTER PANHELLENIC DELEGATES: Should send semi-annual reports to the National Panhellenic Conference Delegate on blanks sent out by her for that purpose.

When college schedules make it impossible to comply exactly with fraternity calendar dates, chapter officers should contact Central Office or the officer concerned, explain the situations and receive special permission to vary from the established dates.
